The Catholic Ministries Appeal

Last Friday, January 31st was the 2 year anniversary of the installation of Bishop John Barres as the bishop of Rockville Centre. In every Mass that is offered within the diocese, the local church prays for the bishop. We, as Catholics, must continue to pray for him, but also support him as he shepherds the diocese.

One of the ways we can support the bishop is through the Catholic Ministries Appeal. As you know, we have begun a new year and the bishop is need of our help and our assistance with the many ministries that the Diocese offers to the people of God. All of the funds that go to the Catholic Ministries Appeal go to the work of the Church for the salvation of souls.

This is given not only by laity, but also by the priests of the diocese. The ministries vary from parish social ministry to the seminary. The Catholic Ministries Appeal helped me in my own formation as a priest. The majority of seminarians do not have to pay for tuition thanks to the generosity of the Catholic Ministries Appeal and for the Friends of the Seminary Foundation.

Along with the Catholic Ministries Appeal, the Bishop has begun the Morning Star Initiative, to help revitalize and strengthen the Catholic Schools in our diocese. This initiative is led by the Marianists and with Tomorrow’s Hope Foundation under the intercession of the Blessed Mother. Please read the Morning Star pamphlets which are found by the exits of the Church.

I thank all those who have given to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. More importantly, we must continue to pray for the diocese. The bishop has been here for two years, and I have been with you for over 6 months. We are in this together to help the good of the Church that we love so deeply.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Intercessor of the Unborn

To help stop the anti-life push in the world, the late Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen encouraged the spiritual adoption of an unborn child. This is done by praying that one particular but unknown child’s life be spared abortion and be allowed to continue to live.

To help accomplish this, it was recommended, an individual say the following daily prayer for a period of one year.

“Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.”

During your earthly life this spiritually adopted child of yours will be known only to God but in the world to come it is hoped that you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers and spend eternal happiness with them.

Pray for Vocations

This week please keep our Bishops, Priests and Seminarians in your prayers.

Mary, Mother of Jesus, throw your mantel of purity over our priests. Protect them, guide them, and keep them in your heart. Be a Mother to them, especially in times of discouragement and loneliness. Love them and keep them belonging completely to Jesus. Like Jesus, they, too, are your sons, so keep their hearts pure and virginal. Keep their minds filled with Jesus, and put Jesus always on their lips, so that He is the one they offer to sinners and to all they meet. Mary, Mother of Jesus, be their Mother, loving them and bringing them joy. Take special care of sick and dying priests, and the ones most tempted. Remember how they spent their youth and old age, their entire lives serving and giving all to Jesus. Mary, bless them and keep a special place for them in your heart. Give them a piece of your heart, so beautiful and pure and immaculate, so full of love and humility, so that they, too, can grow in the likeness of Christ. Dear Mary, make them humble like you, and holy like Jesus. Amen.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel, Jesus proclaims to all who wish to follow Him that they are to be a light to the world, and salt of the earth. These are powerful images, as powerful today as they were when Christ first proclaimed them. For disciples of every time and place, these images are not mere ego boosters. No, they are a constant challenge to dare to become for God and others that which Jesus was, Himself, so clearly willing to be. To be a light to the world is to illumine others with God’s truth and mercy. To be salt is to accept the fact that our efforts - or lack thereof - to follow Christ do have an impact upon others, regardless of whether we are always aware of that impact or not. There are times in our lives when we lose our taste for God and/or things of God: more frequently than not this displayed by our own feeling of inadequacy and/or indifference when it comes to practicing virtue. Unlike salt, however, we can regain that taste for doing what is righteous and good through prayer, the sacraments and, perhaps most by doubling - even tripling - our efforts at practicing those very virtues that we are tempted to cease. Be a light to those living in poverty and in a world of darkness by supporting the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Focus on Religious Freedom

Administration Committed to Ensuring Religious Organizations a Level Playing Field:

