They call me ‘father’ and my role is to relate to the parish as a father to a family. In this role I sometimes feel like the fathers of the little ones, the babies and 3 year olds, who glow with a sense of their ability to help mold these creatures God has entrusted to them. Often being a ‘father’ in the parish is like being the father of a ten year old who struggles with difficult questions and tough decisions. More often than not, I feel like the fathers of teenagers who are often struggling. Period. Just struggling.

What I think I have in common with all family fathers today is that we all want to be good fathers. As a single person, I admire all of you who are parents. Fatherhood is a tough job! Meeting your children in school and in the parish, they speak so highly of their dads. Most of you dads are doing a great job, better than you thought you were. You might take comfort in the musings of Samuel Clemens, also known as Mark Twain: ‘When I was a boy of fourteen, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be twenty-one, I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years.’

Jesus called God "Abba" which means Father or Dad, when he talked to God. And so we understand God as the Father. Which is to say Father with a capital F who really does know all and see all. A Father who is always there, never failing us. A Father in Heaven offering forgiveness and unconditional love. And that’s the goal of modern day fathers too.

Most dads struggle, but do a pretty great job. Perhaps it doesn’t take great wisdom to figure out that if we expect our fathers to be perfect, well, it’s not going to happen. But God in heaven does show us something of the model for perfect parenting, something about always being there, and probably something about forgiving fathers that haven’t quite managed perfection just yet. So here’s to all the dads: Well Done! Happy Father’s Day.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion
Truth vs. Relativism”: Jesus said, “...and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free...” (John 8:32) Veritatis Splendor (The Splendor of Truth), was written by Pope John Paul II in 1993 and revolves around man’s ability to discern good, the existence of evil, and the role of human freedom, human conscience and natural law. Pope John Paul II emphatically says that moral truth is knowable and there is no contradiction between freedom and following the truth. Much of our modern culture is based on a belief in relativism which says there is not absolute truth and that truth is merely what a particular individual or culture happen to believe. Veritatis Splendor insists that moral law is universal across people in varying cultures and is, in fact, rooted in the human condition and natural law.

The Men of the Way of Light
In today’s second reading, Saint Paul tells us that, “We walk by faith, not by sight.” I have a friend who is a great magician. I am always amazed at the tricks he performs. He will be the first to admit that there is no such thing as magic. His success depends on “tricking” our senses to see or not see what is really there. The world does that to us too! It tells us lies about what we are seeing and not seeing. Jesus tells us to not trust our senses, but to trust in Him through our faith. Faith is the unexplainable reason why we know something is true or not true. Faith allows us to work miracles when our intellect tells us that things are impossible! Please join the Men of the Way of Light as we discuss “Walking by Faith” at our next meeting on Saturday, June 23rd, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass, until 10:30 AM. We will meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel (lower church). Bagels and coffee served. For more information, visit our FaceBook page or pick up one of our cards displayed at the rear of the church.
The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel, Jesus says: “This is how it is with the reign of God. A man scatters seed on the ground. He goes to bed and gets up day after day. Through it all the seed sprouts and grows without his knowing how it happens.” Have you ever noticed how many parables of Our Lord center on the image of the growth of small seeds? These parables underline for us the need for patience. This is one aspect of the kingdom of God that Jesus describes in the parable of the growing seed. Let us sum up - God’s grace is a fine gift of life to us. Being a Christian means to be changed from one degree of glory to another degree of glory by the Holy Spirit into the image of the Son of God. By supporting St. Vincent de Paul you are sowing seeds that grow far greater than you know. Your gifts bring Christ’s love and compassion to the poor.

Field Day 2018 ~ Despite the rain we still had a great time! Student’s team work was on display as they played in a variety of events such as the field goal kick, basketball shoot out, and much more! We even finished the day out with team cheers and ices! Thank you to all the teachers and parent volunteers that helped make this SEAS tradition great!
MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

You may have experienced the gift of our Ministry of Consolation. These are volunteers who assist families in preparation for a funeral of a loved one. We meet with the family to help choose readings, hymns and gather other information for the funeral Mass. At the funeral Mass we welcome, help with seating and are there with the boxes of tissues where needed. We are in great need of new volunteers. If you are interested, phone the Rectory Office, 785-0054. Thank you.

If you wish to arrange a baptism, please contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. This meeting offers parents an opportunity to review the baptism ceremony and set the date. The meeting is more conversational than instructional. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic.

Baptisms are held on Saturday at 11:30 AM, and Sunday at 1:30 PM, when the Church is available.

If you wish to hold a private baptism you must bring a visiting priest to perform the baptism service. Private baptisms may be held on Saturday at 1:30 PM and 3:00 PM and on Sunday at 3:00 PM, if these times are available.

First time parents are required to attend a Baptism Class. Classes are held in the Holy Family Chapel on Agape Sunday, the second Sunday of the month. Crying babies and noisy children are welcome. We begin with Mass at 10:15 AM, when your baby will be welcomed to St. Barnabas, followed by refreshments and the class.

The dates for class are July 8, August 12 and September 9, October 14, November 11, December 9.
