‘Are you the King of the Jews?’

What a loaded question! On one hand, it would be crazy for this simple Jewish peasant, son of a carpenter and citizen of a conquered people, to answer yes. On the other hand, as Son of the Living God, how could He answer yes when doing so would suggest that He is king only of the Jews? For Pilate a ‘king’ was a political term, used to identify the person in charge, the one with all the power. In Jesus’ day, the king of Ancient Rome was Caesar and any challenge to Caesar’s authority was a challenge not only to Caesar’s person, but a challenge to the divine order of the world. As governor of Judea and an agent of Rome, it was Pilate’s job to help neutralize any threat to Caesar. This is why he begins questioning Jesus as he does; ‘Are you the King of the Jews?’ Or, more to the point, ‘Are you a threat to the current king’s power?’ Jesus doesn’t give Pilate a ‘yes’ or ‘no’ answer. How can He? Christ’s kingdom does not consist of a small parcel of land with protected borders separating it from the rest of creation. Christ’s kingdom is creation. All of creation. All lands, all seas, all sky, all creatures. Christ’s kingdom is not from this world, but it encompasses all of this world, and more. Christ’s reign does not last for a single lifespan, or even a dynasty. Christ has always been king, is king now, and will always be king, forevermore. Far from being a political threat, Christ the King is a life-giving promise. God in Christ has the resources to serve everyone’s best interests. That doesn’t mean everything’s always great right now. In this world there is poverty, there is sickness, there is war, there is injustice, there is evil. But because Christ is King, there are many of His followers healing and comforting the sick, working to bring about peace and fighting for justice to be served. Because Christ is King, evil may exist, but it will never prevail. Christ our King spoke the final word, and that word was grace, and neither sin nor evil can stand against it.

Convent Boiler Replacement

We need your help to replace the boiler in the Convent. The parish will begin this project immediately. Our goal is to raise $40,000. Sacred Reading for Advent and Christmas 2018–2019

This weekend you can pick up your copy of ‘Sacred Reading,’ our uplifting prayer book for Advent and the Christmas season. This little book engages you with the Church’s daily scripture readings and will inspire you with the traditional spiritual devotion known as lectio divina (sacred reading). Create moments of peace in your busy holiday season by focusing on a six-step process of prayer:

- know that God is present;
- read the gospel;
- notice what you think and feel as you read the gospel;
- pray as you are led for yourself and others;
- listen to God; and
- ask him to show you how to live today.

More than simply another daily prayer book, Sacred Reading gives you practical tools that allow the day’s scripture to change your heart and find expression in your actions.

Extraordinary Ministers & Lectors

The sign-up sheet for the Immaculate Conception, Saturday, December 8th, is available in the sacristy. The 2019 Lector Workbooks are available in the Altar Server’s Sacristy.

Altar Server Training

Due to the bad weather last Thursday we had to cancel the Altar Servers Introduction Class. An extra Introduction Class will be held on Tuesday, 20th November at 4:30PM. Thank you to all those who volunteered to become servers at St. Barnabas. Soon you will receive information on the follow up class in December.

Ushers Needed.

 liturgical Ministers enhance the celebration of the Liturgy. This is true of all Liturgical Ministers, and is very true of the Ministry of Usher. Ushers not only collect the offerings of the community and present them at the time of the offertory, but they also welcome those who are gathering for the celebration and oversee the orderly celebration. They are indispensable for the orderly celebration of the Liturgy. At this time we are in need of additional men and women to volunteer for this ministry. If you are interested in serving St. Barnabas Parish in this capacity, please complete the following and return it to the rectory.

participate in this beautiful sacrament. The church does have regulations regarding who may be anointed. First, the person seeking to be anointed must have a serious illness. The illness may be physical, spiritual or emotional but it must be of a serious nature. Secondly, the Church specifies that you have never been anointed for this condition previously. Once you are anointed for an illness, you may not be anointed again unless the condition worsens. Because one may not perceive the grace of God in one’s life does not mean that it has not been granted. One may be anointed because of age. Anyone who is 65 or older may be anointed once a year because of one’s age without a serious illness. If you have any further questions, please call the rectory. This is a beautiful communal celebration. Please invite a relative or friend, who may not come to Mass because of illness, to come to this special liturgy. Your assistance in getting them to Mass is a great grace.

