Discipleship is the mission. We are disciples. Every one of us should be a disciple. In the reading from Mark we see Christ sending them out, two by two. The Church is not a social club, we are not a political party. Christ wants us to share in His ministry of compassion and healing. If we take Christ’s command to heart, we cannot just go through the motions of our faith, and not move ahead to touch other lives. We must live our religion. We must make our faith a religion of action, not just a faith of personal reflection. We must be agitators for compassion and healing. The mission of the twelve disciples, and the mission of the Church, consists in preaching the need for repentance. This type of preaching necessarily implies confrontation with evil. We will bear a cross if we confront evil, but have no fear. Christ prepares us to bear this cross. He tells how to arm ourselves. He wants his true disciples to travel light. He doesn’t want us burdened with material things. In our discipleship, Christ does not want us attached to comfort and luxuries. He wants us to travel light so that we’re possessed of only one care. That care is to teach. You say you can’t teach? You say you’re not a good speaker. You say you don’t know your faith well enough to teach. You say you can’t heal. What stops us from carry out our mission? What holds us back? What stops us from preaching repentance and healing the sick? Perhaps a hard heart, envy, anger, jealousy, greed, and addiction to luxury and comforts. Our mission is to be teachers to the whole world. To this purpose God would release us from our worldly cares, from our envy, our jealousy, and our hard hearts. He would make us free from gluttony and self-indulgence. As disciples he wants us possessed of only one care: to teach, to expel demons, and to heal our neighbors. We are all to be disciples. This is our mission. Let us press forward amid the persecutions of the world and the consolations of God.

Take Action:
Let your State Senator know you are against abortion expansion and codifying Roe v Wade. On the same day that President Donald Trump announced his nominee for the Supreme Court (Judge Brett Kavanaugh), New York State Governor Andrew Cuomo announced new actions to push through his Abortion Expansion Act and codify abortion laws in the state. According to a post on the New York State Catholic Conference's Facebook page, this will be an election issue, as Cuomo seeks to unseat pro-life state Senators who have prevented him from taking steps to expand abortion in New York. The Governor has called on the Senate to reconvene and vote on codifying Roe v. Wade into State law. The Assembly has passed legislation to codify Roe v. Wade for the last six years, including during the 2018 Legislative Session, but it has been rejected by the Senate. To support his efforts, the Governor has released a video ad calling on New Yorkers to urge their senators to "vote for Roe or we'll vote you out." It is important for those who oppose the Governor's agenda to also contact their senators and urge them to stand firm and not vote to codify Roe v. Wade and expand abortion in New York. Voters can visit the New York State Catholic Conference's Catholic Action Network or the New York State Senate's Find Your Senator page to send messages directly to their representative.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel, Jesus sends the apostles out on a mission - two by two. His instructions indicate that they are to stay focused on what they are to do. Everything they would do originates in Jesus and the power to stay focused on the mission and be successful comes only from Jesus who sent them. When disciples are sent on a mission it is to take up the mission of Jesus, and there is only one mission - to establish God’s reign. It is difficult in our glamorous age to hear the call of God. It is even more difficult to respond with trust that God will provide all that is necessary. Most difficult perhaps is to resist the temptation to desire the acceptance of men more than the acceptance of God. With our own power and talent we can do little; with authority with which Jesus invests His disciples we can do much. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs “two by two”, those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. If you know of anyone living in the parish that is in need of help, please call 785-6243. St. Vincent de Paul is waiting to help.

The Men of the Way of Light

In today’s second reading, Paul summarizes salvation history in 11 verses! This panoramic view spans the past (“...He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world…” 1:4), the present (“...He destined us in love to be His sons…” 1:5); and the future (“...a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in Christ, things in Heaven and things on earth.” 1:10). With a Bible reading that is so “packed” with information, I rely on a good resource like the Ignatius Catholic Study Bible or the Catholic Navarre Bible to help me sort through and understand the reading’s meaning. Both of these sources have over three pages of commentary and reference for just these 11 verses!
For example, the Navarre tells us that the Greek word translated as “chose” in verse 4 is the same word used in the Old Testament regarding God’s election of Israel! This insight provides great significance for each of us! We too are God’s chosen people, whether Jew or Gentile! Being familiar with the Mass readings in advance, and exploring the references and explanations in good Catholic sources has greatly enriched my understanding of Scripture. All men are invited to join the Men of the Way of Light as we explore and reflect on Sunday’s Scripture readings. Our next meeting is on Saturday, July 28th, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass. We will meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel (lower church). Bagels and coffee served. The meeting runs until 10:30 AM. For more information, visit our FaceBook page or pick up one of our business cards displayed at the rear of the Church.

Do you know a Senior who is about to graduate from High School?

It is that time of year again – graduation! As many of our teens move onto college, you can help them continue their journey of faith. Many colleges, secular and parochial, provide a Newman Center for incoming Catholic students. These Centers provide pastoral support and ministry to students, in addition to providing a space to meet other catholic students interested in growing in their faith. Please send graduate’s first and last name and college they will be attending via email to campusministry@drvc.org. The respective Newman Connection campus leader will be informed and will welcome the student when they arrive in the fall.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion
Free Speech Narrowly Upheld by the Supreme Court: In a 5-4 decision, the Supreme Court ruled in favor of pro-life pregnancy centers by holding that a 2015 California law requiring these centers to promote abortion clinics alongside their pro-life services violates the First Amendment.

“Advertising or promoting abortion runs directly counter to the very reason pregnancy centers exist - namely to enable and support women who want to choose life for their children. The government has no business forcing these centers to violate their First Amendment right to freedom of speech and, in doing so, work against their life-affirming mission,” said Family Research Council president. Justice Anthony Kennedy said the First Amendment bars compelling people to betray their beliefs. He wrote, “Governments must not be allowed to force persons to express a message contrary to their deepest convictions. Freedom of Speech secures freedom of thought and belief. This law imperils those liberties.” Many are concerned that the matter of protecting First Amendment, Freedom of Speech, was such a close decision.

Gracious God, hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life. In their loneliness, comfort them. In their sorrows, strengthen them. In their frustrations, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show them that they are needed by the Church; they are needed by souls; they are needed for the work of redemption. Amen.
