A Warm Welcome to St. Barnabas

I am delighted to welcome Seminarian Cody Bobick to St. Barnabas for the Summer. He grew up in our neighboring parish of St. Frances de Chantal so should feel right at home here. Last week I received word that Bishop Barres has appointed Fr. Michael Ngoka, CM as associate pastor at St. Barnabas. He will arrive on August 31st. He is presently pastor of a parish in Abuja, Nigeria. In the meantime, we are very grateful to Fr. Francis for returning from Ghana to help again this Summer. He will reside here until August 2nd. Two other priests from Nigeria will also assist us this Summer. Fr. Nicholas Nnabuaku will be here in July and Fr. Patrick Abem in August. We are truly grateful for the help of all our visiting priests and we thank you for making our seminarian and visiting priests feel welcome at St. Barnabas.

Fr. Adrian

Hello

My name is Cody Bobick, a seminarian, and I am very grateful to have been assigned to St. Barnabas for the summer. While I will be living in the rectory and will be around on weekends, my assignment during the week is at the Hospital for Special Surgery in Manhattan where I work with the Dominican Friars Healthcare Ministry. I can certainly empathize with commuters now, since I take the LIRR and subway each day to get there :)

Just a little bit about me...I grew up in neighboring Wantagh. My home parish is St. Frances de Chantal. I graduated from MacArthur High School in Levittown in 2009 and then went on to study at Hofstra University. While in college, I was involved with the Newman Club and Catholic Campus Ministry. Mass on campus, Eucharistic adoration, Bible studies, the witness of holy priests, and a strong community truly nourished my faith and allowed me to discern that the Lord was calling me to the priesthood. A vocation to the priesthood is a great gift and mystery of God’s love, for which I am unworthy.

Thus far, I have spent six years in formation – five years of study (two years of philosophy and three years of theology) and one pastoral (internship) year at Our Lady of the Snow in Blue Point. I also spent two summers at Holy Family Parish in Hicksville. In the Fall, I will return for one more year of theological studies at St. Joseph’s Seminary in Yonkers and will be ordained a transitional deacon, God-willing, this November and a priest in June 2019.

I look forward to meeting you all in the weeks ahead. Please be assured of my heartfelt prayers for each of you and please continue to keep me close in prayer. God Bless!
In ancient times, eating and drinking together was more of a celebration than it is today. A meal was a sign of mutual trust and a kind of pledge to be friends. In politics today, when a head of state visits another country, they will have a state dinner or ceremonial banquet, not because they need to fill their stomachs, but they need to cement relationships.

The same is true of the Eucharistic meal. Our concern is not to fill our stomachs, but to cement relationships, with each other and with our Lord Jesus. When you think of memorable meals in your life, why do you remember them? I'll bet it's mainly because of the company. Perhaps you remember a date at a restaurant when you were given a ring. Or a wedding reception meal. Or a Thanksgiving dinner with special friends. Or a Christmas dinner with the family. What was most important was not the entree or dessert, but the sharing of laughter and tears and all that the years will bring. It's the ‘koinonia’ that's important, a word that means ‘fellowship.’

That's why our Lord Jesus instituted the Eucharist — so we can celebrate ‘koinonia,’ ‘fellowship,’ our shared faith and our shared love, and so we can feast, again and again, on the Source of that love. The word Eucharist means ‘giving thanks’ not only for daily bread, but most of all a thanksgiving for God's forgiveness of our sins, for the gift of our faith and our awareness of His love, for the gift of a mission and purpose in life, for the gift of a secure future, eternal life beginning now, and the gift of resurrection.

As we come together from our separate houses, separate careers, separate backgrounds and temperaments, we eat together to affirm koinonia, that we are family, brothers and sisters of Christ, fully and equally loved by Him.

What a blessing! What a privilege! We Catholics believe that the bread and wine becomes the literal flesh and blood of Jesus. It's a family feast! It's a state dinner! It's a wedding banquet, with Jesus as the host, and He says we're eating His body and drinking His blood! What could be more important than that?

