Divine Mercy Devotions at the Cathedral of Saint Agnes at 3 p.m.
Fishermen are notorious for fish stories, farmers for disaster stories, businessmen for stories of profit margins, and politicians for promises. Advertisements always stretch the truth. And then there are those emails: ‘You’ve just inherited $1,000,000!’ Not many of us are so gullible to believe such stupidities. Who wants to be taken in by an email from a con-artist?

There are many things that sound too GOOD to be true. There are also many things that sound too BAD to be true.

Like when we first heard of the terrorist attacks in Paris, San Bernardino & Brussels we just couldn’t believe that such things can happen today. Likewise with the beheadings and genocides we hear about in different parts of the world. It’s beyond belief that human beings could do such things to one another! Even political leaders deny there is a planned genocide against Christians in areas that ISIS occupies. They deny that it’s actually happened. There are facts that sound just too horrible to be true, and yet are true. It’s hard to believe that human sin and evil could be so deep and pervasive.

Many things sound too BAD to be true. There are also things that sound far too GOOD to be true. Which is very much like Thomas, in today’s Gospel! The other disciples told him that Jesus was alive, that Jesus had appeared to them, but Thomas will not believe. Then Jesus came and stood among them and said, ‘Peace be with you.’ He said to Thomas, ‘Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt, but believe’ Thomas answered him, ‘My Lord and my God!’

In spite of all his initial doubt, Thomas ends up with a tremendous confession of faith! Nowhere else in the Gospels does anyone address Jesus in this way: ‘My Lord and my God.’

Jesus said to him, ‘Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.’

That Thomas believed, was a minor miracle. That we believe, without having seen, is a major miracle. We know that many early Christians had trouble believing in the resurrection of Jesus, especially the educated people of Corinth. St. Paul spends the whole last chapter of First Corinthians talking about this, saying that the resurrection is the key doctrine of the Christian faith. ‘If Christ was not raised,’ says Paul, ‘your faith is futile.’ The truth of the resurrection is unbelievable, and yet it happened; otherwise the Church would have died out during the first century.

In some ways it’s easier for people of our generation to believe incredible things than it was for people a century ago, because we’ve seen so many impossible things come true. space flight, the web, cracking the DNA code - so many things that everyone once thought to be impossible, have become reality. And I’m sure this trend will continue — the self-drive car, personal robots for the home, the slowing of the aging process … too good to be true? Perhaps not. Perhaps, with God, ANYTHING is possible.

Perhaps God can increase the attendance at Church. Perhaps God can cure what ails you. Perhaps God can change anyone, even the most mean. Perhaps God CAN in fact raise the dead. Do you believe it? Blessed are those who have not seen, and yet believe.

RCIA News
At the Easter Vigil this year, Richard Hueglin was baptized, and Louis Romano, Yev Guyduy, Kevin Coons and Kasey Estey, were welcomed into full communion with the Catholic Church. They now enter the period of Mystagogy, a time to be welcomed into the daily activities of the church. R.C.I.A.; is a process for those who seek full participation in the Catholic Church; those who were never baptized; and those baptized Catholic, or in another Christian faith, who wish to receive Communion and Confirmation as Catholics. If you are or know of someone who would like more information, please call the rectory and leave a message for Terry Hubert.

Hi Everyone,

Happy Easter! Remember, the Easter season is not one day but a whole season that lasts until Pentecost. Our culture tells us that Easter began weeks ago and is over, but as Catholics we just started celebrating!

Today’s Gospel shows us one of the appearances of the risen Jesus. What I love about this Gospel, is that it shows us the humanity of the Apostles. It’s easy to look at the Apostles as men who never struggled in the walk with Jesus. We know Peter went through this when he denied Jesus. Today we see Thomas struggle with this also.

Thomas has to see Jesus’ wounds to believe that he has appeared. This is a great time to look at our own faith. Do we sometimes need signs to believe when times are tough? We all go through struggles in life and it can be easy to wonder where Jesus is in those struggles. That is normal, but I think we need to remember that Jesus is right there with us even though we may need to go through those hard times. That can be so comforting and Jesus reminds us “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.” We are so blessed to have the gift of faith - let’s never doubt it!

Have a blessed week!
Peggy

Faith on Tap

Faith on Tap is an open forum engaging young adults in straight talk and honest answers to questions of faith and where young adults can meet others who are also living out their faith. We are honored to have with us Brother Timothy Driscoll, a Marianist Brother of the Province of Meribah and an educator for the past 35 years teaching in Chaminade High School and Kellenberg Memorial High School. Brother Tim is a dynamic and enthusiastic speaker. Brother Tim’s topic for the evening is: “The Art of Mercy” Rembrandt’s Return of the Prodigal Son.” Bringing together his passion for art and drawing young people closer to Christ, this is a talk you don’t want to miss. Faith on Tap will be at the Wantagh Inn, 3264 Railroad Avenue, (across the street from the Wantagh RR Station) on Monday, April 11th. The talk begins at 7:30 PM, doors will at 7:00 PM. Come early - have something to eat – meet new friends - catch up with old ones. Questions or for more information, email Marianne Sheridan at msheridan@drvc.org.
