Obedience has fallen out of favor in recent years.

In a democracy, the idea of swearing allegiance and obedience to a king is abhorrent. The idea that one should obey one’s boss — unless you’re in the military — has evolved into a teamwork approach. Bosses are no longer those who decide upon a solution. They are the ones who direct the problem-solving team. Even the idea of children obeying their parents — or their teachers, aunts, grandparents, or anyone their senior — has declined. Yet, learning obedience is important.

Religion is nothing else than obedience to the will of God. The temptation presented by today's scripture is the temptation to do our will and not God's.

In our first reading, Adam and Eve made that decision to disobey God's will and to follow their own will. You can claim that the devil made them do it. But nowhere does the reading say the snake reached up, plucked the fruit off the tree, and stuck it in Eve's mouth. Nowhere does it say that Eve twisted Adam's arm. Both Eve and Adam made the decision to disobey God. Whatever the reason, whatever the rewards, whatever their needs, one fact is indisputable — they disobeyed God.

Jesus was different. Jesus never disobeyed God but He was tempted, like us, to misuse human powers. Scripture and prayer — are what kept Jesus faithful to the Father’s will when He was tempted. The words of Scripture came easily to Him because He lived with them every day. For Jesus, the scriptures were not merely something to be read, memorized, and put on the back burner, they were directives, models, words for daily living. Prayer too was not something Jesus did only when He was in trouble. It was as natural to Him as talking. Through the spiritual disciplines of prayer and scripture reading, we too can avoid being lead into temptation. People who go to God in prayer, for even the littlest things in their lives, develop a spiritual discipline that allows them to turn to God, to trust God, and to discern God's will in the little and the big things.

There are forty days in Lent. Now is the time for us to begin the spiritual disciplines of prayer and scripture reading. Now is the time to turn to God for all the little things in our lives.

Then, when the big temptations, the big challenges, the times of trial come along, we won't have to search for the right words, or flip through the Bible trying to find appropriate words of comfort and strength. The prayer and the scriptures will be as inborn in us as breathing.

And so Lent challenges us to set aside time for scripture reading and for prayer each day for the next forty days. No excuses. Find the time. Mute the phone. Set aside the ipad, the novel. Do it at breakfast with your spouse, at dinner with your family. Get up five minutes earlier, go to bed five minutes later. Whatever you do, spend time each day for the next forty days reading scripture and in prayer. Whatever the powers, whatever the forces, whatever the temptations you face, remember this, God is for you. Who then, can be against you!

Lent is often thought of as a time of sacrifice...a time to “give up” things such as candy, bad habits and maybe even the internet. Although these challenges help us prepare for larger sacrifices in life, Lent does not have to be a time of “giving up”. Rather, we can make it a time to “give” alms and add something positive to our daily lives and the lives of others.

When it comes to almsgiving or helping the poor, the Church makes it easy for us through our new Lenten program called “Giving, Not Giving Up”.

During the five Sundays of Lent, every household is encouraged to bring their alms to Mass or bring them to the rectory. This act of generosity is a tangible sign of our Lenten efforts to feed the hungry.

“Lent is a new beginning,
a path leading to the certain goal of Easter.
Each life that we encounter is a gift deserving acceptance, respect and love.
At the basis of everything is the word of God”
_Pope Francis’ Lenten message_

During Lent at the 10:15 Sunday Mass
in the Holy Family Chapel
we will focus on Pope Francis’ message to change our lives as we travel along the Lenten path to Easter.

Paper butterflies that families can personalize and complete with the changes they will make during this Lenten season will be available on the back tables
in the Holy Family Chapel.

Each Sunday at the 10:15 Family Mass, families can present their completed folded butterflies in the Offertory procession.
On Easter Sunday these butterflies will be opened and become part of a special display in the Holy Family Chapel.

There will be a service for children on Holy Thursday, April 13th, at 3:00 PM in the Holy Family Chapel. Join us for this moving service where children will reenact the Last Supper.
Children ages 3 and up are invited to participate as followers of Jesus.