Focus on Religious Freedom

“An educated citizenry is a vital requisite for our survival as a free people.” Attributed to Thomas Jefferson

“Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, RELIGION and MORALITY are indispensable supports.” George Washington

Learning About Our Liberty: The generation of resolute Americans whom we call the Founding Fathers created the first FREE people to survive as a nation in modern times. They believed that without RELIGION, the Government of a free people cannot be maintained. They wrote a new Constitution which is now the oldest in existence.

Freedom - A Founding Basic Principle: A principle is a defining statement of what you believe and what you seek to accomplish. A policy is simply the means you choose to get you there. The foundation of American PRINCIPLES are found in the Declaration of Independence and the Preamble to the Constitution: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their CREATOR with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.” “We The People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the general Welfare, and secure the BLESSINGS of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

“You my brothers and sisters, were called to be FREE. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh, rather, serve one another humbly in love.”
Galatians 5:13

We are introducing new permanent hardcover hymnals to the pews. These will replace the paperback versions that are currently in use. The hardcover hymnal contains all the hymns we regularly use and has the three year cycle of readings. Having permanent hymnals will be a cost saver because the paperbacks have to be replaced every year. This will also cut back on the amount of trash we dispose of annually. If you would like to dedicate a hymnal to a loved one please contact the rectory office. Your dedication will be placed inside the cover.

$25 Donation
Phone 516 785 0054
If you wish to arrange a baptism, please contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic.

Chapter 17
“Who’s calling?”
Holy Orders and Vocational Discernment

The purpose of this lesson is to instill an understanding of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. In addition, your teen will learn a bit more about the process of discerning a vocation to the priesthood, religious life, married life, or single life. Teens often have a “knee jerk” reaction to considering whether God might be calling them to serve him in the Church. They simply cannot imagine a satisfying, fulfilling life without the benefits of marriage, and they do not stop to consider that all vocations have both a crown and a cross, both benefits and sacrifices. This lesson will encourage them to consider this.

Conversation Starters
This week, you learned the Catholic teaching that a priest acts in persona Christ Capitis (“in the person of Christ the Head”), i.e., with the authority of Christ, when he administers the sacraments. Why is this important for the life of the Church? What are the three questions discussed this week which can help you discern what God is calling you to do? How do these three questions help?

Chapter 6
Why Be Catholic
Discovering the Church Jesus Founded

The Church makes the salvation story our story, here and now. Through the Church, we encounter Christ in the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, in the other sacraments, and through other people. The Church is called the “bride of Christ” and the “body of Christ” because Jesus loves us and wants to unite himself to us (see CCC 789). While developing and maintaining a personal relationship with Christ is fundamental to our faith journey, we are reminded that to follow Christ is also to be in communion with others. It is not something we do alone—we have a personal relationship in context of our communal relationship. It is in and through the Church, Christ’s body, that we find that communion.

Conversation Starters
Why do you think it is important to be Catholic? What makes the Catholic Faith unique? Which of the four marks of the Catholic Church seems most important to you, and why? (The four marks are one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.) (See CCC 811-812.)
The dates and times for First Holy Communion were handed out at our Parent Meetings on Tuesday, October 16th. If you are requesting a change it MUST be submitted in writing and you will be notified if we are able to accommodate the change.

REMINDER: We cannot allow anyone into the building during class time that is not a volunteer – doors will open at 5:30 PM for dismissal.

We still need Hall Monitors for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday – 4:30 PM – 5:30 PM.
We are also in need of volunteers to teach a small or group or on a one-to-one basis for students who need a more individualized learning environment. Please call the Religious Education Office for more information.
