11 meetings
That’s all!

We need your help

50 adults are needed to help facilitate 11 meetings of our new Confirmation Preparation Program called ‘Chosen,’ to be introduced in St. Barnabas in September. All meetings will be held in the Holy Family Chapel on Wednesday OR Thursday from 7 PM to 8:30PM.

Meetings begin with prayer, an activity, a TV presentation followed by small group discussion. Each small group will have 8 young members ONLY, from Level 7 or 8! ‘Chosen’ materials will be supplied. All you have to do is facilitate a conversation, with provided questions, around the night’s topic. Easy! Just 11 meetings (one and a half hours each) with eight students.

Please tick ONE Wednesday OR Thursday BOX that works for you.

Then fill in your name and details and return this form to St. Barnabas.

You know we wouldn’t ask you unless we believed YOU could do this!
Why can't people just love each other? That’s the kind of exasperation at the human condition that Jesus expresses in today’s parable of the Good Samaritan.

Was Jesus naïve or innocent of the ways of the world when he suggested this? His very telling of a story of a Levite and a priest walking away, two people who could be expected to care for the wounded and the downtrodden, tells us that Jesus was anything but ignorant of the way things really are. And yet, despite this knowledge, Jesus has the courage of his convictions to say that we are actually expected to live as people of love.

Failing to love our neighbors isn't always about being mean or uncaring or callous or rude. All too often, it's about the pull and tug of so many demands that we lose sight of the things that really should count. In fact, commentators on the Good Samaritan have long hypothesized that the priest and Levite were concerned about being ritually impure if they’d helped the wounded man, so that they would be unable to carry out their roles in the worship of the Temple, they would be unable to touch anyone else, even their own wives and children, for 14 days if they had stopped to help.

Others have suggested that they might be worried about their own safety, that the man in the ditch may have been a decoy and a band of outlaws was waiting in ambush. Whatever the case, these were not evil men. They did not intend to leave a man to die. They just had other things on their minds, they were in a hurry, they had other duties, other people were depending on them, someone else would look after him, surely.

When St. Paul wrote about love in the first letter to the Corinthians, that reading we so often heard at weddings, he wrote about love as a verb as well as an attitude — a love that would ensure that the important things in life would be attended to and the unimportant things shrugged off.

Hearing the story of the Good Samaritan, it is so easy to condemn the Levite and the priest for their coldness and uncaring. But instead, let us pray for ourselves, that our busyness, our hurriedness and our sense of all the demands that face us everyday will never keep us from our primary job of living the first and second most important commandments of them all. ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and all your soul and all your mind and all your strength. Love your neighbor as yourself.’

We need your help
Are you concerned about the decline in faith among younger people? Are willing to help pass on our Catholic faith to the next generation? If so, please consider becoming a facilitator in a new program that begins in St. Barnabas in September.

Called CHOSEN: A Journey Toward Confirmation it provides everything needed to prepare Level 7 and 8 students to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and to become lifelong disciples of Christ.

All too often we see teens drift away from the Church after Confirmation. Chosen seeks to reverse this trend by winning over the hearts of teens at a critical time in their lives and keeping them firmly planted within the faith community of the Church.

Chosen’s carefully designed methodology features highly effective and engaging material conveyed through videos, student workbooks, and classroom experience. Guides for leaders, parents, and sponsors - as well as additional online resources - make Chosen unlike any program available in the Church today.

Comprehensive. Relevant. Effective.
- Chosen calls teens to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ.
- Fully equips and prepares teens to receive the grace of Confirmation
- Visually stunning, fast-paced videos, filmed in more than fifty locations throughout the U.S. and internationally.
- Features twelve top youth experts presenting The Faith in new and unexpected ways.
- Effective methodology based on the RCIA model (i.e., pre-evangelization, evangelization, catechesis, and discipleship) and grounded in the Catechism and Scripture.
- Easy to implement, with step-by-step leader’s notes and flexible scheduling options.
- Connects with teens and inspires them on multiple levels - intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually.
- Rich offering of updated online resources, including downloads for a Retreat, Penance Service, Examination of Conscience, and more.