The Holy Father —
Peter’s Pence
On Wednesday Bishop Andrzej celebrated the 9:00 AM Mass for the children and staff of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Regional School. Before Mass he met the children who had received their First Holy Communion this year. The children then presented the May Crowning of the Blessed Mother. At Mass the Bishop asked the children why we honor Mary? He reminded us that just as Mary welcomed Jesus into her life, we welcome Jesus into our life every time we receive Holy Communion. Ms. Graziose presented the Bishop with a collection of questions the children wanted to ask him. He promised to return again soon with all the answers.

Recommitment for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

This weekend, the Feast of Corpus Christi, we have a recommitment ceremony at all Masses for those who have volunteered to be Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion in St. Barnabas Parish. After the homily and before the Prayer of the Faithful, you will be invited to stand and respond ‘I AM’ to the following questions:

- Are you resolved to undertake the office of giving the body and blood of the Lord to your brothers and sisters, and so serve to build up the Church?
- Are you resolved to administer the Holy Eucharist with the utmost care and reverence?

As Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion your main focus is to distribute the Eucharist at Mass. Please find a substitute if you are unable to attend. This is especially important during the Summer months. Please remember that in distributing the Eucharist you are representing the Church, so please remember to dress appropriately. Dress should be modest and clean. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion also take the Eucharist to persons who are sick in hospitals, nursing homes and in their homes. The parish sincerely thanks you for your time and energy in helping others to receive Jesus in the Eucharist.

EMs, Lectors, & Altar Servers

Extraordinary Ministers, Lectors and Altar Servers have been sent via e-mail the ministry schedule for June. For those who do not have e-mail or have not provided their e-mail address, please pick up a copy of the schedule in the Altar Server’s Sacristy.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
Jesus’ identity as the suffering servant who obtained redemption for us “with His own blood” is truly the same as His mission - to give Himself without counting the cost, even if its cost is His very body and blood. The tremendous reality of our lives is that each day we receive a blood transfusion, and the blood is the blood of God. Each day we receive a new transfusion of life, and the life is the life of God. It would be a great grace indeed if God would give back to each one of us something of the wonder we once had when we received the body and blood of Jesus Christ for the first time. Moreover, when we have been strengthened by the body and blood of Christ, we are enabled to share new life with others. The Eucharist is the centerpiece of our lives, challenging us; our identity is our mission - self-giving. As we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us pray for those who are hungry, malnourished and starving.

Friendly Seniors
Starting Tuesday, June 5th, St. Barnabas Friendly Seniors will be meeting from 12:00 PM - 3:00 PM. This time is changed from 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM. Friendly Seniors meet on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month. For information, contact Margaret at 221-4974.

The Men of the Way of Light
Today we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi - The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. In last week’s Gospel, Jesus promised that, “I am with you always.” Today, we celebrate the fact that Jesus is physically with us through His presence in the Eucharist! Can we even comprehend that fact? Are we aware of the transforming power that the Eucharist can have on our lives if we let it? Recently, Pope Francis said, “Every time we take Communion, we resemble Jesus more...increasingly being transformed in Jesus and stripping away one’s selfishness by uniting oneself closer with Christ.” Please join the “Men of the Way of Light” at our next meeting on Saturday, June 16th, as we discuss the many ways that the Eucharist transforms our lives and gives us strength to do all the things that we never thought we could do! The Men of the Way of Light meet bimonthly on Saturdays in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel (lower Church) immediately after the 8:00 AM Mass. Bagels and coffee provided. If you cannot attend, please pray for our group and for our parish. For more information, contact Fred Kreuder at 987-5350 or email stbampg@aol.com. Visit our FaceBook page: “Men of the Way of Light - St. Barnabas Men’s Faith Discussion Group.”

Plans are being made to begin a Liturgy Committee here at St. Barnabas Parish. A liturgy committee’s work involves planning liturgies and activities related to liturgy. Representatives are needed from the existing Liturgical Ministers including Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, Lectors, Ushers, and Choir Members. In addition to the work of planning celebrations, subcommittees will be formed to enhance the liturgy here at St. Barnabas Parish. A good example of a subcommittee would be an environmental team which would help plan and execute the decorating of the church. If you are interested in the liturgy here at St. Barnabas and would like to participate or if you are a Choir Member, Usher, or Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist or Lector and would like to participate, please save the date Monday, June 11th at 6:30 PM in the rectory basement (St. Paul Room). Dinner will be served. Please RSVP by Wednesday, June 6th.

