2017 marks the 100th anniversary of the apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary to 3 shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. In honor of this important centennial, Pope Francis has declared a Jubilee Year from the 27th of November 2016 till the 26th of November 2017. As part of the Jubilee Year, the Holy Father has granted the opportunity for the Catholic faithful to obtain a plenary indulgence under the normal conditions (detachment from sin, confession, communion, and prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father) and meeting ONE of the following sets of conditions:

◊ Make a pilgrimage to the Sanctuary of Fatima in Portugal, “devotedly participate” in prayer or celebration in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, pray the “Our Father” and the “Creed” and invoke Our Lady of Fatima;

◊ Make a visit to an image or statue of Our Lady of Fatima that is on display for public veneration in any Church, Oratory, or “adequate place” on the anniversary days of the apparitions (the 13th of each month from May – October 2017) and “devotedly participate” in prayer or celebration in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, pray the “Our Father” and the “Creed” and invoke Our Lady of Fatima;

◊ If due to age, illness, or other serious reason are unable to meet either of the above sets of conditions should offer on the days of the apparitions (the 13th of each month from May – October 2017) join “spiritually the jubilee celebrations, offering with confidence to the merciful God through Mary their prayers and pains, or the sacrifices of their own life” in front of an image of Our Lady of Fatima while having repented of all of their sins with the firm intention of carrying our the normal conditions for an indulgence including confession and communion.

Visit St. Barnabas Church on November 6th from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM for veneration of the National Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima. Prayer Vigil from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM.

This statue is a beautiful hand-carved image of Our Lady of Fatima given to the United States by the bishop of Fatima after being blessed by Pope Paul VI in 1967. She was crowned by Cardinal O’Boyle at the National Basilica in Washington in 1971.

This statue presently travels across the United States under the sponsorship of the World Apostolate of Fatima U.S.A. She has proven time and again to be the catalyst for renewed interest in the message of Fatima and for exposing new generations of Catholics who are unaware of the important message of conversion and peace brought by Our Lady to the three shepherd children in 1917.
A teacher in our school told me how her class were doing a quiz on the computer. One of the questions on the screen said, ‘How many of each animal did Moses take on the ark?’ They answered two. But the computer gave a negative response. Why? Because it was Noah who brought the animals, not Moses! The computer has a habit of slipping "trick questions" and, of course, everyone groaned when it revealed the answer.

Such was the case with the Pharisees and Saducees in Jesus' day. We are told that they wanted to catch Jesus. So these two parties, who usually didn't get along, finally got their heads together for a common purpose - to try to get rid of Jesus. So they try to set Him up. They think that they can create a situation where either they can turn the crowds against Him, or cause Him to get in trouble with the law.

Of course, it backfired on them. Jesus answers them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and the things to God that are God's." The Romans couldn't complain about that. He was advocating giving Caesar his due, wasn't He? Nor could those who were against them complain. After all, wasn't He really saying that everything was God's? But it leaves us in a quandry, doesn't it? What is he really saying?

The point is, that when Jesus says, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's," He is acknowledging that both areas are realms of God's concern, and both realms express God's care for us. They are two sides of the same coin. However imperfectly human beings carry out their duties in the political realm - that realm could be an expression of God's care for people. Sometimes that care can be a wonderful thing. Throughout the recent hurricanes, fires and shootings, and their aftermath, much praise was extended to the officials who responded to these disasters. What a wonderful blessing they have been! On the other hand, how often do we get frustrated with some of our state and federal officials when the worst of "politics," gets in the way of progress.

When Jesus says, "Render to God the things that are God's," we become aware that everything is God's. He is not drawing a division between what is Caesar's and what is God's. All of life belongs to Him. In both realms, He shows His love and care for us. And, therefore, everything we have is truly His - they are all gifts from His hand.