“Faith-based groups should have the opportunity to compete on a level playing field as they seek to partner with the federal government to provide critical social services,” said the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. “These proposed (new) rules protect religious liberty, a core constitutional right…” On Religious Freedom Day, the administration issued 9 rules to protect freedom by eliminating burdensome requirements, issued in past years, that unfairly imposed unique regulatory burdens on religious organizations. Federal agencies, including the Dept. of Labor, must now ensure that the grant-making practices of state recipients of Federal funding comply with the First Amendment. Religious freedom has been an ongoing concern in recent years as anti-faith groups have brought litigation against faith-based nonprofits and privately owned companies. These opponents of religious freedom have created much confusion by suggesting that it is illegal or even unconstitutional, for religious organizations to participate in federal contracts simply because they choose to operate in accordance with their faith. The end result was a distortion of law that put religious contractors at a distinct disadvantage. Many of them had to make an untenable choice: continue operating in accordance with their deeply held religious beliefs or violate their conscience just for the opportunity to compete for a federal contract.

“From its opening pages, the story of America has been rooted in the truth that all men and women are endowed with the right to follow their conscience, worship freely, and live in accordance with their convictions. On Religious Freedom Day, we honor the foundational link between freedom and faith in our country and reaffirm our commitment to safeguarding the religious liberty of all Americans.” - President Trump, Proclamation, January 16, 2020

The Men of the Way of Light

A man once stood before God, his heart breaking from the pain and injustice in the world. “Dear God”, he cried out, “look at all the suffering, the anguish and distress in your world. Why don’t you send help?” God Responded, “I did send help. I sent you.” Each one of us was sent to help repair the broken world - and that it is not the task of an instant or of a year, but a lifetime. Today, many people live in places of such dark desolation and despair, that their spiritual condition receives little or no attention, for everything is simply focused on their physical survival. As light bearers, we have been placed in our broken world to expedite the healing of broken lives.

God is still repairing broken lives in this our broken world. All that is necessary is in place for broken lives to be repaired, put in place by a reconciling Savior who heals. Jesus knows, first hand, the darkness of our world because He lived in it, suffered from it, and then took that darkness on Himself to redeem us from it.

God often brings the light of dawn to people sitting in darkness through you and me, as we lovingly share His words of help and encouragement and as we do those things that ease the weight of darkness. Christ came sharing the truth, but He also came meeting the real needs of people.

The promise in this week’s first reading is that as we share our abundance with those less fortunate, our light will “break forth like the dawn” also. Many times, we refrain from sharing with others because we don’t think we have “abundance”, and because we often see our own situation as rather bleak. However, as we take our eyes off of our need and focus on meeting the needs of others, we will discover that the darkness and gloom of our situation will dissipate as well, and God’s light will also break through for us. (Excerpts from Reflecting on Sunday’s Readings, Copyright 2020, Richard A. Cleveland)

Our Men’s Group, assisted by the Catholic Daughters and other generous individuals of our parish, has made a commitment to a young mother and her child. You may have read about the young mother who chose to have her baby when everyone was telling her to abort him in our Bulletin article on 12/22/19. I can honestly say that God has worked miracles in their lives. We have provided them with many of the basic needs that you and I normally take for granted. We have also begun teaching them about our faith. Now, the mother wants to have her baby, Jaden, baptized! Both parents also want to learn more about our Catholic faith.

The young family is currently living in the Bronx. We are trying to move them out to our area. We are looking for a small, very affordable apartment. You have a chance to really make a difference, to be the “Light” in someone’s life. I challenge all of you to share your abundance! If you can help in ANY way, or want more information regarding what you can do, please contact Fred Kreuder directly at 987-5350.

Remember, God sent you!

Be the Light! Joins us at our next meeting on Saturday, February 22nd, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass. We meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel. Bagels and coffee served. Our meetings run until 10:30 AM. For more information, visit our FaceBook page.
