A Prayer for Memorial Day

Remember, Lord, the fallen
Who died in fields of war,
In flaming clouds, in screaming crowds,
On streets that are no more,
That we today might waken
And greet this day in peace
With grateful prayer for those who bear
The storms that never cease.

Remember friends and strangers,
And those forgotten now,
Whose names are known to you alone,
Before whose love we bow
And ask that you surround them
With mercy’s endless light
That they may live, and we forgive
The foe they went to fight.

Remember, Lord, the living,
Who bear the pain of loss-
A death she died who stood beside
Her Son upon the cross.

Remember all your children
The dead and those who weep,
And make us one beneath the sun
Where love will never sleep.
What's Pastor Thinking

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. We listen to Jesus’ final words to the disciples. ‘Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.’ All nations. Every ONE? All that I have commanded you! How on earth could we be expected to fulfill such tall order? Where would we even start?
Throughout Scripture we have stories of people called by God to step out in faith - to do things they didn’t ask for and couldn’t have imagined: Isaiah and Esther, Samuel and Sarah, Moses and Mary. God continues to call us today; and it is that same ‘Spirit of Truth’ Jesus promised the disciples, that enables and empowers us to respond, ‘Here I am. Send me!’ to God’s call. What Jesus sends us out to do is to bring all humanity back into relationship with the One who created it.

"Teach them to observe all that I have commanded you." And what has He commanded us? Remember the young lawyer who asked Jesus what he needed to do? Jesus said: ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind and soul--this is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like unto it: love your neighbor as yourself. Upon these two hang all the law and the prophets.’ There it is. Imagine a world where everyone put God first and loved their neighbors as themselves. Sounds like the ‘as it is in heaven’ part we pray for every time we pray the Lord’s Prayer. Sounds like the Kingdom.

As we celebrate this Trinity Sunday, may we all be aware of the power of God working in the world; particularly in and through the people of St. Barnabas. This IS a place where lives are changed - where, nourished by word and sacraments, we go out to be the Church in the world. A place where the concept of the Trinity is no mere intellectual exercise but truly a way of expressing our experience of God.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity, we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this, our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. St. Vincent de Paul tells us to worship and to imitate the Trinity, and to live a life in which all are one, as Jesus is one with the Father and the Spirit. He wants us to have in ourselves the image of the Trinity, to share a sacred relation to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Holy Trinity is a God of unity, a God of mystery, a God of majesty, and a God of creative power. The only way to living the kind of community the Trinity models for us is Our Mission is to Encourage Evangelize & Educate through love, the self-giving love that creates and sustains life. As disciples, we are called to continue God’s work on earth. Have you considered answering the call to serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? If you are interested in joining, please see us at the parish ministry fair on September 23rd.

The Men of the Way of Light

In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus commands us to, “Go and make disciples of all nations.” Jesus tells us that, “All the power in Heaven and on Earth” has been given to Him. In other words, no excuses! When we bring the Gospel message to others it is actually Jesus working through us! It is the Holy Spirit who guides us and inspires us to do so. The best way we can bring the Gospel message to others is through acts of love. I think it was St. Francis who said, “Preach the Gospel at all times. If necessary, use words.” Before I go to sleep at night, I reflect on my day. I remember all the good things I did. I remember the bad things too, and I reflect on what I could have done better. Did I bring the Gospel message to someone today? Jesus reminds us that we are never alone! “And behold, I am with you always...” He is physically present in the Eucharist, our greatest strength! Please join the “Men of the Way of Light” at our next meeting on Saturday, June 2nd, as we discuss the many ways that the Eucharist has transformed our lives and given us the strength to do all the things that we never thought we could do! The Men of the Way of Light meet bimonthly on Saturdays in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel (lower church) immediately after the 8:00 AM Mass. Bagels and coffee provided. If you cannot attend, please pray for our group and for our parish. For more information, contact Fred Kreuder at 987-5350 or email stbampg@aol.com. Visit our FaceBook page: “Men of the Way of Light - St. Barnabas Men’s Faith Discussion Group.”

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

On Memorial Day we honor our deceased veterans and remember that, even today, they are under attack by freedom-from-religion groups. In 1934, the VFW erected the Mojave Desert Veterans Memorial Cross in the middle of the 1.6 million-acre Mojave Desert, CA, in honor of WW1
Veterans. In 2010, an ACLU lawsuit was heard by the U.S. Supreme Court, allowing the veterans cross to be restored. A 40 foot-tall WW1 memorial in the shape of a cross has stood for almost a century in MD. The U.S. Court of Appeals has declared this Peace Cross unconstitutional. A Memorial Day display featuring 79 white, handmade crosses, representing residents who died in America’s wars, were posted along a state highway in Georgia. The crosses were abruptly taken down when one person complained about the display. “It was never about religion - it was to honor them,” said the mayor. “The cross is a ‘rest in peace’ symbol to me.” “America without soldiers would be like God without His angels.” - Claudia Pemberton, Author.

Dear St. Barnabas!

What a blessed year it has been. God has been so generous to this parish. As the year for Youth Ministry has wrapped up, I want to thank all of those who assisted to make this year a success. Thank you to the teens who gave up some of their Sunday to grow closer to the Lord.

As we look towards next year, we will be changing our program a bit. We now invite those in 6th-8th grade to join us for Youth Group. Along with our High School students, we will come together to deepen our faith and grow closer to Jesus Christ. We will have a kick off date soon so keep an eye on the bulletin for that.

If you would like to find out more information about our Youth Ministry or you would like to help, please email or call me. I can be reached at stbayouth17@gmail.com or 785-0130. Please know of my steadfast and continued prayers for you this summer and please pray for our youth and the Life Teen group of St. Barnabas.

In Christ,

Kieran Maelia
