PEOPLE WHO INSPIRE US TO LOVE JESUS MORE

During this month of November, in memory of the Faithful Departed, we remember especially our loved ones who have gone home to God.

November 16th will be the one year anniversary of the passing of my first pastor as a priest, Monsignor James McDonald. He helped and trained me in my first four years as a priest.

During the course of our lives, we meet many people who help us and encourage us in living the life of Jesus Christ. How grateful we are for those people. Msgr. McDonald was certainly one of those people in my life. Although I first met him when I was about to apply to the seminary, he helped me not only to stay in the seminary, but to strive to be a zealous priest.

I was in awe of how much time he gave to people. He would have appointments from morning till late evening. There was no limit to how far he would travel if someone really needed him. I remember one night he called to tell me that he had to take the morning off because he was up all night talking to someone on the phone who really needed someone to talk to.

Shortly after I entered the seminary, he gave me a statue of St. Jean Vianney. He told me “Jeff when you become a priest you can give it back to me.” Well, years later I was ordained a priest, but unfortunately I lost the statue. I purchased a similar statue of Jean Vianney and gave it to him and apologized for losing the one he gave me. After he died, I gave that same statue to a boy who may be a priest one day. I have high hopes for him. I told him the same thing Monsignor McDonald told me: “This statue is yours but if you become a priest, you can give it back to me.”

I have added Monsignor’s name for the mass intentions this weekend. I don’t think he needs it, but it can’t hurt. I will never forget how often he would encourage Mass and confession. He summarized the priesthood in one sentence: “The priesthood is for the salvation of souls and that’s it!”

In Jesus and Mary,

I would like to thank Jacklen Makai for setting up the schedule for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Tuesday. What great joy it gives to Jesus when we spend just a few minutes with Him in the Blessed Sacrament.

On the weekend of November 23rd-24th, Miraculous Medals of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be distributed to the faithful. This is in preparation for November 27th, which is the Feast Day of the Miraculous Medal of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Please take one or two.

Mary, Mother of Jesus, throw your mantel of purity over our priests. Protect them, guide them, and keep them in your heart. Be a Mother to them, especially in times of discouragement and loneliness. Love them and keep them belonging completely to Jesus. Like Jesus, they, too, are your sons, so keep their hearts pure and virginal. Keep their minds filled with Jesus, and put Jesus always on their lips, so that He is the one they offer to sinners and to all they meet. Mary, Mother of Jesus, be their Mother, loving them and bringing them joy. Take special care of sick and dying priests, and the ones most tempted. Remember how they spent their youth and old age, their entire lives serving and giving all to Jesus. Mary, bless them and keep a special place for them in your heart. Give them a piece of your heart, so beautiful and pure and immaculate, so full of love and humility, so that they, too, can grow in the likeness of Christ. Dear Mary, make them humble like you, and holy like Jesus. Amen.

During the year, we have many different events and annually there is a three day HEC Retreat held in April. We are always looking for participants to join this ministry - those who are disabled and those who are not - so that together we are one community learning from each other, enjoying the company of one another and establishing many beautiful friendships together as we all get to know our Lord. We are having our annual HEC Christmas party on Saturday, December 7th from 12:00 PM - 4:00 PM. Please join us for an afternoon of lunch, desserts, fellowship, music, singing, dancing and Santa too! The Society of St. Vincent de Paul though is to live faithfully now. Jesus lists signs of the end of times such as wars, insurrection, earthquakes, famine, plagues, but we need not fear these cosmic events as frightening and disheartening as they may be. Jesus admonishes that these signs are now and so the future is “now”. The condition for our life and our not having fear of the end times is to trust in God and to live by Jesus’ name now. We know that several times during His life, Jesus said to His people: “fear not”. After His resurrection, when He met His disciples in the upper room, He first wished them peace and then told them not to fear. Jesus Christ is interested always in trying to lighten our fears. When He comes to us in Holy Communion, He assures us that He is giving us everlasting life. Jesus Christ in every Holy Communion is assuring us that, He can take care of that greatest natural fear, namely death, and also smaller fears which are hidden in our hearts. When all is said and done, unity with Jesus now is the only thing that guarantees unity with Jesus for all eternity. Please remember to keep the poor and needy in your prayers.
The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge

Thank you.

