THANK YOU ALL FOR A BEAUTIFUL HOLY WEEK AND EASTER

Dear People of St. Barnabas,

What a glorious Holy Week! I cannot thank you enough for all the faithful hours of decorating, prayer, music and worship. We were blessed to have St. Barnabas Church filled with people during the week, and to welcome so many to Mass on this joyous Easter Sunday morning!

Thank you especially to our incredible staff who decorated the Church for days, moving gracefully from Palm Sunday’s splendor, to the stark reality of Holy Thursday and Good Friday, to the transformation of our sanctuary for Easter. In today’s bulletin you can read the names of those who are memorialized by Easter lilies and sanctuary flowers. God bless them all!

Thank you to the young people of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School who made palm Crosses for last weekend, filled over two thousand Easter water bottles for today, and made hundreds of sandwiches for people who are homeless during the week. All day Wednesday the whole School took turns to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. I hope you, and all our Religious Education and Chosen students, enjoy a well deserved break from school.

Thanks to all who participated in every aspect of our liturgy. To our ushers, altar servers, lectors and eucharistic ministers. To the choir and cantors who sang so beautifully all week. To those who had their feet washed on Holy Thursday and who participated in the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. To our Family Ministry Team who organized beautiful services for children, and to Creative Ministries for a powerful Stations of the Cross. In the early hours of Easter we were honored to welcome new members of the Church: Yessica Reyes, Sheri Procopio, John Christianson and Laura Matto. Thanks also to my brother priests for making each service meaningful and poignant, and for the many hours spent hearing confessions. To all our parishioners who attended the Holy Week Services — there is no greater pleasure than being with Jesus, here in the Church of St. Barnabas.

Wishing you and yours a joyful Easter time.

Fr. Adrian
Ever notice how we seem to spend more time preparing for an event than we actually spend celebrating it! Think about it. We put up lights for Christmas as early as we can, but few people keep them on beyond Christmas Day. Baby Showers happen before the birth much more than they are planned afterward. Even wedding celebrations are often more oriented toward bridal showers, bachelor parties and rehearsal dinners, than they are toward the actual wedding ceremony. In Africa, Asia and the Middle East, weddings are celebrated over several days.

People get excited for important holidays like Christmas and Easter, but very few want to celebrate them for more than a day. At Christmas we go shopping, we decorate for weeks ahead of time, we write cards, and wrap gifts, and then Christmas comes, we spend an hour in Church, unwrap a couple of gifts and then it's life as usual. And it can be the same for Holy Week and Easter — we can miss the point of the whole thing because we are caught up with the bunny and chocolate.

St. Peter explains what it’s about in today’s reading: ‘We are witnesses to all that Jesus did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses’ (Acts 10:39-41).

Here we have in a nutshell what Easter is about, or what it SHOULD be about? No bunnies, just a message that is so powerful that it has propelled Christianity to the world’s largest religion. Christ was raised from the dead! Really! No gimmicks, no hoax, no magic trick, not a comeback from a ‘clinical’ death, or a deep hibernation of sorts. Jesus was truly dead and was truly brought back from death.

The resurrection happened at a moment when the hope for the true Savior was shattered, when things looked worse than ever in the history of the world, at a moment when it looked like the dark forces of evil had won. It was at a crucial moment in history that our Savior was raised from the dead and with his resurrection he reversed not only the destruction of sin and evil, but even overcame death for all of us.

Peter tells us there is evidence for this. It isn’t just made up — he himself is a witness of the risen Christ, and so are many other disciples, including Mary Magdala. Perhaps more than all the others, Mary was truly devastated at Jesus’ death. Maybe that’s why Jesus chose to reveal the empty tomb first to her. In today’s Gospel: ‘on the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. She ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them.’ Mary was the very first witness to the resurrection of Christ and she was the first one to testify to the resurrection. In Mary we really see the changing from sorrow to joy most clearly. She runs back to tell the others the incredible news that the tomb is empty. This is something she cannot keep to herself. She had to tell.

