Song and Prayer

PRAYER FOR PEACE IN OUR COMMUNITIES
Let us pray . . .
O Lord our God, in your mercy and kindness,
no thought of ours is left unnoticed,
no desire or concern ignored.
You have proven that blessings abound
when we fall on our knees in prayer,
and so we turn to you in our hour of need.
Surrounded by violence and cries for justice,
we hear your voice telling us what is required . . .
"Only to do justice and to love goodness,
and to walk humbly with your God" (Mi 6:8).
Fill us with your mercy so that we, in turn,
may be merciful to others.
Strip away pride, suspicion, and racism
so that we may seek peace and justice
in our communities.
Strengthen our hearts so that they beat only to the rhythm of your holy will.
Flood our path with your light
as we walk humbly toward a future
filled with encounter and unity.
Be with us, O Lord, in our efforts,
for only by the prompting of your grace
can we progress toward virtue.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Remembered In November

Remember your loved ones by enrolling them in the Masses for November. Envelopes can be found at the doors of the church. Those mentioned on the envelopes and in the Book of Remembrance will be remembered at Masses throughout the month.
This week I will celebrate a wedding for a couple. They have been planning this wedding for almost a year, and they want everything to be perfect. Still, that whole year of planning comes down to this: ‘I take you to be my husband / wife. I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health. I will love you and honor you all the days of my life’

Now most of us know something they haven’t figured out yet - those are tough promises! To keep those promises, they will need to sacrifice and compromise. They will need to learn to listen to each other and to resolve conflicts. But we are confident that with God in the centre of their lives, they stand a better chance of making it.

For better or worse our lives on earth are made up of relationships. We want to be with those we love when we get to heaven, whether it is our spouse, our best friend, our children, parents or brothers and sisters. What good will it be if they aren’t there? That’s the question the Sadducees had for Jesus.

In those ancient days, people lives were governed by law. Religious law. When to bathe, how to prepare meat, what to take to the temple. The Old Testament book of Leviticus details these laws, and they go on and on and on. A group called the Sadducees loved the laws. Today they came up with a question to tease Jesus. Okay, friend, you say there is a resurrection. Then what if a woman follows the law, and when her husband dies she marries his brother, and so on through seven husbands. Whose wife is she in the resurrection?

Jesus told them, ‘Friends, it doesn’t work like that. On earth we marry. In heaven we are like angels and children of God.’ What Jesus was saying to the Sadducees was ‘Look, you’re worrying about the wrong thing. When you get to heaven, you will see that it’s even better.’

Maybe we are all a little like the Sadducees who wanted to limit God, to box God in, to control God. We want to say to God: we know how your heaven works! Look at the closing words of the Gospel. Jesus said that our God is ‘not a God of the dead but the living.’ God is a God of opportunities not barriers, a God of new beginnings not endings, a God of the resurrection not the grave.

To say that our God is a God of the living not the dead is to say that our God is a God of possibilities not limitations, a God of hope not despair, a God of wholeness not fragmentation, a God of infinite love and grace not hate or ridicule.

Yet, to say that our God is a God of the living not the dead is also to say that our God even dares to enter into our deaths - all those things that seek to destroy the life. For in the end, if we believe that our God is a God of the living, we begin to understand that heaven is a place where we become whole. Whether married or not, we become whole in heaven. Worth thinking about in this month of November, the month of the Holy Souls.

Contemplative Prayer & Lectio Divina

The prayer groups for Contemplative Prayer and Lectio Divina have been meeting since the end of September. Contemplative Prayer is an ancient form of prayer in which one turns one’s attention or heart to God. It is known by other names as well: The Prayer of Recollection and The Prayer of the Heart. It is simply resting in God.

Lectio Divina is praying scripture. There are four movements to Lectio Divina.
1. Lectio (Reading) What is the word of God saying.
2. Meditatio (Reflecting) What word or phrase did I notice in the reading.
3. Oratio (Prayer) Thanking God.
4. Contemplatio (Sitting with God): Allows God to fill us with His love.

At the meeting we share our experience of the prayer and how God is touching our lives through these prayer forms. It is not a class or a course. It is entering into the practice of the Prayer. All are invited and most welcome to participate. No experience is required. We share our experience of how God is working in our lives and how God is drawing us closer to God’s presence.

- Contemplative Prayer meets on Thursdays at 1:30 PM and 7:30 PM.
- Lectio Divina meets on Fridays at 1:30 PM and 7:30 PM.

Both groups meet in the Convent Meeting Room.

Fr. Kevin is looking forward to welcoming you to experience these beautiful prayer forms.
Respect Life
Something to think about - Many in the front lines of advocating for the sanctity of life have started to adopt the term “preborn” instead of “unborn”. Why? Because “unborn” may be perceived by some as something vague or other than an individual, fully human life in his or her earliest stages of development, whereas “preborn” accurately describes each unique life that already exists at conception, constantly developing and waiting to be born. Join us in support of the right to life of preborn babies!

Save the date - March for Life 2017 - January 27, 2017. Join us on our bus trip to Washington DC, as we join hundreds of thousands of Americans in a peace pilgrimage on behalf of the preborn. It’s an experience you’ll never forget! Details to follow. For information contact Vin Murray at 781-7846.

