All Dorothy really wanted was to go home. In the Wizard of Oz, a tornado tears Dorothy from her home and lands her on the other side of the rainbow. With Toto, that obnoxious little dog, she meets friends and makes enemies, dances with the munchkins, unmasks the Wizard, faces lions and tigers and bears, oh my, and finally destroys the wicked witch of the east. Yet, for all of her adventures and the friends that she’s met, she longs to return to her home in Kansas.

In the final scene, she clicks her heels together while repeating the words, ‘there’s no place like home, there’s no place like home, there’s no place like home,’ and poof! She’s back home in her own bedroom waking up to Auntie Em and her friends.

Home. I’ve been visiting my home in Ireland for the last week and it’s been great to get back to that building we call home. It’s also our family business. Didn’t have a lot of stuff as houses have today, but we had some good times around the dining room table.

Home. Home is a place to hang the hat. A place to return after years of absence. A place to come to no matter what we’ve made of our lives. Whether we’ve made a mess of our lives or whether we’ve reached all of our life-goals. Home is a destination. A final arriving.

Today we hear the promise about Jesus who is going away but who will come back. ‘If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I’. He is leaving his beloved disciples. They’re going to be on their own for a bit. But remember to keep trust with Him. He will return soon and before you know it, we’ll be home with Him.

Jesus IS all the address we need to get home to the Father. The Holy Spirit is working, sawing, hammering, and pulling us together every day that we’re here. When we gather in Church Christ is among us through the presence of the Spirit. ‘Where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am in your midst,’ Jesus says. That means that because Christ is here through the Spirit, we already have a home away from home.

Maybe it’s time for you to come home. To come home to a family of brothers and sisters. To come home to a Church community who really and truly care about you.

Home is where we are reminded of our true home. ‘Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid,’ Jesus said, ‘You heard me tell you, ‘I am going away and I will come back to you.’

Welcome home.

The Gift of Hope

Many couples long for a child, but are unable to conceive. Catholic Health Services (CHS) invites women to reach out in hope to the Gianna of Long Island Center for Women’s Health and Fertility based at CHS’s Good Samaritan Hospital in West Islip. Learn about our services, including Restorative Reproductive Medicine. Gianna, offers new, natural women’s health care that seeks to identify the source of infertility and address it so conception can occur naturally. This method has proven highly successful, even for women who have tried other methods. Gianna of Long Island, Center for Women’s Health and Fertility Good Samaritan Hospital, 1000 Montauk Highway, West Islip, www.chsli.org/gianna-center-long-island. Call today at (631)376-3232.

Mother’s Day is next weekend Sunday May 8th and we will once again support our local agencies - Birthright, Momma’s House, Regina Residence and Life Center with help for their moms and babies.

This is the last weekend to bring donations to Church. Please bring any additional donations to the rectory during the week.

In today’s readings we see a couple of things going on. In the Gospel, Jesus prepares his followers for his departure, in this case the Ascension. In this case he will not be returning to them. He lets them know he is sending the Holy Spirit, the Advocate to be with them and now with us. I love the term the Advocate when referring to the Holy Spirit. An advocate is someone who supports and defends us. Jesus was reminding them that even though they would not see Jesus, he would send the spirit.

In today’s first reading, we again hear about the workings of the early Church. At this point some of the followers begin debating whether or not a follower must first become Jewish to fully be a member of this new group. The leaders again mention the guidance of the Holy Spirit when saying that not all customs have to be observed for someone to follow Jesus.

As we move toward the end of the Easter season, think about whether or not we look to the Holy Spirit in our lives for guidance and support. Here are some questions you can ask yourself – When I have a hard decision to make, do I pray that the Holy Spirit will help me? In school when I face challenges either with people or work I have to do, do I ask the Holy Spirit to help? I always tell teens that if we ask the Holy Spirit for guidance and listen, we can’t go wrong!

Have a blessed week!

Peggy

Jesus Speaks of Love and Peace

Jesus told His disciples that God would send the Holy Spirit to help them.

Draw a line from each piece to where it belongs.

Finish the drawing.

Jesus left a great gift for His disciples.

Circle peace.

Trace the correct number: 5 or 6?

What Jesus gives is not like what the world gives.

Match the shapes to find the opposites.
