TUESDAY ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Hope you all had a blessed All Saints Day and All Souls Day.

It is with great joy that I announce to you, beginning on November 12th, there will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the Church every Tuesday from 3:00 PM - 7:00 PM. In addition, there will be confessions available in the Church every Tuesday from 6:30 PM - 7:00 PM.

We are in need of a certain few to keep watch with our Lord during those hours. It would be preferable to have two people or more in the Church praying and adoring the Lord during exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. At the very least, one person is needed to be present with our Lord during exposition. Please call the rectory to sign up for a certain hour or half hour. This is a wonderful act of love and sacrifice to offer a certain time to be with our Lord in prayer.

One of the greatest saints in modern times, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, had Adoration weekly with her sisters, the Missionaries of Charity. However, she changed it from weekly to daily. When she did change it to daily, vocations in the Missionaries of Charity flourished in abundance. It is my great hope that more souls will come to Jesus through offering our prayers to Him in His Presence through the Blessed Sacrament.

It would be of great benefit to you, my dear friends, to spend some time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament daily, even if it is just for 5 minutes. Feel free on Tuesdays, when our Lord is exposed, or any other day when our Lord is present inside the Tabernacle, to spend some personal time with Jesus in prayer.

I mentioned this in my sermon a few weeks ago, that there is a wonderful holy man in this parish. He wakes up once a week in the middle of the night to be with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament at a nearby parish where there is perpetual adoration. He spends two hours in prayer from 1:00 AM to 3:00 AM every week with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. That is truly a beautiful hidden sacrifice offered to Christ.

I remember so well a few weeks ago when the parish had the Traditional Latin Mass and shortly before it, confessions were available and the Rosary was being prayed publicly in the Church by so many. It gave such great joy to me as a priest to see all three happening at the same time by so many. If we stay faithful to Jesus in the Mass and confession and go to the Blessed Mother in the Rosary, the Lord will draw us closer to Him.

Mary, Mother of Jesus, throw your mantel of purity over our priests. Protect them, guide them, and keep them in your heart. Be a Mother to them, especially in times of discouragement and loneliness. Love them and keep them belonging completely to Jesus. Like Jesus, they, too, are your sons, so keep their hearts pure and virginal. Keep their minds filled with Jesus, and put Jesus always on their lips, so that He is the one they offer to sinners and to all they meet. Mary, Mother of Jesus, be their Mother, loving them and bringing them joy. Take special care of sick and dying priests, and the ones most tempted. Remember how they spent their youth and old age, their entire lives serving and giving all to Jesus. Mary, bless them and keep a special place for them in your heart. Give them a piece of your heart, so beautiful and pure and immaculate, so full of love and humility, so that they, too, can grow in the likeness of Christ. Dear Mary, make them humble like you, and holy like Jesus. Amen.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In this Gospel we see an aspect of prayer that is diligently seeking out God. Most of us don’t have to be so creative or climbing a tree to encounter Jesus. However, this Gospel forewarns us that we ought not be complacent in our spiritual lives. We go to Mass every Sunday and encounter Jesus; we might think this is sufficient. Zacchaeus reminds us that we must also be willing to change and grow, and to be vigilant about our relationships with others. Creativity in seeking Jesus might mean that we are innovative in our personal prayer life rather than continually reciting the prayers we might have learned long ago. Zacchaeus encourages us to ask: What prayers might better meet our spiritual needs now? May Christ, through the power of the Eucharist, lower the barriers of prejudice in our minds and open our hearts to give hospitality, not only to the poor, but to those whom we would exclude through personal dislike. Please keep the poor and needy in your prayers, and remember to support St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you.

Divorced or Separated Catholics

A social organization for single persons is having a New Member Orientation for widows, widowers, divorced, separated, and single persons on Tuesday, November 26th at 7:30 PM at St. Francis de Chantal, Knights of Columbus Council #6526, 1869 Wantagh Avenue, Wantagh. Parking is in the rear of the building. This is a non-denominational meeting and all are welcome. Annual dues are $30. Refreshments following the meeting. For further information, please call Carol at 794-4933 or Fran at 889-5790. Please note: Due to the closeness of Christmas, there will be no meeting in December.

The Men of the Way of Light

On the outside, Zacchaeus was a “height impaired” tax collector, a not so noble profession at the time. Tax collectors were invariably dishonest, gouging people for all they could get, and engaging in political graft to maintain their appointment. Fortunately, Jesus sees past the outward man and looks at his heart. In Zacchaeus, Jesus saw a genuine seeker of truth who would not let anything stand in his way to discover the real answer. No doubt years of dishonesty were weighing heavily upon Zacchaeus and when he heard of Jesus’ message of God’s love and forgiveness, he sought Him out. When Jesus invited Himself to dine with Zacchaeus, he accepted. By the time the dinner was over Jesus left as the guest of a repentant believer.

During the brief dinner hour, Zacchaeus’ life was converted and transformed. Recognizing Jesus as “Lord’, he immediately repudiated the evil he had committed and restored it four times over. He had fully reverted to God. His was not a token belief, nor a simple agreeing to articles of faith, or an academic formality of joining a church. His was a true conversion, repudiating evil and reverting to God, leading him on a path of spiritual and moral transformation.

We can learn much from Jesus through this encounter. Do we relate to people on the basis of their outward appearance? Do we avoid being welcoming because we don’t want to associate with “sinners”? Jesus suggests that we need to look beyond what we see to ascertain someone’s heart. Perhaps their tree climbing antics are not just a selfish desire to get a better look, but a real cry for help, a real inquiry as to whether there is hope. Let’s not be a spectator like the Pharisees, standing apart, critical and uninvolved. We can extend and invitation to have a meal together to see if Christ living in us can reach out to their need. At worst, we will have had a meal with a “sinner”, and at best we could be instrumental in helping the “sinner” begin the journey of becoming a repentant believer. Although at times it seems better to deepen our own commitments than to evangelize others, it belongs to the core of Christian spirituality to reach out to the other with good news and to speak without embarrassment about what we ‘have heard and...seen with our own eyes...watched and touched with our hands’ (1 John 1:1).

Condensed from the Emmaus Journey Reflections

Focus on Religious Freedom

Dishonest Language -
Example #1: “Do No Harm”

Act would Greatly Harm Religious Freedom for Doctors & More:
Archbishop Chaput has decried dishonest language. The mislabeled “Do No Harm” Act, does the exact opposite of its name since it eliminates religious freedom protections for employers and medical professionals. The “Do No Harm” Act gives more privileges to those claiming to be offended than to those exercising their religious freedom First Amendment rights. The “Do No Harm” Act includes the broad phrase “dignity harm” to essentially end any religious exemptions.

Since this Act is “Designed to amend the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) of 1993...”, it removes exemptions for religious doctors, nurses, or any other medical professional giving access to, information about, referrals for, provision of, or coverage for, any health care item or service.” This means that doctors could be forced to perform “gender-reassignment surgeries” or prescribe hormone-blocking prescriptions. It would remove religious exemptions for those who do not want to provide referrals for abortion. The Act has the potential to target and eliminate exemptions for protected religious speech since a person might claim that hearing speech about a religious belief causes him/her “dignity harm.”

The “Do No Harm” Act could erase all religious exemptions in America.

Archbishop Chaput tells us: “Words are important because they shape our thinking, and our thinking drives our actions. Dishonest language leads to dishonest debate and bad laws.”
