A PRAYER FOR OUR NATION
WRITTEN BY GEORGE WASHINGTON,
OUR FIRST PRESIDENT:

“ALMIGHTY GOD, WHO HAS GIVEN US THIS GOOD LAND FOR OUR HERITAGE: WE HUMBLY BESEECH YOU THAT WE MAY ALWAYS PROVE OURSSELVES A PEOPLE MINDFUL OF YOUR FAVOR AND GLAD TO DO
YOUR WILL. BLESS OUR LAND WITH HONORABLE INDUSTRY, SOUND
LEARNING, AND PURE MANNERS. SAVE US FROM VIOLENCE, DISCORD, AND CONFUSION; FROM PRIDE AND ARROGANCE, AND FROM EVERY EVIL WAY. DEFEND OUR LIBERTIES, AND FASHION INTO ONE UNITED PEOPLE THE MULTITUDES BROUGHT HITHER OUT OF MANY KINDREDS
AND TONGUES. ENDUE WITH THE SPIRIT OF WISDOM THOSE TO WHOM YOUR NAME WE ENTRUST THE AUTHORITY OF GOVERNMENT,
THAT THERE MAY BE JUSTICE AND PEACE AT HOME, AND THAT,
THROUGH OBEEDIENCE TO YOUR LAW, WE MAY SHOW FORTH YOUR PRAISE AMONG THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH. IN THE TIME OF PROSPERITY, FILL OUR HEARTS WITH THANKFULNESS AND IN THE DAY
OF TROUBLE, DO NOT ALLOW OUR TRUST IN YOU TO FALL; ALL THIS
WE ASK THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD.” AMEN!
Today we meet Jairus an important official. But Jairus was also a dad. A dad of a little girl who adored him, who crawled on his lap, a little girl who sang songs to him, wanted nothing more than to play with him. Now she’s grown to be fully 12 years old. And now, on the verge of womanhood, she’s dying. What dad, what parent for that matter, what person who has ever lost a love, for that matter, who in this world can read the story without sympathizing with him? Today we also meet a nameless woman, who was religiously unclean, as outcast as a leper. For twelve years she had been going to one quack after another who was happy enough to take her money and leave her broke, and always, always, bleeding. Every day this poor woman faced the harsh reality of her hopelessness. Who can read the story without empathizing with this woman? Both Jairus and this woman have something more in common — they have faith. Jairus came to Jesus in faith: ‘My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live.’ The nameless woman had faith, too; what did Jesus say to her? ‘Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.’ Whatever kind of faith it was that Jairus and that woman had, we want it too for ourselves and for our family. We want it for everyone in our Church who has a sick child or grandchild; for everyone whose body is starting to give out or started giving out longer ago than they care to remember. God gave them the gifts of assurance and conviction: assurance that Jesus could help them, conviction that He would. Somehow in faith they were able to see more than what flashed before their eyes. Jairus saw his daughter well again. The woman saw herself well again. Faith is what happens when God opens your eyes and you begin to see as God sees. So, when you look at someone whose body or spirit is broken, look where Jairus and the nameless woman looked: Look to Jesus, the pioneer and perfector of faith.

Food Pantry Weekend
This weekend is our Food Pantry Weekend. With schools closing for summer vacation and children at home, there is a greater need to keep our Food Pantry stocked. From now until Labor Day, we typically receive less donations with many on vacation. Unfortunately, hunger exists all year for many in our own community. To prevent a summer shortage, please help by donating some of these needed items: oatmeal, cookies, crackers, coffee, jell-o/pudding, condiments, canned fruit, sugar/sugar substitute, salad dressings, baby diapers - size 5, bar soap, shampoo/conditioner, toothpaste, paper towels, napkins, tissues, laundry detergent, dishwashing liquid, cleaning products.
Last month we helped feed 49 families. Many thanks for all you do for our needy neighbors.
Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and Altar Servers
July’s schedule is available in the Altar Servers’ Sacristy.

New Stop Signs
Please be advised - New stop signs were installed on the North and South sides of the intersection of Bedford Avenue and Marle Place. The parish and school extend their appreciation and thankfulness to our local representatives for their assistance in this matter. The new signage is intended to ensure the safety of our parishioners and children crossing over this busy roadway.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
In today’s Gospel, we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus answered his prayer. In prayer, we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering. Just as Jarius overcame his fears in order to encounter Jesus and receive life, so we must surrender our own wills in order to encounter Jesus and receive life. Living the paschal mystery is none other than our daily dying to self - overcoming our fears and reaching out to Jesus in humility - in all the little, practical ways that fill our daily routines. As children of God, we must constantly be convincing ourselves in prayer of the excessive love with which God has reached out and is still reaching out to us each day and each moment of the day. If we are not convinced that God loves us as we are, even with our frailties, it will be very difficult for us to show the love of God to others. Please pray for the poor and needy in the parish so that they experience the love and care of God.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion
The American Founders gathered in Philadelphia in 1776 to draft the Declaration of Independence, which dissolved the political ties that had bound the American people to Great Britain. A new nation was born, free and independent. The 56 signers required remarkable change since they knew they were committing treason against the British Crowne and that, if caught, they risked... torture and death. Ultimately, 5 were captured and brutally tortured as traitors, 9 others died from wounds, some lost sons to battle or capture, and many had their homes and property pillaged and burned, while still others lost their fortunes in helping to fund the Continental Army. These remarkable men of education and some means risked their security since they valued liberty more. “For the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.”

The Men of the Way of Light
In today’s Gospel, Jesus raises Jairus’ daughter, foreshadowing His own victory over death. As a parent, I can sympathize with Jairus. What parents would not do all they could for their child? I can imagine Jairus’ desperation, for his daughter was at the point of death. But his faith in Jesus gave him hope! Although Jairus receives word that his daughter had died, Jesus tells him, “Do not be afraid, just have faith.” We all have or will experience the loss of a loved one. Does that mean that our faith was not strong enough to save them? Or perhaps God saw that it was just time for them to receive their heavenly reward! Although earth IS beautiful, we can only imagine how much greater our joy will be in Heaven! We need to take Jesus’ word into our hearts. “Be not afraid, just have faith.” All men are invited to join the Men of the Way of Light as we discuss growing our faith at our next meeting on Saturday, July 7th, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass. We will meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel (lower church). Bagels and coffee served.

The meeting runs until 10:30 AM. For more information, visit our FaceBook page or pick up one of our cards displayed at the rear of the church.

Do you know a Senior who is about to graduate from High School?

It is that time of year again – graduation! As many of our teens move onto college, you can help them continue their journey of faith.

Many colleges, secular and parochial, provide a Newman Center for incoming Catholic students. These Centers provide pastoral support and ministry to students, in addition to providing a space to meet other catholic students interested in growing in their faith.

Please send graduate’s first and last name and college they will be attending via email to campusministry@drvc.org. The respective Newman Connection campus leader will be informed and will welcome the student when they arrive in the fall.