We cannot hold back one area of life and call it "Caesar's." All that Caesar has is also God's. And that thought can be extended to every other area of life. There is nothing that is truly "mine" either. We cannot compartmentalize our life, put ten percent in one area and call it "Church," another portion in another place and call it "Caesar's," another portion in another place and call it "family," or "business," or "mine." It is all God's.

That is what Jesus is telling us. In every area of life He shares His blessings. In every area of life He rules. The good news is that He can take every area of life - your profession, your family, your hobbies, your friendships - and through them express His love and care for both you and others. Turned over to Him, they become wonderful gifts, given through human hands - your hands - but expressing His loving care for the world He loves so much, the world where He is Lord of all of life.

World Mission Sunday

This collection on the next-to-last Sunday in October is a unique, global effort for the entire Church to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help, experience God’s love, mercy, hope and peace. This year, we are reminded by Pope Francis that Mission is at the Heart of Christian Faith. This year, we are invited to “Chat With The Pope” to learn more about his missions. Society of St. Vincent de Paul
In the Gospel today, Jesus says, “Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” Jesus’ answer puts things into perspective. There are different spheres of rule, and our loyalties are not either/or, but there is appropriate behavior belonging to both spheres. Christian living is being comfortable in all spheres, all having their just due, without compromising God’s sovereignty. When God is truly the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due. Let us complain less of our times and more of ourselves. Let us not be discouraged, let us be better. We all share the eyes of Jesus Christ and those eyes are the eyes of a poor man. Through your generosity and prayers, we at St. Vincent de Paul are able to continue to do God’s work helping the poor and needy in the parish. Thank you.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion
On October 6th, the president issued a new rule replacing the coercive HHS (Health and Human Services) mandate that had required all employers, including religious charities like the Little Sisters of the Poor, to provide contraceptives, abortion inducing drugs and sterilization, which clearly denied their deeply held religious beliefs. In 2012 when the mandate (not a law) was issued by the HHS secretary, over 100 leaders of many different religions were critical of the mandate and stated, “The HHS policy is coercive and puts the administration in the position of defining - or casting aside - religious doctrine. This should trouble every American.” The new ruling states, “entities that have sincerely held religious beliefs against providing such services (contraception, abortion drugs, sterilization) would no longer be required to do so.” These same protections apply to “organizations and small businesses that have objections on the basis of moral conviction which is not based in any particular religious belief.” With this action, Americans no longer have to prove that they deserve their religious liberty. Now, any action by the federal government that would “substantially burden religious freedom” is held to an “exceptionally demanding standard.”

Still, there are those among us who will need our help to make their Thanksgiving a happy one. Here at St. Barnabas we have a rich and generous tradition of sharing our blessings with those in need by providing Food Baskets at Thanksgiving. Operation Christmas Child
Thursday, November 16th

Please help the students of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Regional School as they collect gifts and pack shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child 2017. Our goal this year is to fill over 850 boxes! We hope that through your kindness and generosity we will meet this goal, and the true meaning of Christmas and the Word of Our Lord will be shared with needy children around the world. We welcome donations that will fit into a shoebox, such as: new or gently used small toys, dolls, pens, notepads, socks, girls hair accessories, small religious items, combs and toothbrushes.

Please send your donations through your rectory, marked SEAS/OCC or contact Laurie Graham directly at 516 379-6216, to arrange for a pick up, no later than November 14th. Thank you.

The purpose of this lesson is to introduce an overview of salvation history. We begin the story by addressing the question, ‘How could a good God allow so much suffering and evil?’ We explore the goodness of God’s creation, how sin and evil entered the world, and God’s redemptive plan, (the ‘plot’ of salvation history), which centered in the person and work of Christ and the establishment of the Church. The proclamation of the gospel message that invites a response.

Conversation After Class
What is “salvation history”?
If you could have lived at any time in salvation history, who would you want to meet and why?
How is the human family like the Trinity?

If Jesus answered “No,” the Herodians would turn Him in to the government. If he said “Yes,” the Jewish people would think He didn’t believe God was their only King.
