Visits to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

Throughout our ordinary day, whenever we see a Catholic Church whether we are walking, driving, riding the train or a bike, we know that there is a burning candle near the tabernacle and inside that tabernacle Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist.

As it can be difficult to go to Mass everyday due to one’s circumstances in life, it is very possible for many of us to go to church just to spend some time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Even if it is spending 3-5 minutes in prayer on a daily basis with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. As short as that is, the value of being with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is immeasurable. This can help one’s relationship with Christ and with others substantially.

In fact, one of the most famous American bishops, the Venerable Fulton Sheen urged priests to make a holy hour everyday which is spending one hour in prayer with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. This is not a Mass it is simply being with Jesus in prayer. Fulton Sheen made a holy hour every day. He died on December 9, 1979 in his private chapel with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

There is a priest that I know who makes short visits to Jesus in the Eucharist many times a day. He tries to keep Christ as the beginning, the center, and the end of his day. It helps him tremendously.

Although most of us can’t make several visits to the Blessed Sacrament in a single day, we can make at least one. The church is open all day from 6:00AM to 8:00PM. On Sundays it is open till 6:00 PM. There are plenty of opportunities for us to come. Jesus is always waiting for us!

A good Christian classic that can help us to pray during short visits to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, is Visits to the Blessed Sacrament and the Blessed Virgin Mary by St. Alphonsus Liguori.

On Tuesday, October 29th, we will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 6:00 PM to 10:00 PM praying for all the priests and seminarians of the diocese by name. Of course, one is not expected to attend for the entire time but feel free to come and spend some time with our Lord in prayer for the priests and seminarians.

On Thursday, October 31st on the Vigil of All Saints Day, we will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament immediately following the 7:00 PM Mass. The intention for this Holy Hour will be for the healing and purification of the Church.

What great joy it gives to our guardian angel and to the Blessed Mother each time we visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Mary, Mother of Jesus, throw your mantel of purity over our priests. Protect them, guide them, and keep them in your heart. Be a Mother to them, especially in times of discouragement and loneliness. Love them and keep them belonging completely to Jesus. Like Jesus, they, too, are your sons, so keep their hearts pure and virginal. Keep their minds filled with Jesus, and put Jesus always on their lips, so that He is the one they offer to sinners and to all they meet. Mary, Mother of Jesus, be their Mother, loving them and bringing them joy. Take special care of sick and dying priests, and the ones most tempted. Remember how they spent their youth and old age, their entire lives serving and giving all to Jesus. Mary, bless them and keep a special place for them in your heart. Give them a piece of your heart, so beautiful and pure and immaculate, so full of love and humility, so that they, too, can grow in the likeness of Christ. Dear Mary, make them humble like you, and holy like Jesus. Amen.
Thanksgiving Baskets

Thanksgiving is a very special time for each of us as we celebrate and give thanks to God for family, friends and the many blessings we share. Still, there are those among us who will need our help to make their Thanksgiving a happy one. Here at St. Barnabas, we have a rich and generous tradition of sharing our blessings with those in need by providing food baskets at Thanksgiving. So, this year again, we invite you to donate one or more of the following items: canned vegetables (including yams), cranberry sauce, stuffing, potatoes (canned or instant), gravy, pancake mix/syrup, cereal, cider/juice, cake mix/frosting, pie filling/pie crust, muffin mix, canned fruit, cookies (tin/box), candy, coffee/tea, napkins, and gift cards to purchase a turkey. Many thanks for your help throughout the year and with this special request at Thanksgiving. God bless you for your generosity to the poor!

