MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

You may have experienced the gift of our Ministry of Consolation. These are volunteers who assist families in preparation for a funeral of a loved one. We meet with the family to help choose readings, hymns and gather other information for the funeral Mass. At the funeral Mass we welcome, help with seating and are there with the boxes of tissues where needed. We are in great need of new volunteers. If you are interested, phone the Rectory Office, 785-0054. Thank you.
Genesis Chapter 3 is one of the saddest chapters in the whole Bible. It records the tragic entrance of sin into the world. It’s the story of Eve and Adam who are sold a lie by Satan. Once they sinned, they lost their innocence and were filled with shame and embarrassment. The LORD God called to the man and asked him, "Where are you?" He answered, "I heard you in the garden; but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself." They felt guilty and they tried to hide from God. A guilty conscience is a warning signal from God.

Satan sold Adam and Eve the lie that by being independent of God they were being smart. But how sad and how foolish this is! They lost paradise itself. Ever since Adam and Eve disobeyed God, sin has been a sad fact in human experience. You do not need to teach a child to be selfish or proud or naughty. It comes naturally. You do have to teach a child to be good – to learn to be obedient and to learn to share with others. We cannot blame our environment or our upbringing or our heredity. Of course we are responsible for the choices we ourselves have made. God didn't make us like a computer – with everything programmed into it. Humans have free-will. He is not a machine. We are responsible beings able to make choices.

Notice what happened when God confronted Adam and Eve. He asked Adam, "You have eaten, then, from the tree of which I had forbidden you to eat!" Who did Adam blame? Yes, he immediately blamed his wife. "The woman whom you put here with me — she gave me fruit from the tree, and so I ate it." Adam was fully responsible. In fact, if he had been the man he should have been, he would have warned Eve not to listen to the evil one. And when God spoke to Eve who did she blame? Yes, she blamed the serpent. “The serpent tricked me into it, so I ate it.” We always like to blame others, don’t we?

Yes, things went terribly wrong when man listened to Satan and fell into disobedience and sin. Yet our loving God has made a way for us to recover the relationship we lost in the Garden through Jesus. The choice is ours – either to continue following the way of the evil one or to turn back to God.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today, Jesus looking around those seated in the circle, said, ‘Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.” To “do the will of God” demands interior detachment as we search to discern what God is asking of us. We must be willing to give up control, to step out of our preconceived plans, and stand in the freedom of accepting a “yes” or a “no”. It is not enough to do what God wants, but you must do it for the love of God. Don’t forget that it is the earth which revolves around the sun, not the sun around the earth. We must do the will of God according to the will of God - that is, to do it the way our Lord did the will of His Father when He was on earth. Let us remember the poor and needy when we pray, and to support St. Vincent de Paul so that we may care for God’s special friends.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion
Religious Persecution Worldwide - 2 Types: In North America and Europe we see a “Polite Persecution” through intimidation and legislation. In Asia and Africa we see more and more “Violent Persecution.” Polite Persecution: In Michigan, Fired for her Faith: A Catholic clinical social worker with 20 years experience providing individual psychological counseling to a diverse group of patients, was fired because she refused marriage counseling to a same-sex couple. Her supervisor said she had to be a “social worker first and a Catholic second.” Violent Persecution: Radicalized Hindus have increased violent attacks on the religious minorities of Muslims, Christians, Sikhs, and Buddhists. These range from arson of churches to priests beaten and killed, nuns raped, and the destruction of Christian schools, colleges, and cemeteries.

Thank you Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. Ciano, and all the parent volunteers that made the day great! Congratulations on your First Holy Communion to the 2nd Graders.