Practice will be held on Tuesday, April 11th at 7:00 PM in the Holy Family Chapel.
To participate email stbarnabasfamilyliturgy@gmail.com or sign up by the choir after the 10:15 Mass.

To arrange a baptism at St. Barnabas contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. This meeting offers parents an opportunity to review the baptism ceremony and set the date. The meeting is more conversational than instructional. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic. Baptisms are held every Sunday at 1:30 PM and on Saturday’s at 11:30 PM, when available.
If you wish to hold a private ceremony you must bring a visiting priest to perform the baptism. Private baptisms may be held on Sunday at 3:00 PM and 3:00 PM, when these times are available.
Dear Friends:

Lent 2017 is a time for us to pray for dramatic missionary growth in the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

Part of that dramatic missionary growth is stimulated by our willingness to invite our inactive Catholic friends back to Mass.

I put it this way in my Installation Mass homily on January 31: I appeal on this day of my Installation as the fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre to every inactive Catholic in the Diocese to come back to the power of the Word of God, the power of the Sacrament of Penance, and the power of the Catholic Mass.

I am so very sorry if you have been hurt or disappointed by the Church in any way and we stand here today to support you, to love you and to listen to you.

In turn, I am asking every active Catholic of every age in the Diocese of Rockville Centre between January 31st and Ash Wednesday (which is March 1, 2017) to invite one inactive Catholic friend or family to come with you to Mass and to gently, humbly, compassionately, non-judgmentally witness to the beauty of your intimacy with Christ and your love for the mission of the Catholic Church and how it has enriched and inspired your life.

The power of these gentle and compassionate invitations is enormous. They always plant a seed of grace. And now’s the time to make these invitations. Let’s all do it together and realize that it is the kindest thing any of us could do for anyone.

For those who have made those invitations since January 31st, thank you! For those of us who need an extension, let’s give ourselves till Easter Sunday, April 16, 2017 to make that compassionate invitation to our friends. And let’s open ourselves to making these invitations more frequently and consistently.

When we die, we will all look lovingly into the merciful eyes of Jesus and review our life with him. The people whom we have helped to invite back to Mass and their Catholic faith will be standing around us with radiant smiles. And we want a big crowd!

We connect our Lenten 2017 prayer, fasting and almsgiving together to this intention and to our constant intention to pray for our brothers and sisters who are poor, hungry, suffering from war, violence or persecution in our world.

You and your families are all daily in my prayers and Masses. Thank you for your witness of “holiness and mission” to the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre

The Society of St. Vincent De Paul
In the Gospel today, Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. We are never immune to temptation; it is real. But, temptation always brings choice, decision, and greater self-knowledge. In our daily living we must place our temptations and our choices within the context of the commandment to love God and neighbor. This is Lent’s challenge and invitation. Lent is a call to “Give alms to the poor and needy.” Thank you for your support in last week’s second collection. Your generous support enables us to continue Christ’s work in the parish.

The purpose of this lesson is to lead us to understand the beauty and richness of the Mass and to see it as our “front row seat” in the most important event in human history. As Catholics, we are also morally obligated to attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation. The Catechism tells us that the liturgical celebration has remained substantially the same since the second century (see CCC 1345), and that together the Liturgy of the Word and Liturgy of the Eucharist form a “single act of worship.” This is the first of five precepts (or "positive laws") of the Church. Confessing sins and receiving the Eucharist at least once a year, at Easter, are the second and third precepts (see CCC 2042). In a most special way, it is through this sacrament that Jesus fulfilled his promise: “I am with you always...” (Mt 28:20).

Conversation After Class

- If someone at school asked you why you go to church on Sunday, what would you say?
- Do you think it is important to go to church every Sunday and on holy days of obligation? Why or why not?
- At times in Church history—and even today in some parts of the world—people have been killed for practicing the Catholic Faith. If practicing your Catholic Faith were illegal, would there be enough evidence to convict you of being Catholic?
- What are some important ways you can prepare to encounter Jesus at Mass?