The Men of the Way of Light

Saint Pope John Paul II, early in his ministry as Pope, offered us the admonition, “Be not afraid.” During these days of hate-filled rhetoric, global terrorism, military mobilization, Christian martyrdom and economic volatility, there seems to be much of which to be afraid. Jesus knew what we would face throughout history, yet He too admonished, “Do not be terrified.” How can we remain calm and at peace in the midst of such horrendous events? Peace comes from the assurance that God’s Divine Providence is working His will even in the face of man’s inhumanity. He has our eternal welfare within His control. Thus, we need not fear death or eternity. In the Gospel, Jesus warns, “some of you, they will put to death … but not a hair of your head will perish.” This seemingly contradictory statement can give us peace only if we believe in the resurrection. He promises that in heaven we will be given a new body wherein dwells righteousness. If we see this temporal life as all-important, we will be terrified of losing it. If we see it as a stepping stone to eternity where life becomes full and complete, we will not live in terror. In the midst of terrifying events, people who do not have a relationship with the Father through Jesus Christ, have a heightened awareness of the vulnerability of their fragile existence. Consequently, Jesus saw history’s turmoil as a “time for you to bear testimony.” A heart free from hatred, calm and at peace in the midst of rampant fear, stands out like a lighthouse of refuge in the midst of a raging storm. Do not be afraid that you are ill equipped to provide an answer for your calm and peacefulness. Even as Jesus did for these first-century Christians, he will also “give you a mouth and wisdom” to share with others how they also can experience peace. With loving grace,

He will give us words to assure others that they need not fear death either. If people will turn to God and be reconciled to Him through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, they will receive powerful resources in the Holy Spirit, Prayer, the Eucharist and Scripture for remaining unafraid in the face of terror. Listen to the message of Pope John Paul II, “Be not afraid.” Listen to Jesus’ message, “Be not terrified.” We can choose to believe Christ and fasten our thoughts on Him and His promises, or we can choose to fasten our thoughts on that which we fear. (Condensed from the Emmaus Journey Reflections)

Need encouragement to fight your fears? Join us at our next meeting on Saturday, November 23rd, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass. We meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel. Bagels and coffee served. Our meetings run until 10:30 AM. For more information, visit our FaceBook page.

Focus on Religious Freedom

Escaping Religious Persecution - Still a Longed-for Dream Around the World:

Americans will soon celebrate Thanksgiving Day and remember the Pilgrims, who fled religious persecution seeking a place to live and thrive in freedom. They came to this “New World” aboard the Mayflower and survived the harsh conditions in 1620-21 with the grace of God and help from the Wampanoag Indians. At last they were free from persecution. Sadly, the God-given right to freedom of conscience is denied to over 3/4 of the world population with many experiencing extreme forms of persecution from harassment to torture and death.

For example, on November 1st, Chinese priests and parishioners barricaded themselves in a Catholic church in northern China in an attempt to prevent the government from tearing it down. A Vatican agreement with China was intended to secure some religious freedom for Catholics but only state approved churches are now allowed...with their government spies and more control instead. In many of these government-controlled churches, the cross is taken down and pictures of Prime Minister Xi Jinping are put up instead.

Chinese persecution of religious minorities has also been the focus of international concern with millions of Uighur Muslims and others imprisoned and subjected to organ harvesting for the country’s organ trade.

“For the most part, we are aware of the persecution and martyrdom of (people of faith) around the world, but we tend to be naive about the threat to religious freedom right here in America,” wrote Rev. Msgr. James McNamara.
There are those who want to deny conscience rights and freedom to practice closely held religious beliefs to some small business owners, health care workers, adoption agencies, military chaplains & officers, teachers & students, and many more. These citizens are marginalized, discriminated against, sued, and denied their First Amendment religious freedom protections. “May this country (America) and each of you be renewed in gratitude for the many blessings and freedoms that you enjoy. And may you defend these rights, especially your religious freedom, for it has been given to you by God Himself.” - Pope Francis, December 2015