We too cannot keep silent about this event. On this Easter morning we proclaim Jesus as the risen and victorious King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Through song, bells and alleluias we proclaim to the world that we love Jesus.
That Jesus rose from the dead!
That Jesus is the Son of God!
That Jesus has overcome sin and death!
And that we will live with him, now and forevermore!
WE ARE AN EASTER PEOPLE AND ALLELUIA IS OUR SONG.

The Society of St. Vincent De Paul
Today as we celebrate the Feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our lives of self-sacrifice. It is then we are truly Easter people. Christmas may get all the hoopla, the festive carols, the bells and whistles, but when it comes to the most important day in the Catholic Liturgical Calendar, Easter wins. Why is Easter so important and special? Because it celebrates Jesus’ resurrection from the dead, and his promise of eternal life for all who believe in him. As we reflect on our Lenten journey this year, please remember to help the poor and needy with your support and prayers. May the light of God shine on you and may you have a joyous Easter.

Dear Friends:

As we celebrate Easter with our families and our parish families, we ask the Risen Lord for a true resurrection of our belief that dramatic missionary growth of the Catholic Church in the Diocese of Rockville Centre can and will happen.

The courageous Cardinal Van Thuan, who witnessed powerfully to his Catholic faith while locked for years in a Vietnam prison, described the logic of Christ’s resurrection in our lives in this way: “Jesus cast fire on the earth and He desires the earth to be set ablaze with its brilliant light. You must be the bright flame kindled by apostolic zeal; from your bright light other torches must be kindled until the whole world is a vast sea of living flame”.

Together, let’s each one of us be instruments of the Risen Lord who start that “vast sea of living flame” here in the Church of Rockville Centre, a vast sea of living flame that spreads throughout the Church in the Northeast, around the country to the whole world.

Consider Katie, a Senior at an Oyster Bay area public high school. She was recently accepted to Notre Dame University in South Bend and will most likely major in Finance. Notre Dame connects incoming students by Social Media so that they can interact and get to know each other a bit before they ever set foot on campus. Through a series of online conversations, Katie eloquently witnessed in a natural way to the cosmic power of the Catholic Mass streaming through every dimension of her life and was able to convince in a gentle and effective way an incoming freshman from Wyoming to come back to Mass.

When Katie told me this story, I was so deeply moved that this winning and charismatic young woman had heard Pope Francis’ call to be a missionary disciple and was setting an example for both her peers and every generation of Catholics of how to reach out in faith and in the spirit of the Divine Mercy to others. She was also living the power of Christ’s resurrection by being the instrument of spiritual resurrection in a young man’s life. I can imagine Katie and her classmate from Wyoming saying a prayer and lighting a candle together – being part of the “vast sea of living flame” at Notre Dame’s mystic Grotto at the center of campus sometime in August when they both arrive on campus.

The story of Katie and her Notre Dame classmate is a moving and inspiring challenge to each one of us to ask people to come home to their Catholic faith and to invite others to consider the Splendor of Truth and Mercy of our Catholic faith.

This Easter, you and I rediscover the power of Christ’s Resurrection in a new and fresh way. A renewed love and confidence in the power of the Risen Christ refreshes and strengthens our marriages, our family relationships and every friendship we experience in the course of our lives. A rediscovery of the power of Christ’s resurrection helps our families become part of the “vast sea of living flame” that transforms the world and history.

This Easter 2017 we pray together that the light of the Divine Mercy that streams from the glorified wounds of the Risen Lord may touch the wounds of our families and the wounds of poor families, immigrant and refugee families separated by long distances and upheaval, families living in the midst of war, oppression and persecution, and families struggling with drug abuse and the opioid crisis.

Know that as your Shepherd and a Successor of the Apostles what an honor it is to be the servant of each one of your families as together we embrace the Holy Spirit’s call to dramatic missionary growth in the Church of Rockville Centre.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

[Signature]

It has been the history and tradition of St. Barnabas Vacation Bible School to take camp pictures of all the groups at VBS to send home as a memento. Sometimes we also take random pictures of the campers enjoying the different activities at VBS which we put on a display board for the families to see when they attend the VBS concert and we might also display with prior years pictures at future VBS sessions. Please note we will not list or label the camper's names just the group name – example the Sand Castles.
