The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. St. Barnabas Catholic Church cordially invites you to join us for Night of the Sacred Heart. It will be a beautiful candlelit evening, filled with adoration, contemplative worship, and Taize chant. Selected excerpts from the revelations and writings of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque will be read intermittently throughout the evening, and the sacrament of reconciliation will be available.

Whether you are looking to deepen your faith, or even if you haven’t been to church in years, you are invited to join us for an evening of quiet refuge and private prayer. Consider this evening as a mini-retreat for the weary pilgrim.

Night of the Sacred Heart will be held Friday, June 23rd from 7:30pm - 10:00pm at St. Barnabas Catholic Church, 2320 Bedford Avenue, Bellmore, New York 11710.

Last week we celebrated Pentecost Sunday, and it’s Trinity Sunday today. On this Sunday we’re called to celebrate not an event, but the doctrine that is the Trinity.

It was St. Athanasius in the 4th Century who offered a first attempt to define the Trinity. Here’s what Athanasius said:

“We acknowledge the Trinity, holy and perfect, to consist of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. It is a wholly creative and energizing reality, self-consistent and undivided in its active power, for the Father makes all things through the Word and in the Holy Spirit, and in this way the unity of the Holy Trinity is preserved. Accordingly, in the Church, one God is preached, one God who is above all things and through all things and in all things. God is above all things as Father, for he is principle and source; he is through all things through the Word; and he is in all things in the Holy Spirit.”

In other words, $1 + 1 + 1 = 1$. How can that be? Some time later St. Patrick used the three-leaf shamrock to explain it. He taught the Irish to see in the shamrock a window into the Mystery of the Trinity. All three leaves are from the same stem, yet they all are distinct from the other; they have their own identity and history, but all contain the same substance.

In early Church art the Trinity was first painted as a hand, a lamb, and the dove. The hand reflected the Creator action of God, the lamb, the redeeming action of God, and the dove, the empowering, purifying action of God. They also used three circles - three unending circles all touching each other, yet distinct and whirling around in their own orbit.

All of this might be a little confusing. St. Paul helps us when he closes his letter with a blessing: ‘The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.’ He teaches us think of the Trinity as ‘intimate relationship’ - three persons so united in love, they are One. And just as a loving, vital relationship goes on within God’s Person, so we should take our relationships very seriously. Jesus prayed, ‘Father, may they be in us, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they be one, so that the world will believe that you sent me.’

God is our seamless, complete, whole whom we worship in mystery - God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

Second Collection This Week
The Bishops of the United States approved a special one-time second collection for the Trinity Dome in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington D.C..
Your prayerful and financial support will not only adorn this “Crowning Jewel” and complete Mary’s Shrine, but will also leave a lasting legacy for generations to come.
The Society of St. Vincent De Paul
As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this, our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. Each time we make the sign of the cross when we pray we’re expressing our faith in the Trinity and our faith that the Trinity was revealed by Jesus on His cross. The mystery of the Trinity means that we have access to God all the time. We can turn to Him for help. For inspiration. All the time. May we live by God’s light and gifts of the Holy Spirit of Love and may your prayers and support continue to help those who are in need. Thank you.

Catholics For Freedom of Religion
Bibles Banned: “State of Libraries Report” for 2016: The Holy Bible finished 6th on the 10 most “challenged” books for schools and libraries. The other 9 books on the list contained demeaning sexual content. “That anyone would consider banning the Bible - a book that helped shape Western thought - from public libraries, whether in your school or neighborhood, is dangerously close to the very censorship the First Amendment is designed to prevent,” said First Liberty Institute senior counsel, Jeremy Dys. Save the date: Wednesday, June 21st for the opening of 2017 Fortnight for Freedom: “Joy of the Gospel” at St. Bernard’s Church, Levittown. We’ll be meditating on illuminations of sacred scriptures. A preview of St. John’s Bible will take place at 6:00 PM in Parish Center. “Visio Divina - Seeing the Word” and Benediction will be at 7:00 PM in the Church. Wednesday, June 28th, Fortnight Religious Freedom Rally, with keynote speaker, Bishop John O. Barres at Holy Trinity HS, Hicksville, 6:00 PM Rosary, 7:00 PM Program.

The Men of the Way of Light
In today’s second reading, Saint Paul implores us to “...encourage one another.” Sometimes, staying on the right path becomes difficult, especially if we think we are alone. Jesus tells us that we are never alone. “I am with you always, even until the end of the age.” (Mt 19:28) Join us on Saturday, June 17th, to discuss the real examples that Scripture gives us for supporting each other. We will be meeting in the Nazareth Room in the lower church immediately after the 8:00 AM Mass. Please join us for Christian fellowship and spiritual renewal (and a bagel breakfast!). If you can’t, please pray for our group. For more info contact Fred Kreuder: (516) 987-5350; email: stbampg@aol.com. Radio City Christmas Spectacular
We were recently contacted by Radio City inquiring if we were interested in tickets for the 2017 Christmas Spectacular. While we had a successful trip last year which all the participants greatly enjoyed, we barely were able to meet the minimum amount to make the trip feasible. We did go late in the month of December which may have been a contributing factor to so few people showing interest. If we were to do the trip again this year, it would be earlier in December. If you would be interested in participating in this trip in early December, please let us know. Also let us know how many people will be accompanying you. If 20 people express interest in going, we will go ahead with plans for the trip. Please call the rectory if you are interested at 516-785-0054.

Saint Barnabas - June 11

The patron saint of our Church, though not of the twelve, is nevertheless styled an Apostle by the early Fathers and by St. Luke. He was born in Cyprus and was first called Joses. After the Ascension of Christ, the Apostles changed his name to Barnabas, which St. Luke interprets, Son of Encouragement, on account of his ministering to the afflicted. The Acts of the Apostles relate that he sold his large estate and gave the price to the Apostles for the poor and lived in common with the primitive converts. He introduced St. Paul, three years after the latter’s conversion, to the Apostles Peter and James. Later St. Barnabas was sent from Jerusalem to Antioch to help establish the Church there. St. Paul joined him at Antioch and spent an entire year with him. Such was the progress of the Church there, that the name of ‘Christians’ was first given to the faithful in that city. In the year 51 they, St. Paul and St. Barnabas travelled to Jerusalem to attend the Council of Jerusalem. He ended his life with the crown of Martyrdom.
May the Lord preserve the members of our Army, National Guard, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Merchant Marine, Coast Guard and Peace Corps from all harm.

The Entrance Procession was led by children waving red streamers in celebration of Pentecost Sunday, marching to the song, “Let the Fire Fall.” Father Kevin gathered the children around the altar and explained that Pentecost is as big a celebration as Christmas and Easter because Pentecost is the birthday of our church. He explained the Tower of Babel in the Old Testament and all the confusion when people spoke in different languages as the opposite of the “Speaking in Tongues” that took place on Pentecost when everyone understood all the different languages of the visitors to Jerusalem. The first was led by man’s pride, but the latter was a direct result of the Holy Spirit. We held hospitality Sunday, the last one for this school year. Thanks to all who baked, pitched in to set up and clean up. If you are interested in having your child participate in the Music Ministry or the Jr. Lector Ministry, please e-mail stbarnabasfamilyliturgy@gmail.com.

It has been the history and tradition of St. Barnabas Vacation Bible School to take camp pictures of all the groups at VBS to send home as a memento. Sometimes we also take random pictures of the campers enjoying the different activities at VBS which we put on a display board for the families to see when they attend the VBS concert and we might also display with prior years pictures at future VBS sessions. Please note we will not list or label the camper's names just the group name – example the Sand Castles.