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
Our Lord’s words in today’s Gospel are an encouragement to us to persevere in prayer and not be discouraged because God seems to be slow in answering our prayers. Perhaps the reason we become discouraged in prayer, is that we feel in a vague sort of way, that God is not taking us seriously. The fact is, of course, that it is WE, very often who are not taking God seriously. The truth is that it is not God who fails to take us seriously when we pray to Him, but rather WE fail to take God seriously. I do not mean that we are disrespectful towards God when we pray, but rather that in our heart of hearts we pray without full confidence that He is going to give us what we ask. I wonder if God is slow in answering our prayers at times in order to perfect the confidence which He wishes us to have in Him who is our Father. He desires us to ask with both our hearts and our heads. Prayer must always be an expression of the love that is in us for God, for His words, for His Church and for those who have much less than we have - namely, His poor. Please continue to support St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you.

The Men of the Way of Light
We observe an amazing victory in this week’s first reading, as Israel “mowed down” the Amalekites in battle. To what should we attribute this profound victory, if not to prayer? Moses stood throughout the battle with his arms lifted up holding the rod of God. When Moses lowered his arms due to weariness, the battle shifted against Israel. Two men, Hur and Aaron came to Moses’ aid by helping to hold up his arms until the victory was won.

Tertullian, in his treatise On Prayer, explains why we should pray and not become weary and faint of heart. “Prayer is the one thing that can conquer all. Christ has willed that it should work no evil and has given it all power. It gives strength to the weak, heals the sick, and frees the innocent from their chains. Prayer cleanses us from sin, drives away temptations, stamps out persecutions, comforts the faint-hearted, gives new strength to the courageous, brings travelers safely home, calms the waves, confounds robbers, feeds the poor, overrules the rich, lifts up the fallen, supports the unsteady, and sustains those who stand firm. What more need be said on the duty of prayer? Even the Lord Himself prayed.” Prayer is the most powerful discipline we have for invoking the power of God. In this week’s Gospel, Jesus teaches a valuable aspect of prayer, the one Moses illustrated - persist, don’t give up. We are challenged by Jesus’ words that we “ought always to pray and not lose heart.” (Luke 18:1)

Another lesson from Moses’ experience is that it is important to have companions who will prevail with us in prayer when we are spiritually weary and are about to give up. The help and encouragement Aaron and Hur gave Moses is not unlike that which
Focus on Religious Freedom

Worldwide Religious Freedom Abuses - Part 2:
The persecution of Christians around the world has increased in 2019 with concern for believers in China, India, and Nigeria. Watchdog group, Release International, reports 215 million believers face violence and discrimination for their faith.

China continued: One underground church leader wrote in 2018: “Things are getting tighter here...Brothers & sisters are facing difficulties and suffering for their faith. My sister (& family) were put in jail for gathering with about 30 people...They were beaten and shocked by the electric sticks...”

India: Hate crimes and targeted violence rose 57% during the first two months of January. The Religious Liberty Commission pointed to violent radical mobs that have stormed prayer meetings, ransacked churches, and beaten believers. Recently, Indian authorities jailed church leaders and their families after hardline Hindus disrupted a worship service, beat individuals, and live-streamed the events on FaceBook. Radical Hindu nationalists use social boycotts to pressure Christians into converting to Hinduism. Christian families are cut off from electricity, water, the ability to cultivate agricultural fields, and even the ability to socialize with Hindu villagers.

Nigeria: Militants such as Boko Haram continue devastating attacks against Christians in the north and central Nigeria. In a six month period, 6,000 people were killed and 50,000 were driven from their homes. Release International said there is a “deliberate plan to destroy and take over the predominately Christian communities in the region.” The Christian Association of Nigeria said what is happening is “pure genocide and must be stopped immediately.”

“All religious minorities must be protected, and the evidence demonstrates that in some countries, Christians face the greatest risk.” - U.K. Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt

He said: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared what people thought."

Jesus said there was a widow in that town who kept coming to the judge with the plea, "Grant me justice." But the judge would not help her.

Jesus continued, "Finally he said to himself, 'I don't fear God or care what people think, but this widow keeps bothering me. I will see that she gets justice, so that she won't come and attack me.'"

Connect the dots.
