Jesus promised His disciples that after He was gone, He would send an advocate. We have come to know this advocate as the Holy Spirit that descended upon the disciples on Pentecost. And here we are, centuries later, celebrating that event. This is Pentecost Sunday. It is the birthday of the Church, for it was when the power of the Holy Spirit descended that the disciples began to preach and proclaim the message of God's saving grace. It was then that the followers of Christ took on a new meaning, a new purpose.

The Holy Spirit, the advocate, the comforter or the counselor, comes to stand with us and within us as we face the world. It is not the power of God who pushes us along with words of encouragement. "Go ahead, you can do it."

The Holy Spirit comes to us for a specific purpose, and that is to give us the means as well as the where-with-all to proclaim God's grace before the world. For that to transpire, we must first recognize where the advocate is in our lives and how the advocate works in our lives.

I can look back over my life and name several people who have carried the voice of God into my life, serving as the advocate when I was unable to recognize the Holy Spirit speaking to me directly. These have been counselors and teachers, friends and colleagues. I didn't always listen to them, either, but I now recognize how God had placed them in my life for a clear purpose.

I suspect that there are times when each of us have seen the advocate at work in our lives and perhaps times when we have served as the advocate in the life of someone else. But there are also times when we as a Church are called to be the advocate to a group or to our society.

The Pentecost story, the story of the Holy Spirit descending like a mighty wind and resting upon the followers of Christ like tongues of fire, happened then and it happens today. But it doesn't just 'happen'. It happens for a purpose. We have been inspired by the Holy Spirit. We have been filled with the breath of God. We have the word of God on our lips and the spirit of God in our breath. We must speak. We must act. Jesus promised that the Holy Spirit would be an advocate. When the Spirit lives within us, we become the advocate.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
Today we celebrate Pentecost. The Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God’s presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives. Jesus tells us that He is sending the Spirit to us. The Spirit is the Word speaking to us in a most profound way because He dwells with us and guides us to all truth. The quest for truth, therefore, involves prayerfulness and reflectiveness. God speaks not only in the silence of our hearts, but also in the people around us. Supporting St. Vincent de Paul helps us to help the poor and needy believe in the mystery of God’s love for them. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is non-sectarian and helps all people regardless of their race, religion, or background. The ministry of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a person to person service to those in need, through a home visit. Members visit the clients in their homes to assess their real needs. Working with the client, a strategy is developed to restore the client’s independence and self esteem. Experienced client service members train new members to conduct home visit interviews and to develop recovery strategies using conference and other agency and organization resources. Two members are assigned to a case and have available to them the collective expertise of other client service members. Your identity and circumstances will be held in strict confidence. Meet us at the Parish Ministry Fair on September 23rd if you wish to become a member.
The Men of the Way of Light

On the first Pentecost, we find the Apostles behind locked doors, very afraid. Their fear and lack of confidence prevented them from bringing the Gospel message to the world as Jesus had commanded them. Then, as Jesus had promised, the Holy Spirit came down upon them and burned in their minds and hearts! Through the many gifts of the Holy Spirit, they found the courage and passion to carry out their “Great Commission.” We also received the gifts of the Holy Spirit at Confirmation! Does the Holy Spirit burn in your mind and heart? Or have you covered that light with a bowl? We cannot bring the Gospel message to others without the help of the Holy Spirit, who gives us courage and guidance. Interested in re-igniting that burning desire to bring the Gospel message to others? Please join the us at our next meeting on Saturday, June 2nd, as we call on the Holy Spirit to ignite the passion of Jesus’ love within us, and the courage to bring His message of Truth to the world. We meet bimonthly on Saturdays in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel (lower church) immediately after the 8:00 AM Mass. Bagels and coffee provided. If you cannot attend, please pray for our group and for our parish. For more information, contact Fred Kreuder at 987-5350 or email stbampg@aol.com. Visit our FaceBook page: “Men of the Way of Light - St. Barnabas Men’s Faith Discussion Group.”.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Good News for Military: The Air Force reversed its decision to punish a highly decorated colonel after he declined to sign a “certificate of spouse appreciation” for a retiring master sergeant’s same-sex spouse. Air Force Secretary Heather Wilson announced the new ruling in favor of the colonel and reinstated him. She said, “Colonel Bohannon had the right to exercise his sincerely held religious beliefs and did not unlawfully discriminate...” Not Good News for Military Chaplains: Army Chaplain Scott Squires has been reprimanded and faces “career ending punishment” because an Army investigator wrongly concluded he discriminated when he declined to facilitate a Strong Bonds Marriage Retreat that included same-sex couples. However, Baptist Chaplain Squires was actually following Department of Defense regulations. “We must remember that at every level of government there are bureaucrats who actively resist...efforts to preserve and protect religious freedom.” Hiram Sasser, general counsel for First Liberty.

Many thanks to our parishioners who supported our Mother’s Day Baby Shower. So many wonderful items were delivered to Birthright, Momma’s House and Regina Residence. Our Prayer Shawl Group provided an especially nice touch with their beautiful handmade items. Special thanks to the volunteers from St. Vincent de Paul and Respect Life who delivered the gifts. Once again, your caring and kindness touched the lives of so many moms and babies. Thanks, too, to all who participated in Food Pantry Weekend this month. Your donations are greatly appreciated!

If you wish to arrange a baptism, please contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. This meeting offers parents an opportunity to review the baptism ceremony and set the date. The meeting is more conversational than instructional. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic.

Baptisms are held on Saturday at 11:30 AM, and Sunday at 1:30 PM, when the Church is available.

If you wish to hold a private baptism you must bring a visiting priest to perform the baptism service. Private baptisms may be held on Saturday at 1:30 PM and 3:00 PM and on Sunday at 3:00 PM, if these times are available.

First time parents are required to attend a Baptism Class. Classes are held in the Holy Family Chapel on Agape Sunday, the second Sunday of the month. Crying babies and noisy children are welcome. We begin with Mass at 10:15 AM, when your baby will be welcomed to St. Barnabas, followed by refreshments and the class.

The dates for class are June 10, (10:30 Mass for July 8, August 12 and September 9), October 14, November 11, December 9.

Vacation Bible School Photo Release form – must be included with registration.

It has been the history and tradition of St. Barnabas Vacation Bible School to take camp pictures of all the groups at VBS to send home as a memento. Sometimes we also take random pictures of the campers enjoying the different activities at VBS which we put on a display board for the families to see when they attend the VBS concert and we might also display with prior years pictures at future VBS sessions. Please note we will not list or label the camper’s names just the group name – example the Sand Castles.
