November is the month dedicated to the faithful departed. It is a wonderful custom of remembrance and respect to visit the graves of loved ones. Actually, the greatest thing we can do for a loved one who has passed, is to offer Holy Mass for that soul. The amount of grace given to a soul who is in purgatory when Mass is offered for him is immeasurable.

This is the month where many people remember their loved ones who have died. There is a good man who I know whose grandson tragically died years ago. He was only five years old. His grandfather has Mass offered for him every month. The pastor of this grandfather assured him that his grandson is in heaven given that he is baptized and has not reached the age of reason. In fact, for a funeral Mass for a baptized child the prayers are addressed for the mourners not to the child. Actually the prayers of that Mass recognize that the child is already in heaven. The grandfather has Masses offered as a way of healing for his own self.

The Holy Sacrifice of Mass gives healing and comfort to our souls more than anything else. It frees the souls of purgatory. The Mass converts hardened sinners to righteousness.

In the lives of the saints, we celebrate their feast days not on their birthdays but on the day they died. This may sound strange. The truth is, the day one passes over to eternal life with God is the most sacred and glorious day of one’s life. Although it is terribly difficult to lose a loved one, there is great rejoicing when any soul enters the Kingdom of Heaven.

Mary, Mother of Jesus, throw your mantel of purity over our priests. Protect them, guide them, and keep them in your heart. Be a Mother to them, especially in times of discouragement and loneliness. Love them and keep them belonging completely to Jesus. Like Jesus, they, too, are your sons, so keep their hearts pure and virginal. Keep their minds filled with Jesus, and put Jesus always on their lips, so that He is the one they offer to sinners and to all they meet. Mary, Mother of Jesus, be their Mother, loving them and bringing them joy. Take special care of sick and dying priests, and the ones most tempted. Remember how they spent their youth and old age, their entire lives serving and giving all to Jesus. Mary, bless them and keep a special place for them in your heart. Give them a piece of your heart, so beautiful and pure and immaculate, so full of love and humility, so that they, too, can grow in the likeness of Christ. Dear Mary, make them humble like you, and holy like Jesus. Amen.

Join us on Tuesday, November 12th at 7:30 PM in the church, for speaker David G. Bonagura, Jr.’s talk on his book. Steadfast in Faith: Catholicism and the Challenges of Secularism explores the nature of faith and belief in light of the many challenges posed today by a secular culture that is increasingly incredulous of and hostile towards religion. With remarkable clarity and an invigorating style, Steadfast in Faith is an apology for faith in Jesus Christ, upon whom we are right to build our lives, our families and our societies.

Handicapped Encounter Christ Ministry
Handicapped Encounter Christ (HEC) is a ministry for adults with physical, mental, cognitive and/or sensory disabilities. It is based on the Cursillo movement of the Catholic Church. HEC brings together the communities of disabled and enabled adults so they can all get to know our Lord, Jesus Christ. During the year, we have many different events and annually there is a three day HEC Retreat held in April. We are always looking for participants to join this ministry - those who are disabled and those who are not - so that together we are one community learning from each other, enjoying the company of one another and establishing many beautiful friendships together as we all get to know our Lord. We are having our annual HEC Christmas party on Saturday, December 7th from 12:00 PM - 4:00 PM. Please join us for an afternoon of lunch, desserts, fellowship, music, singing, dancing and Santa too! The party is held at St. Francis of Assisi Church, 29 Clay Pitts Road, Greenlawn. All are invited, but please RSVP to Diana at (631) 806-6213.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

The Gospel isn’t really about marriage, but about resurrection and the new life it brings. Resurrection is a way of living with surety and hope. Resurrection is surety about eternal life because we have remained faithful to God. The basis for our belief in resurrection is hope. In mentioning hope, we are reminded of the observation made about the Old Testament prophets. They have been described as men who had human quality; hope is a spiritual one. A Christian may not always be optimistic about the world, but he need never be without hope, for Jesus Christ has risen and is with us. More important is this: the hope which the Risen Christ has placed by His Spirit in our hearts should find expression in daily gestures of fidelity. Therefore, at no time should we be without hope for the future. Please keep the poor and needy in your prayers so they do not give up hope. Thank you.

