Bishop Barres with St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School at the May Crowning
“Oh, I sure am happy to see you, " the little boy said to his grandmother on his mother's side. "Can you make the frog sound?"
Grandma says: "Honey, why do you want me to do that?"
And the little boy says: "Well, Dad said that when you croak, we’re in for a fortune!"
Throughout time communication has always been a problem. There exists a giant gap between what is expressed and what is often heard.
Yet, 2000 years ago, something truly amazing happened. The Holy Spirit had fallen fresh on the lives of believers and they were filled with passion to communicate the Gospel. Gathered from every culture and city, every nation and province, all speaking in foreign tongues but understanding each other, all expressing different voices but still in one accord.

This was the time of Pentecost, when God ushered in a new age, the age of the Spirit and the birth of the Church for all people. Humanity was forever changed. Now the disciples of Jesus became not only capable of speaking all kinds of languages, but were willing to use those languages to contact people they never would have thought of addressing before.

The power of Holy Spirit was real. It surrounded them, spoke through them, allowed them to understand God, each other, and their mission. It moved them from believing in forgiveness to showing forgiveness; from believing that God would protect them to actually venturing forth from the upper room into the danger filled streets of Jerusalem; from thinking about what Jesus had said, to proclaiming what he said - in word - and in deed, and reaching out to heal, to serve - and to love - all those around them.

There is a moment in all of our lives when belief comes alive. It is no longer a teaching of the Church in our heads, but an extension of Christ through our hands. That moment is the gift of the Holy Spirit. That moment is the fruit of the Holy Spirit which dwells in us, and seeks to bring us closer to God - and closer to one another. Many can look back and find a moment of an encounter with the Holy Spirit. For the first disciples that moment happened with a rush of wind and tongues of fire. For others it has come through God sending people to you to shape and direct your life. That's the Church in action. Either way, the Holy Spirit has influenced your life by speaking to you in a language that you can understand.

Pentecost marks the beginning of the Church; a movement steeped in hope, renewal, and spiritual transformation. For the Church to survive we must recapture some of the enthusiasm we had two millennia ago.

Catholic Ministries
Our parish is over goal in pledges for the 2017 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Bishop John Barres has extended his gratitude, congratulations and many thanks to our parish for our generosity in supporting important ministries in our parish, as well as throughout the Diocese. Thank you for supporting the work of our Church!

Food Pantry Weekend, June 3rd & 4th
Our Food Pantry is low on the following items, jarred spaghetti sauce, canola oil, vegetable oil, and olive oil. Thank you for your continued support of the food pantry. As always thank you for responding so generously on a monthly basis. Your concern for the needy is greatly appreciated.

Do you have a Baby Bottle?
We are still collecting baby bottles for our parish’s recent baby bottle drive for the Life Center of Long Island. It’s not too late to return your bottle. We will take them back full or empty. Please bring it to the church or rectory so that we may return it to the Life Center. Thank you!

The Society of St. Vincent De Paul
Today as we celebrate Pentecost, Jesus says to his disciples: “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” Pentecost brings Jesus’ ministry to a focus: we are sent to continue Jesus’ ministry, armed with the Holy Spirit and specific instructions as to what we are to do: forgive. To forgive doesn’t mean to forget; it means to restore love. We are temples of the Holy Spirit, carrying within us the power of God. Please support the broken hearted and needy and pray that the Holy Spirit will grant them Peace of Heart.

Second Collection Next Week
The Bishops of the United States approved a special one-time second collection for the Trinity Dome. Your prayerful and financial support will not only adorn this “Crowning Jewel” and complete Mary’s Shrine, but will also leave a lasting legacy for generations to come in this living monument to our Catholic faith and heritage that is America’s Catholic Church.

Catholics For Freedom of Religion
Maine: H.S. educational technician, Toni Richardson, filed charges of religious discrimination and retaliation with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) in May, after being instructed to never use phrases like, “I will pray for you” and “You are in my prayers” in private conversations with coworkers. An official “coaching memorandum” stated these phrases are not acceptable and she will face discipline or dismissal in the future if she speaks these words. However, guidelines from the Department of Education say that teachers may meet with other teachers for prayer or Bible study to the same extent that they may engage in other conversation or nonreligious activities. Save the date: Wednesday, June 21st for the opening of 2017 Fortnight for Freedom: “Joy of the Gospel” at St. Bernard’s Church, Levittown. We’ll be meditating on illuminations of sacred scriptures. A preview of St. John’s Bible will take place at 6:00 PM in Parish Center. “Visio Divina—Seeing the Word” and Benediction will be at 7:00 PM in the Church. May Crowning the Bishop Barres

It was truly an inspiring mass. The Communicants were all beautifully dressed and led the mass impeccably. Bishop Barres spoke many inspiring words to the students. He spoke of Mary and the kind of person she was. He reminded the students to treat their siblings as Mary would, with kindness. He told them that holiness knows no age and children are called to be saints.

Bishop Barres thanked the parents for providing their children with a Catholic Education. He called all parents to action. He asked them to spread the word to family and friends about how important Catholic Education is. He encouraged them to share their positive experiences.

Ms. Graziose presented Bishop Barres with a basket of cards made by each student. The student’s card included a picture and a description of who they strive to be. The Bishop said he would pray over the cards and pray that their aspirations will be realized. He also attended the May Crowning Breakfast Event with the 2nd Grade families.

Thank you to our 2nd Grade teachers, Mrs. Cooke & Mrs. Ciano for all your hard work with the students! Also thank you to Bishop Barres and all our regional parish pastors for attending this special day!

Watching Father Adrian and the children interact brings to mind the song “There Are Angels Among Us.” When children answer gospel based questions, their answers are so direct, truthful, innocent, and undefiled. When asked how the Holy Spirit makes you feel, one child answered that it makes you want to pray. Yes, children are called to be saints, as Bishop Barres taught SEAS school children last Tuesday at the 9 AM mass. Come and see what our children are contributing to this parish at the 10:15 AM mass.

June 4th is the final hospitality Sunday of this school year. Please join us with your family and fellow parishioners as we celebrate the start of summer. If you would like to participate by bringing baked goods, let us know by e-mailing stbarnabasfamilyliturgy@gmail.com.

Please participate in the Family Liturgy by joining the Entrance Procession, reading scripture, singing or playing an instrument. For information or to sign up, email stbarnabasfamilyliturgy@gmail.com.

- Class sessions are offered on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 10AM to 11AM from September thru June at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Regional School.
- Our Time is an affordable way to introduce your child to the classroom environment without the worry of being separated. It allows for the child to be comforted with a parents presence and prepare for entering Pre-K.
- Our Time is taught by Mrs. Sabina Lamb. Mrs. Lamb is also the leader of the Family Liturgy Music Ministry for Saint Barnabas which performs at the 10:15 Mass.

It has been the history and tradition of St. Barnabas Vacation Bible School to take camp pictures of all the groups at VBS to send home as a memento. Sometimes we also take random pictures of the campers enjoying the different activities at VBS which we put on a display board for the families to see when they attend the VBS concert and we might also display with prior years pictures at future VBS sessions. Please note we will not list or label the camper's names just the group name – example the Sand Castles.
