What's Pastor Thinking?

If you work for a company or are part of an organization will you be aware that it has a Mission Statement? Can you say what the Mission Statement is? Probably not! The Mission Statement is the invention of the management consulting industry of the 1980's. Great fortunes were made by consultants who hired themselves out to help organizations generate Mission Statements, and along the way they got us to think outside the box, maximize our potential, and understand the difference between a goal and an objective.

These Mission Statements are supposed to help us understand what's at our core: what's most important about who we are, and what we do. The problem with most of them, unfortunately, is that they tend to be too long, too filled with jargon, and too vague to help us accomplish anything. It's not a surprise that most people can't tell you what their organization's Mission Statement says.

We recently reviewed the Parish Mission Statement of St. Barnabas at the Parish Pastoral Council meetings. Do you know what it says? Probably not! So what we came up with works, because it can be reduced to three words that tell us what we're all about. So here goes—the mission of St. Barnabas is:

- Encouragement (The name Barnabas means ‘son of encouragement,’ which is the tag on our bulletin — everyone needs encouragement),
- Evangelization (The purpose of our Church is to spread the Gospel and make disciples)
- Education (This parish has a long tradition of promoting education through our support of our Catholic School, Christian Formation, etc.).

It's three things, easy to remember — Encourage, Evangelize, Educate — that captures what's most important about who we are, and what we do.

Today we have a Gospel that very neatly presents a Mission Statement for all Christians. Jesus is confronted by a Pharisee Lawyer who wants to trap him, make him look bad in front of the crowd. So he asks a trick question, "which commandment of the law is the greatest?" Whatever law Jesus picks, He's going to be criticized for leaving something out. This is an old rhetorical trick. If you can't attack what someone says, attack what they didn't say. Jesus answers, not with one law, but with two, taken from different parts of the Scriptures. Both parts would have been familiar to His audience. By putting them together, He avoids the trap. All the laws, everything God commands, is based on LOVE. Not on vengeance, not on punishment, not even on justice. On love. Love of God, and love of our neighbor. That's not too hard to remember. And it works as a mission statement to call us back to our core values.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion
Ban on Farmers Over Their Marriage Views is overturned. A federal Judge ruled in mid-September that the Catholic Michigan farmers who were banned from selling their produce at a farmer’s market because of their religious beliefs about marriage, may resume selling their goods. East Lansing officials had banned the farmers from participating in the 2017 Farmers Market (even though this farm had sold their organic fruits there for 7 years) when they learned the farm would resume hosting weddings for unions between “one man and one woman.” “All Steve Tennes wants to do is sell his food to anyone who wants to buy it, but the city isn’t letting him,” said Alliance Defending Freedom in June. “If the government can shut down a family farmer just because of the religious views he expresses on FaceBook - then no American is free.”

Charismatic Prayer Group
Our meetings are held every Monday evening in the Holy Family Chapel from 7:30 PM to 9:00 PM. Coffee and cake are served after every meeting. Please join us. For more information, call Ellen O’Malley at 221-0574.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul
For millions who know the Old Testament, the two great commandments of the law are clear: love God with your whole heart and with your whole soul and your whole mind. That is the first commandment. The second is just like it: you shall love your neighbor as yourself. These two commandments of the Old Testament found their fullness in Jesus Christ. By His life, death and resurrection He has thrown light on the meaning of these two commandments. St. Vincent, when speaking about the two commandments, marries the commandments in a union which brings forth the fruits of the spirit, of which St. Paul speaks in his letter to the Galatians. Yes, the two great commandments are closely united. However, we must never forget in practice that there is a first commandment and a second commandment and that we can go to Jesus Christ with security only after we have met Him in the intimacy of prayer and the Sacraments. Please keep the poor and needy in your prayers.

Thanksgiving is a very special time for each of us as we celebrate and give thanks to God for family, friends and the many blessings we share.

Still, there are those among us who will need our help to make their Thanksgiving a happy one. Here at St. Barnabas we have a rich and generous tradition of sharing our blessings with those in need by providing Food Baskets at Thanksgiving. So, this year again, we invite you to consider donating one or two of the following items:

- Gift card to purchase a turkey
- Canned vegetables (including yams)
- Stuffing mix
- Potatoes (canned or boxed)
- Gravy
- Pancake mix/syrup
- Cider/juice
- Cookies (tin or box)
- Canned fruit
- Coffee/tea
- Napkins

We were fortunate to have received lots and lots of cranberry sauce, so that Thanksgiving request has been filled. Many, many thanks for all the monthly contributions and for helping with the special requests made for Thanksgiving.