‘Tis the Season for GRADUATES! And, YES...Student Speakers May Pray! Colorado Mesa University has reversed its requirement that graduation speeches must be devoid of religious references after Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF) contacted them on behalf of a student who was told she needed to keep comments about Christ out of her planned speech. “It is...well established law (U.S. Supreme Court) that university officials cannot silence speech simply because it expresses a particular viewpoint, including a religious one,” wrote an ADF attorney. “I share the concern and frustration that many Americans feel about situations where the protections accorded by the First Amendment are not recognized or understood. Fr. Adrian,

Thank you for taking the time to recognize veterans at mass last night as we remember the fallen on this Memorial Day weekend. It’s nice to know our parish supports our military and remains connected to the sacrifices made by men and women, past and present, to defend our liberties. Memorial Day is a difficult day to “celebrate”, especially for those who have served in our military. It is different than all other holidays in that we are remembering death and the ultimate sacrifice paid by thousands of brave military men and women. It is a somber day for most Americans, but has a distinct, deeper meaning for those of us who have served. As a veteran, I would like to share with you another thought about Memorial Day. Memorial Day is also about “broken” relationships. As we remember those who died for their country, we also remember the child who grows up without a father, a parent who must live with the pain of burying their child, and the spouse who must raise his or her family without the support of their best friend.

I would like to offer you one way we can honor the sacrifices of those veterans who never made it home. Memorial Day is a reminder that life is short, and goes by quickly. All too often, it ends unexpectedly and way too prematurely. Sometimes we wait for the “right time” to address a problem or confront an issue. Sometimes that day never comes. There are countless veterans and their families whose relationships have changed forever, and impossible to change. But we can all make an effort to improve the relationships in our own lives. All relationships have ups and downs. Maybe we aren’t speaking with one of our siblings, or a parent. Maybe our relationship with our children or our spouse needs attention. Maybe we had a fight with our best friend years ago over something that seemed important at the time, but in hindsight is really a trivial matter. Memorial Day can be the reason we pick up the phone and call an estranged family member, or reach out to a friend with whom we’ve lost contact. It can serve as the catalyst to fix a relationship, as we remember the broken ones.

The older I get, the more I realize that time really does go by quickly. Life is too short. If Memorial Day prompts us to reach out to a loved one to heal a relationship, it will be a tremendous tribute to those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

Thank you for allowing me to share my thoughts with you on Memorial Day.

Sincerely,
Ed McGoldrick, Army Veteran

STEM @ SEAS ~ Here at SEAS we have been working hard to continue to grow and expand our STEM program! Seen here are the Pre-K and 6th Grade Prayer Pals working on two different STEM challenges. On the left students were asked to engineer a balloon powered airplane. On the right students were given the task of creating a variety of bubble makers. We even put the Principal in a giant bubble!

Vacation Bible School Photo Release form – must be included with registration.

It has been the history and tradition of St. Barnabas Vacation Bible School to take camp pictures of all the groups at VBS to send home as a memento. Sometimes we also take random pictures of the campers enjoying the different activities at VBS which we put on a display board for the families to see when they attend the VBS concert and we might also display with prior years pictures at future VBS sessions. Please note we will not list or label the camper’s names just the group name – example the Sand Castles.

If you wish to arrange a baptism, please contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. This meeting offers parents an opportunity to review the baptism ceremony and set the date. The meeting is more conversational than instructional. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic.

Baptisms are held on Saturday at 11:30 AM, and Sunday at 1:30 PM, when the Church is available.

If you wish to hold a private baptism you must bring a visiting priest to perform the baptism service. Private baptisms may be held on Saturday at 1:30 PM and 3:00 PM and on Sunday at 3:00 PM, if these times are available.

First time parents are required to attend a Baptism Class. Classes are held in the Holy Family Chapel on Agape Sunday, the second Sunday of the month. Crying babies and noisy children are welcome. We begin with Mass at 10:15 AM, when your baby will be welcomed to St. Barnabas, followed by refreshments and the class.

The dates for class are June 10, (10:30 Mass for July 8, August 12 and September 9), October 14, November 11, December 9.
