God of Love,
listen to this prayer.

God of Holy People,
of Sarah, Ruth, and Rebekah;
God of holy Elizabeth,
mother of John,
of Holy Mary, Mother of Jesus, bend down Your ear to this request and bless the mother of our family.

Bless her with the strength of Your spirit,
she who has taught her children
how to stand and walk.

Bless her with the melody of Your love,
she who has shared how to speak, how to sing and how to pray to You.

Bless her with a place at Your eternal dinner table,
she who has fed and nurtured the life that was formed within her while still helpless
but embraced in her love.

Bless her today, now, in this lifetime,
with good things, with health.

Bless her with joy, love, laughter, and pride in her child/children and surround her with good friends.

May she who carried life in her womb be carried one day to Your divine embrace:
there, for all eternity,
to rejoice with her family and friends.

This blessing and all grace, we pray,
descend upon the mother of our family:
in the name of the Father, and of the Son
Jesus calls out to His people. He called out 2,000 years ago, and he has not stopped. At first, His followers were the Jewish people, the chosen people, and God has worked to be known by them. His first followers were His close friends, the twelve. Over time, His circle widened. He spoke to thousands of people. Following the resurrection Jesus gave the great commandment: “Go and make disciples of all nations”. Which means everybody. Jesus came at first for the Jews, but in the end he came for everybody.

This is why we invite babies for Baptism, young children for First Communion, teenagers for Confirmation and couples for Marriage. However one of our biggest problems is baptizing babies we never see again. Or watching families put on a big party to celebrate a First Holy Communion, but not returning for some time. Or making a great effort to complete the Confirmation process, but never becoming His disciple. Or sharing marriage vows at the foot of the altar, never to look at the altar again until the next big event.

Faith is to be lived. It’s not only about the events, but about the everyday living out of a faith-filled life. Take a moment to review the good news our faith offers us.

First, God created the world. Somehow we blew it, and wound up with a world with a lot of problems – the Adam and Eve story captures our tendency to be selfish rather than God centered. Somehow we blew it.

But God worked through prophets for thousands of years, trying to get through to us. And in some ways, He did. We understood the ten commandments and tried to live them. But we would fail again and again.

Finally, God joined us here on earth. Jesus came and taught us two main things: to love God and to love our neighbor. He preached parables and healed people. And He did the unthinkable: He allowed Himself to be killed, somehow wiping out the power of our sinfulness, and getting us right with God. This was a courageous act, and only a loving God could have done it.

So what about those people who can’t quite wrap their minds around God or can’t quite make the leap of faith to see Jesus as God. Are they out? Well today we see Jesus face Thomas and his doubts and questions. How can we conceive of a loving God kicking out Thomas or our loved ones. Jesus came to change lives, He will never give up on us. He calls us to continue His work and to share Him with others. In today’s gospel He says, ‘whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father.’ This is the essence of Christianity.

“I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Good Shepherd Sunday was acted out by two children, one was a shepherd and the other was a sheep. Father Adrian explained how the paddock did not have a gate and the sheep would wander out, and that the shepherd slept across the opening to prevent the sheep from leaving the fold. Then Father Adrian explained how Jesus is the shepherd who protects us all of our lives. We have to listen to his voice and follow him.

Please participate in the Family Liturgy by joining in the Entrance Procession, reading scripture, singing or playing an instrument. For additional information or to sign up, email stbarnabasfamilyliturgy@gmail.com.

Recently, St. Barnabas kicked-off their Baby Bottle Campaign to benefit The Life Center.

The weekend to bring those filled baby bottles in is:

June 3rd & 4th

The Life Center is a pregnancy help center that counsels women and men who are experiencing an unexpected pregnancy. They provide maternity housing, medical care referrals, cribs, car seats, diapers and ALL other baby items that are needed.

Remember, all it takes is your change in a baby bottle and a heartfelt prayer to make a big, positive difference for all those we serve.

May every drop of a coin remind you to pray with your whole heart for the lives of our preborn children!

The 7 Catholic Sacraments

- Baptism
  - Baptism is a sacrament of salvation allowing God's saving grace to enter the human soul.

- Confirmation
  - Confirmation is the sacrament of maturity and coming of age. It gives strength to follow Jesus and a calling to involve in the mission which Jesus left to the Church.

- Eucharist
  - Also known as the Sacrament of Holy Orders, the priest being ordained vows to lead other Catholics by bringing them the sacraments, by proclaiming Gospel, and providing other means to holiness.

- Holy Orders
  - This sacrament unites a sick person’s suffering with that of Christ and brings forgiveness of sins. It is administered both to the dying and those who are gravely ill.

- Marriage
  - The sacrament of marriage is a sign that one gives oneself totally to another person in a loving union of husband and wife.

- Reconciliation
  - Instituted by Christ the night before his death, the Eucharist is the reception of Christ’s Body and Blood to nourish us spiritually and bring us closer to God.

- Anointing of the Sick
  - Also known as the Sacrament of Reconciliation, it is a sign and experience of God’s unconditional forgiveness. With penance you receive Christ’s healing grace through absolution by the priest.

It has been the history and tradition of St. Barnabas Vacation Bible School to take camp pictures of all the groups at VBS to send home as a memento. Sometimes we also take random pictures of the campers enjoying the different activities at VBS which we put on a display board for the families to see when they attend the VBS concert and we might also display with prior years pictures at future VBS sessions. Please note we will not list or label the camper's names just the group name – example the Sand Castles.