God bless you for your generosity!

OUR LADY’S BLUE ARMY
Announces the arrival in the Diocese of Rockville Centre, NY
The National Pilgrim Virgin Statue
November 5 - November 20, 2017

From May to October in 1917, Our Lady of the Rosary appeared to three little children of Fatima, Portugal. People of every medical condition of life went to Fatima to honor Mary, the Mother of God and thank her for the graces received and to beg her for favors received of body and soul. On May 13, 1957, the 50th Anniversary of Our Lady’s appearance at Fatima, Pope Paul VI blessed twenty-five Pilgrim Virgin Statues when he visited Fatima. It was his desire that these statues be taken around the world on pilgrimages of peace. One of these statues was presented to our country and has continued moving in solemn procession throughout the U.S.

2017 marks the 100th anniversary of the apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary to 3 shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. In honor of this important centennial, Pope Francis has declared a Jubilee Year from the 27th of November 2016 till the 26th of November 2017. As part of the Jubilee Year, the Holy Father has granted the opportunity for the Catholic faithful to obtain a plenary indulgence under the normal conditions (detachment from sin, confession, communion, and prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father) and meeting ONE of the following sets of conditions:

◊ Make a pilgrimage to the Sanctuary of Fatima in Portugal, “devotedly participate” in prayer or celebration in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, pray the “Our Father” and the “Creed” and invoke Our Lady of Fatima;

◊ Make a visit to an image or statue of Our Lady of Fatima that is on display for public veneration in any Church, Oratory, or “adequate place” on the anniversary days of the apparitions (the 13th of each month from May – October 2017) and “devotedly participate” in prayer or celebration in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, pray the “Our Father” and the “Creed” and invoke Our Lady of Fatima;

◊ If due to age, illness, or other serious reason are unable to meet either of the above sets of conditions should offer on the days of the apparitions (the 13th of each month from May – October 2017) join “spiritually the jubilee celebrations, offering with confidence to the merciful God through Mary their prayers and pains, or the sacrifices of their own life” in front of an image of Our Lady of Fatima while having repented of all of their sins with the firm intention of carrying out the normal conditions for an indulgence including confession and communion.

Visit St. Barnabas Church on November 6th from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM for veneration of the National Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima. Prayer Vigil from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM.

This statue is a beautiful hand-carved image of Our Lady of Fatima given to the United States by the bishop of Fatima after being blessed by Pope Paul VI in 1967. She was crowned by Cardinal O’Boyle at the National Basilica in Washington in 1971.

This statue presently travels across the United States under the sponsorship of the World Apostolate of Fatima U.S.A. She has proven time and again to be the catalyst for renewed interest in the message of Fatima and for exposing new generations of Catholics who are unaware of the important message of conversion and peace brought by Our Lady to the three shepherd children in 1917.

The purpose of this lesson is to help teens prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and to see it, not as the “end” of their spiritual formation, but as the beginning of a whole new life in Christ. In this lesson, we will see how this sacrament completes Christian initiation and is necessary to deepen and complete the graces we received at Baptism. The Rite of Confirmation is explained, and candidates are reminded to prepare seriously for the sacrament.

Conversational After Class
How do you feel about receiving Confirmation?

Confirmation is known as the sacrament of Christian maturity.

How has your understanding of the Faith changed in the past few years?

How has it changed in the past few months?

In what areas do you think you still need to learn or grow in order to continue on your journey of faith?

The Greatest Commandment

Some leaders asked Jesus, “Which is the greatest commandment?”

Circle 7 differences in the 2nd picture.

Then Jesus asked them some questions of His own.

Trace the letters to complete the sentence.

But they were so hard to answer that no one asked Him any more questions.
Jesus said the greatest commandment is “Love God with all your heart.”

Count the 🖤’s. 4 or 5? Count the 🖤’s. 3 or 4?

The 2nd most important commandment is “Love your neighbor as yourself.”
