MARCH FOR LIFE | 2017
JANUARY 27, 2017 | WASHINGTON, D.C.

JOIN US!

Our vision is a world where every human life is valued and protected.
That phrase ‘kingdom of heaven’ appears 30 times in the Gospel of Matthew. The phrase ‘the kingdom of God’ is used no less than 70 times in the New Testament. It is a summary, a vision statement, of what Jesus intends to do. It will shape His entire ministry from this point onward.

Which leads us to ask — what is our vision as a Catholic community in Bellmore today? What do we hope to do? What should be our mission?

As Christians we try to follow Jesus’ example as He goes out and calls others to be a part of the kingdom. He reaches out to those He encounters in everyday life and evangelizes. The word ‘evangelism’ comes from a Greek word that means ‘good news.’ It is not about threats and coercion. It is not about slick ad campaigns and in-your-face tactics. It is not about programs and pamphlets and publicity. Evangelism is about proclaiming in word and deed that the kingdom of heaven has come near through Jesus Christ, and welcoming others to live as citizens of that kingdom.

You'll notice that Jesus ‘goes out’ to find His disciples. He doesn't just set up a sign outside His office that says ‘Disciples Welcome’ or run an ad in the bulletin, ‘Wanted: Disciples’ and wait for applicants to respond. Jesus takes the initiative to go where the people are and invite them to become disciples.

We see him in today’s gospel going to the Sea of Galilee where the fishermen are. Time and again we find Him in the course of His daily life encountering people, sharing with them about His vision of the kingdom, and inviting them to join Him. Some respond. Many do not. But regardless of the outcome, Jesus remains faithful to His vision and continues to invite others.

All throughout His ministry Jesus spoke of Himself and His mission, the kingdom of heaven, in terms that people could understand. For example, in talking to fishermen He invites them to ‘fish for people.’ In the pastoral setting of Palestine, He called Himself ‘The Good Shepherd.’ To the crowd that he had fed just the day before using only five loaves and two fish He said He was ‘The Bread of Life.’ He speaks to everyday people in a way they can understand.

And we are told that great crowds flocked to Jesus from all over Palestine. All of the people that come are also included in the kingdom of heaven as Jesus heals them and their friends. For part of being in the kingdom is being made more whole. The list of ailments that Jesus cures includes not only physical disease, but mental, emotional and spiritual as well.

We ask the Lord to help us discovers a vision for sharing the good news of Jesus in our time and place. To give us the courage to invite our neighbors to join in living out that vision. As we include new people into the life of our faith community, we follow in the footsteps that Jesus himself set forth.

The Anointing of the Sick
The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place on Saturday, January 28th immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass in the Church. Those wishing to receive the Sacrament should sit in the front rows of the Church.

10:15 Mass Holy Family Chapel
Please bring you small children to the Family Liturgy Mass where they can participate in many different ways, such as processing into Mass with the priest, answering questions, acting out the scriptures, singing and lecturing. It is a relaxed atmosphere, but reverent at the same time. We have hospitality after mass on the first Sunday of the month, the next one being February 5th. New families and new ideas and helping hands are welcome. We have themes for each liturgical season. Lent begins on March 1st and attention is given to the different ways that children can give of themselves during this season of reflection and reconciliation.

St. Barnabas Parish Dinner
Please mark you calendar for Saturday, March 18th following the 4:30 Mass for an evening in honor of Saints Patrick and Joseph. We will be enjoying both Irish and Italian Cuisine with entertainment in the school auditorium/gym. There will be child care and activities, so please feel to bring your family. The price will be about $50 per person (family pricing will also be announced) for food, drink and entertainment. Additional details will be announced as the date gets closer. For reservations please call Austin at 826-2357 or 221-7186.

Respect Life
March for Life - January 27th - We ask all to join in solidarity and prayer with the hundreds of thousands of Americans who will be marching in Washington DC for the sanctity and protection of pre-born human life. We ask that you also pray for the safety of the marchers as they bear witness, through this peaceful pilgrimage, to the tragedy of abortion and the celebration of life.

- Join thousands of Catholics nationwide in nine days of prayer and action focused on cherishing the gift of every human life. Visit www.9daysforlife.com for more details.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children - January 22nd - The USCCB reminds us that the General Instruction of the Roman Missal designates January 22nd as a special “Day of Prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.” Please note that because January 22nd falls on a Sunday, the designated observance is Monday, January 23rd. The USCCB states “As individuals, we are called to observe this day through penitential practices of prayer, fasting, and/or giving alms. Another way to take part is through participating in special events to observe the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade.

