Word of Life
“Are not five sparrows sold for two small coins? Yet not one of them has escaped the notice of God. Even the hairs of your head have all been counted. Do not be afraid. You are worth more than many sparrows.”
~ Luke 12:6-7

Please Pray For The Repose Of The Souls Of The Recently Deceased
Frederick R. Black, Florence M. Del Giorno, and Marylin Fazio
When taking up the position of pastor, a priest colleague advised me to give my empty suitcases to a friend to keep for the first month – in case of being tempted to repack and run away! For sure there are many challenges ahead, but I can truly say I am very happy to make St. Barnabas my home. Anyway repacking is purgatory!

We live in a rectory, and from the stories I have gathered, it seems that when rectory life goes well it is pretty good … but when it goes poorly it is really, really, REALLY bad. At 2320 Bedford Ave. we are blessed to have a truly international rectory - reflecting the international nature of our Church. Last weekend another international priest, Fr. Andrew Berinyuy from Cameroon, Central Africa, came to visit. He is a missionary of the Order of the Pious Schools (Piarist Fathers), a religious order founded in the 17th century by Saint Joseph Calasanz (1557-1648). For over four centuries their mission has been to educate children, especially the poor. Fr. Andrew spoke at all Masses of their belief that a good education can transform individuals and society. He spoke of basic needs for books for classrooms; of a child’s annual tuition costing $21; and of a teacher’s monthly salary being $50. Your response to his appeal was astounding. Your reputation as a generous parish is real! If you still want to make a contribution please mark your donation ‘Propagation of the Faith’.

Being an international Church is not something for which we need to apologize. It is our strength. It challenges us to not only look up to God together, but also to look around the world and support those who share our Catholic faith, and those who have not yet heard the Gospel. The four marks of Church are that we are one, holy, catholic and apostolic. The missionaries of today not only go to foreign lands - they also live their faith here in the public square.

~ Fr. Adrian

Mother, Teacher, Family: The Nature and Role of the Church
Many people, especially today, face painful situations resulting from poverty, disability, illness and addictions, unemployment, and the loneliness of advanced age. But divorce and same-sex attraction impact the life of the family in different but powerful ways. Christian families and networks of families should be sources of mercy, safety, friendship and support for those struggling with these issues.

We are in the process of planning the Religious Education year for September 2015. We are always in need of adults to help. Please consider helping by teaching a class, being a substitute, or helping by being a hall monitor. Please don’t assume that someone will step forward to help – YOU are that someone. REMEMBER ALL VOLUNTEERS NEED TO ATTEND A VIRTUS TRAINING as well as have all the necessary volunteer forms submitted. If you have any questions on the VIRTUS training or need assistance finding a training session please call Margie Lampert at the Office of Christian Formation – 785-0130.

We are currently looking for Adults to work either with a child who needs a one-on-one teaching experience or a small group of children who need smaller class learning experience. Please come share your love of our Faith with children who find it difficult to be placed in typical classroom situation.

The best way to keep informed is by reading the Church bulletin each week. If you forget to pick one up you can always read the bulletin on-line on the parish website – www.stbarnabasny.org. Once in the parish website you can click on the Religious Education website to keep up to date on what’s happening in the Religious Education Program and have access to the forms and information for our program.
Hi everyone!
This is the page for St Barnabas Life Teen.
I’m Peggy Harnisch your Youth Minister!!

Hi Everyone,

Last week I suggested we look at what we are doing to keep our faith alive during the quiet summer months. Today’s Gospel from Mark talks about Jesus, upon hearing about the work of the Apostles, suggests that they go off for some quiet time to rest. I don’t know about you, but for many of us, summer can be a pretty busy time. There are so many more BBQ’s and vacations, but now our teens are participating in more sports during the summer than ever.

The idea to take some time and rest is important for all of us. Many of our youth have finished demanding school years and need that time. Many of us as adults need to rest too. In Youth Ministry we’re taking some time to rest and recharge to move forward.

An interesting thing from the Gospels is that fact that when Jesus mentioned rest He went to pray, He always went off by himself or with just the Apostles. It’s important that we are by ourselves for some time of prayer and reflection. Jesus also took pity on the crowds that gathered and went to teach them. To me that says that even though we need that time of rest, we need to fit it in within our lives and responsibilities. It also reminds us that God is there for us when we need Him, just as he was for the people of his time.

Have a blessed week!

Peggy