This is a new level of catechesis that uses modern methods to transmit eternal truths.

Parent & Child Program
For children ages 2-3 years old.

Our Time is a class where a child with a parent can become familiar with the classroom environment while singing songs, doing crafts, reading books, and celebrating God’s love together.

Class sessions are offered on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM from September thru June at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Regional School.

Our Time is an affordable way to introduce your child to the classroom environment without the worry of being separated. It allows for the child to be comforted with a parent’s presence and prepare for entering Pre-K.

Our Time is taught by Mrs. Sabina Lamb. Mrs. Lamb is also the leader of the Family Liturgy Music Ministry for Saint Barnabas which performs at the 10:15 AM Family Mass.

Space is limited!

YOUTH MINISTRY
Everyone’s heard the phase “a good Samaritan”. There are even new laws called Good Samaritan Laws. They require bystanders to assist people in need in certain situations. Today we hear the story of the Good Samaritan. Basically a man who was beaten up was bypassed by people who should have stopped to help him, either because of their position or their culture. He was assisted by the least likely of all, a Samaritan.

So what can this Gospel say to our youth? Are their people in your life that you may not be friends with? Maybe they are people from another town or another school. We don’t have to know someone to care about them. Maybe they are people from our school who are in a different group. Would we help them out if they needed it? It’s a great question to ask ourselves.

Now that it’s summer, who’s in our life that we can be a ‘good Samaritan’ to? Perhaps you have a summer job or are in camp. There might be someone who could use you to be that ‘good Samaritan’. God gives us these parables to teach those Jesus came in contact with, but also to teach us some lessons for our lives now! What can the story of the good Samaritan teach us?

A big thank you to Maria Gasparro Kotanides Girl Scout Troop 927 and her troop for fundraising and donating a TV for our new Youth Room! Have a blessed week! Peggy

Moses said to the people:
"If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.

"For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you.
Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.
Sing a new song unto the Lord;
let your song be sung from mountains high.
Sing a new song unto the Lord,
singing alleluia.

Yahweh’s people dance for joy.
O come before the Lord.
And play for him on glad tambourines,
and let your trumpet sound.

Rise, O children, from your sleep;
your Savior now has come.
He has turned your sorrow to joy,
and filled your soul with song.
(Dan Schutte)

Come! live in the light!
Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord!
We are called to be light for the kingdom,
to live in the freedom of the city of God!

We are called to act with justice.
We are called to love tenderly.
We are called to serve one another,
to walk humbly with God.

Come! Open your heart!
Show your mercy to all those in fear!
We are called to be hope for the hopeless,
so all hatred and blindness will be no more!

Sing! Sing a new song!
Sing of that great day when all will be one!
God will reign and we’ll walk with each other
as sisters and brothers united in love!
(David Haas)

One bread, one body, one Lord of all,
One cup of blessings which we bless.
And we, though many throughout the earth,
We are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free,
woman or man, no more.

Many the gifts, many the works,
one in the Lord of all.

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown,
gathered to one, for all.
(John B. Foley)

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
longing for their Lord,
for God’s coming kingdom shall be theirs.
Blessed are the sorrowing,
for they shall be consoled,
and the meek shall come to rule the world.

Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord,
by the light of truth
to seek and to find the narrow way.
Be my way; be my truth;
be my life, my Lord,
and lead me, Lord, today.

Blessed are the merciful,
for mercy shall be theirs,
and the pure in heart shall see their God.
Blest are they
whose hunger only holiness can fill,
for I say they shall be satisfied.

Blest are they who through their lifetimes
sow the seeds of peace;
all will call them children of the Lord.
Blest are you, though persecuted in your holy life, for in heaven, great is your reward.
(John Becker)