Long Island Coalition for Life
Help restore the right to life for pre-born humans. Please join the Long Island Coalition for Life for the Roe v. Wade Anniversary Memorial Face the Truth event on Sunday, January 22nd, 1:30 PM to 3:00 PM. Thousands more are hurting because of those abortions. Be a positive sign for LIFE! Signs will be provided. Sponsored by: LICL (631)243-1435, info@prolifeLI.org.

World Day for Consecrated Life, February 2, 2017
(Celebrated in Parishes February 4-5)

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Check out these great tips for Moms
From Chapter Five of Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love), the Pope’s document on family and love

1. Children are never a mistake. “There are those who dare to say, as if to justify themselves, that it was a mistake to bring these children into the world. This is shameful!” He asks that children always be recognized as a gift of God, even when they were not within the couple’s original plans.

2. No sacrifice is too large when made for your child.

3. Citing Pope John Paul II, Francis refers to pregnancy as participating in “the mystery of creation, which is renewed with each birth.” These nine months are full of hopes and dreams, as the mother wonders what her baby’s life will be like. Francis encourages expectant mothers: “Keep happy and let nothing rob you of the interior joy of motherhood. Your child deserves your happiness. Don’t let fears, worries, other people’s comments or problems lessen your joy at being God’s means of bringing a new life to the world. Prepare yourself for the birth of your child, but without obsessing, and join in Mary’s song of joy: ‘My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord and my spirit exults in God my Savior’… Try to experience this serene excitement amid all your many concerns, and ask the Lord to preserve your joy, so that you can pass it on to your child.”

4. Children are not the result of personal goals or expectations. He or she is not an accessory or a solution to some personal need. He or she is a human being. “A child is a human being of immense worth and may never be used for one’s own benefit. So it matters little whether this new life is convenient for you, whether it has features that please you, or whether it fits into your plans and aspirations.” The pope adds, “We love our children because they are children, not because they are beautiful, or look or think as we do, or embody our dreams. We love them because they are children. A child is a child.” The pope invites parents to await the birth of their children with tenderness, to accept them unconditionally and to welcome them without expecting something in return.

5. Children need the love of their father and mother, who help them to mature harmoniously. They also need the love that the parents have for each other. “The love of parents is the means by which God our Father shows his own love,” the pope says. “Husband and wife, father and mother, both ‘cooperate with the love of God the Creator, and are, in a certain sense, his interpreters.’ They show their children the maternal and paternal face of the Lord. Together they teach the value of reciprocity, of respect for differences and of being able to give and take.”

6. Francis recommends wisely integrating the demands of a job with the responsibilities of motherhood, especially noting the importance of accompanying children in a special way during their early years. He says an absence of the “maternal presence with its feminine qualities poses a grave risk to our world.”

7. And he reminds women of the need to use their feminine genius: their tenderness, compassion and capacity to welcome. “Their specifically feminine abilities – motherhood in particular – also grant duties,” he says, “because womanhood also entails a specific mission in this world, a mission that society needs to protect and preserve for the good of all.”

The pope thanks mothers, saying they are “the strongest antidote to the spread of self-centered individualism… It is they who testify to the beauty of life.” Certainly, “a society without mothers would be dehumanized, for mothers are always, even in the worst of times, witnesses to tenderness, dedication and moral strength.”
The purpose of this lesson is to encourage us to understand who the Holy Spirit is and to cultivate a relationship with the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Blessed Trinity. The “Age of the Spirit” began at Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended to lead them “to all the truth” (John 16:13) as the apostles built up the Church all over the world. The Holy Spirit was present at Creation, has worked throughout salvation history, enters us at Baptism, and seals each person at Confirmation with an indelible mark, empowering him or her with all that is necessary to accomplish what God has in store.

Conversation After Class
- Why do we need the Holy Spirit?
- What is Pentecost? (This event was when the Holy Spirit came upon the apostles and empowered them to begin preaching the gospel throughout the whole world.) (See Acts 2)
- Why is the Holy Spirit sometimes called the “hidden Person of the Trinity”? (The Holy Spirit helps us to be holy, but as a silent strength within us. The Holy Spirit helps each of us to do our appointed job within the Church.)

The purpose of this lesson is to convey the truth about what happens after death, sometimes called the “four last things”: death, judgment, heaven, and hell. While the subject of life after death makes some people uncomfortable, God in his great mercy reveals these truths to us for two reasons: first, to give us a chance to prepare ourselves for that final journey, and second, so that each day we will “remember death” — full of the hope that each day brings us closer to attaining the end for which we were created: lifelong union with God. The glory to which every person on earth is called reveals how we should live our lives here and now.

Conversation After Class
- Who in our family has died that we can pray for?
- Why do you think God created a place of purification after death—purgatory? (See CCC 1030-1032.)
- If you only had one week left to live, what would you do with that time?
- What do you think heaven is like? Why do you want to go there?