Thanksgiving Baskets For The Needy
Thanksgiving is a very special time for each of us as we celebrate and give thanks to God for family, friends and the many blessings we share. Still, there are those among us who need our help to make their own Thanksgiving a happy one. The Parish of Saint Barnabas has a rich and generous tradition of sharing its blessings with those in need by providing Food Baskets at Thanksgiving. So this year we invite you to consider donating one or two of the following items: A gift certificate to purchase a turkey, fresh, frozen or canned produce, cranberry sauce, stuffing mix, juice & cider, a tin of cookies, pancake mix & syrup, coffee & tea. Thank you so much for your generosity.

St. Vincent de Paul Society
In today’s Gospel, we find that God is a God of the living, and this is indeed the core of our hope. Jesus has risen and is with us, therefore, at no time should we be without hope for the future. Please support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, that they can give hope to your neighbors who have nothing. Remember that whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord and he will repay you for your good deed.

Catholic Daughters of the Americas
The next meeting of the Catholic Daughters of the Americas, Court Mother Seton #2415 will be on Tuesday, November 8th at 7:00 PM in the school cafeteria. For more information contact Jackie at 781-7846 after 7:00 PM.

St. Barnabas Choir
The St. Barnabas Choir is seeking new members. Altos especially needed, but all voices are welcome. No audition required, just the desire to share your talents with our congregation. Rehearsals are Wednesday nights at 8:00 PM in the Church, and we sing at the 10:30 AM Sunday Masses in addition to some special events during the year. Please call the rectory and ask for Bill Dione.

The St. Barnabas Men's Prayer Group
Why do we need a men's prayer group here at St. Barnabas? Why should you consider joining it? These are two questions that I will try to answer here, or at the very least, raise your curiosity. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the light. No one comes to the Father, except through Me." (Jn 14:6) St. Barnabas, our parish patron saint, wrote that there are two ways to live our lives, the way of darkness, based upon secular views, or the way of light, based upon the example of Jesus Christ. What path have you chosen? Many don't think about it until we are asked the question. We may believe that we are on one path when we are really far from it. Our lives are busy juggling work, paying the bills, taking care of our families and homes, that we rarely have any spare time. We schedule God in our calendars - Sundays, 1 hour. We stray from the path and get lost. What path are we REALLY on? The Lord says, "...for I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God..." (Dt 5:9) He doesn't want only a piece of us; He wants all of us! People believe that they have to get good before they can get close to God. In reality, it is getting with God that gets us good!
Imagine God weaving the tapestry of our lives. If we view it from underneath, we see hanging threads and can make no sense out of the patterns. However, if we view it from above, we understand the great beauty that He has woven into our lives! Sometimes, a change in perspective is all we need. The main focus of our group is to help you build a strong relationship with Jesus through prayer and action, and to develop and deepen your faith. Our group is open to men between the ages of 16 - 116! We will meet after the 8:00 AM mass in the Holy Family Chapel on Saturday, November 19th. Contact Fred Kreuder at 987-5350; email: stbampg@aol.com. Visit our facebook page: "The Way of Light - The St. Barnabas the Apostle Men's Prayer Group".

How do I know God is Real (Chapter 4)
Understanding Divine Revelation
Return Reflection #4 at any St. Barnabas Mass on the weekend of 11/12-13 or 11/19-20

The purpose of this lesson is to focus on the ways in which God makes himself known to us and how we should respond to what he has revealed. We examine the relationship between faith and reason and how both of these things bring us to a right understanding of the truth.

In school, in their communities, and through the media, teens are bombarded with the idea that there is no such thing as objective moral or spiritual truth, but that these things are “relative” to what each person thinks. As a result of this “relativism” (which Pope Francis identified as “the spiritual poverty of our time”), faith and morals have been reduced to personal opinion or sentiment rather than reality: “Jesus is God for me.” “Abortion is immoral to the Catholic Church.”

We move toward a truly adult approach to faith, based on full intellectual assent to the teachings of the Church - which are valid not merely because they are our traditions, but because what God has revealed is true.

Conversation After Class
- How can someone know God through nature? How does nature speak to you about God?
- What are two important ways God has revealed himself to us? (Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition, which together form one “deposit of faith.”)
- If your friend asks you a question about the Catholic Church that you cannot answer, what is a good way to handle it? (Read the Catechism, search for a reliable website online)

Level 8 Class HAVE CLASS
Thursday November 10th
Why Be Catholic (Chapter 6)
Discover the Church of Jesus
Return Reflection #4 at any St. Barnabas Mass on the weekend of 11/12-13 or 11/19-20

The Church makes the salvation story our story, here and now. Through the Church, we encounter Christ in the Liturgy of the Word Eucharist, in the other sacraments, and through other people. The Church is called the “bride of Christ” and the “body of Christ” because Jesus loves us and wants to unite himself to us. While developing and maintaining a personal relationship with Christ is fundamental to our faith journey, we are reminded that to follow Christ is also to be in communion with others. It is not something we do alone—we have a personal relationship in context of our communal relationship.

Conversation After Class
- Why do you think it is important to be Catholic? What makes the Catholic Faith unique?
- Which of the four marks of the Catholic Church seems most important to you, and why? (The four marks are one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.)
- If a friend invited you to skip Mass to attend a Protestant service instead, why would that not be a good idea? What do you receive at Mass that you cannot get anywhere else?