Focus on Religious Freedom

Dishonest Language -
Example #2:
Deceptively Named “Equality Act” Would Harm Religious Liberty and Free Speech

(Deceit: The act of causing someone to accept as true or valid what is false or invalid.)

Misinformation on the intent and implications of the so-called “Equality” Act, conceived to prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, gender identity, and sexual orientation, was passed by the U.S. House in May. This H.R. 5 bill would make it possible for nationwide religious discrimination against people of faith as well as free speech, by redefining the word “sex” in the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to include “sexual orientation” and “gender identity” as protected classes throughout the federal code. This bill purports to equate newly defined “sex rights” with the current rights found in the Civil Rights Act. However, “sex” is a biological fact determined at birth and “sexual orientation” and “gender identity” are feelings. Biological “sex” is objective and fact based. “Orientation” and “gender identity” are subjective and fluid. Since a feeling is subjective and not intrinsic to an individual such as a person’s skin color or nationality, broadening the term “sex” to include “feelings” is inaccurate and deceptive.

If this bill is passed into law, the implications for religious freedom and free speech are far reaching. The “Equality Act” bans the use of the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) as a legal defense from the government violating a person’s religious liberty. In addition, it would require men, women, etc., to be treated exactly the same from bathrooms, women’s sports, shelters, rape crisis centers, to sexuality education programs that promote a particular ideology.

Former Equal Employment Opportunity Commissioner, Chai Feldman, said, “I’m having a hard time coming up with any case in which religious liberty should win...Sexual liberty should win in most cases. There can be a conflict between religious liberty and sexual liberty, but in almost all cases the sexual liberty should win...”

“When we subvert the meaning of words...we undermine the language that sustains our thinking about the law. Dishonest language leads to dishonest debate and bad laws.” - Archbishop Charles Chaput

The Men of the Way of Light
Though talk of Heaven and life after death may now be more in vogue in this country, it is not a new issue. Since the beginning, when God warned Adam and Eve, “You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die,” mankind has known that there is more to life than death and has sought to ascertain what it is and how we can achieve it. In Jesus’ day it was not only a hot topic but also a hot point of religious controversy. The Sadducees did not believe in the resurrection and eternal life, or in angels or spirits, nor did they believe in a coming Messiah. Their life was wrapped up in this life. The Pharisees, though also very legalistic, did believe in the resurrection, angels, spirits, and the coming Messiah. So the controversy about Heaven was ever present in the religious life of Jesus’ day. In their attempt to prove their point, the Sadducees asked Jesus a rather convoluted question involving the death of seven brothers, a wife who was subsequently wed to the next brother after each died, and their relationships in Heaven. As ever, Jesus was not taken in by their attempted trickery but rather turned their question into an occasion for teaching the truth about Heaven. Jesus points out that “marrying and giving in marriage” is characteristic of this life, not of the next. Very simply, His explanation says, don’t fashion Heaven in the image of earth, it is different by nature. The rules on earth do not apply in Heaven. In Heaven, the nature of eternal life and the nature of eternal beings is wholly spiritual and not even remotely earthly. In addition, Jesus clarifies that not only is the nature of life changed, but the nature of the people who go to Heaven is also changed. Death is no longer present, “for they cannot die anymore.” Death has lost its sting - forever. This is the hope of eternal life. The speaker at the NYC memorial for the victims of the September 11, 2001 attack was correct when he stated that those who have gone from us, in spite of their love for us who linger, would not choose to come back. For not only has death been de-fanged, but the residents of Heaven have become “sons of God” and “sons of the resurrection.” There can be no more exalted and wonderful position. (Condensed from the Emmaues Journey Reflections)

“The Lord promised this and gives as a guarantee the promises He has already fulfilled. So let your faith speak of this to you, since your hope will not be disappointed even though your love maybe put to the test.” (St. Augustine)
Our Mission is to Encourage Evangelize & Educate
