“SO I SAY TO YOU:
ASK AND IT WILL BE GIVEN TO YOU;
SEEK AND YOU WILL FIND;
KNOCK AND THE DOOR WILL BE OPENED TO YOU.
10 For everyone
who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the doors will be opened.”

Bible Basics for Catholics
From biblical scholar Dr. John Bergsma — two-time "Teacher of the Year" from Franciscan University of Steubenville, OH — comes this fresh, fun, and authentically Catholic introduction to the "big picture" of salvation history.

Born Fundamentalist, Born Again Catholic
David Currie has written what may turn out to be the work on this nettlesome topic of Evangelicals being received into the Catholic Church.

Render Unto Caesar
Few topics in recent years have ignited as much public debate as the balance between religion and politics. The very heart of these questions are here addressed by one of the leading voices on the topic, Charles J. Chaput, Archbishop of Philadelphia.

By What Authority?
In this popular work of apologetics, Mark Shea presents a lively and entertaining look at his conversion to Catholicism from Evangelicalism and his discovery of Christian Tradition.

Did Jesus Really Rise From the Dead?
Movies such as Risen and books such as Bill O'Reilly's Killing Jesus raise questions about what really happened to the crucified body of Jesus of Nazareth. Carl Olson examines the historical evidence.

Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About Heaven
Peter Kreeft provides a look at the nature of Heaven that offers all readers a refreshingly clear, theologically sound, and fascinating glimpse of that "undiscovered country."

The Faith for Beginners
Faith for Beginners is a fascinating romp through the history of the Creeds, closely examining what we believe and why— with references to Scripture, the Church Fathers, and Church councils.

Gangland to Promised Land
He was a serious "face" in London's East End. His jackets were tailored to hold his machete and knucklebusters. His drug deals made him wealthy. He nearly killed a man outside a nightclub, but then something extraordinary happened...

A Father Who Keeps His Promises
Dr. Scott Hahn explores the "covenant love" God reveals to us through the Scriptures. God reaches out to us - despite our faults and shortcomings.
Part of being a priest is that people often tell us their troubles. Sometimes they just want someone to talk to. Sometimes, they want someone to pray. Why do we pray? What is prayer all about? What's the point of prayer? After all we say that God knows our needs before we ask so why bother asking?

Well, if anyone would know whether prayer is worthwhile, it would be Jesus? He could have said to his disciples, ‘Oh, don't bother praying. God knows what you need and desire, so just leave it in the divine hands and get on with dedicating your whole lives to building the kingdom.’ But he didn't say that. Instead, he gave us a prayer we still say together every week, and that many of us say at least once a day — Our Father.

For whatever reason, God wants our prayers. If we are to have a true, living relationship with God, we must stay in touch. But, what about those who are not healed, those who die? How many of us have asked the Lord for a fish, and been handed a snake?

When C.S. Lewis married his wife Joy, their happiness was short-lived when they discovered that she had cancer. Lewis prayed. A friend, a fellow university professor, asked why he prayed. And Lewis answered that he simply had to pray, that he could not do anything but pray. In his helplessness, praying brought him some peace. His prayers, he said, did not change God. But they did change him. Prayers changing the prayer-er.

Remember the scene in the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus prayed. He was in trouble. He asked that the cup of suffering that he was about to taste be taken from him. But he ended his prayer with, ‘Not what I will, but what you will.’ And when the soldiers arrived with Judas to arrest him, he seemed to be reconciled to what must happen. His fear and sadness were changed by his prayers into strength and determination to see things through to the bitter end.

Today’s gospel ends. ‘How much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask.’ We may be praying for an end to wars in the world, we may be praying for healing for someone who is terminally ill, we may be asking that it's not me who will be laid off in the latest round of ‘right-sizing’ at work. But what God ultimately gives to God's people is the gift of the Spirit, the gift of God's presence with us. In this world, there is evil and suffering and death. But we are gifted with the Spirit of God to help us get through all of that.

And God's Spirit does change us. We cannot truly pray for peace in the world without then going out into the world and acting peaceably. We cannot truly pray for peace in our families and then provoke a fight. We cannot truly pray for governments to do God's will and then vote without taking our faith into account as we do so, or not bother to vote at all.

Prayer gifts us with God's Spirit. God's Spirit living in us strengthens us through the trials of our lives, and makes us more deeply aware of the blessings we have been given.

And God's Spirit living in us helps us to pray, Thy will be done.
Fr. Charles celebrated a significant birthday this week! Like reaching the half-time of a game, this is a time to be grateful for what was — and to look forward to what is ahead. We thank Fr. Charles for offering his priestly ministry to the people of St. Barnabas Parish and we wish him continued health and joy in his life and ministry. The size of the cake is no reflection of our appreciation of him but of his desire to keep his birthday ‘low key!’ This picture in today’s Bulletin will be a surprise for him! Be sure to wish him a Happy Birthday when you see him. However, don’t tell him I told you!

St. Vincent de Paul Society
In the gospel, Jesus teaches us that god is our “Father” and just as a parent’s love for their children is unlimited, so is God’s love and care for us unlimited. With your donations to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are showing the poor and needy that God loves them and that he is indeed their “Father”. If you know of anybody in the parish please call our Social Ministry at 785-6243. Please pray for the poor and needy.

Save Saturday, September 24th  for the Friends of the Poor Walk. The St. Barnabas St. Vincent de Paul Society will take part in the walk at Bethpage Community Park, 1001 Stewart Avenue, Bethpage, (Look for the Town of Oyster Bay Ice Skating Center). Put on your sneakers and walk with us as we become God’s feet, walking to end poverty one step at a time. Watch the bulletin for more information. Keep the poor in your prayers.

Friendly Visitor Program
Our St. Vincent de Paul Society is introducing a new program for our homebound seniors and those disabled in the community who would enjoy a visit from one of its members. If you or someone you know is interested and would enjoy the company of a friendly visitor please call the Social Ministry Office at 785-6243.

Back to School
It has been a long tradition here at St. Barnabas to assist families with back to school needs for the new school year. The children are in need of backpacks and the supplies to fill them. Some of those items include: notebooks, (spiral & marble), loose leaf, binders, folders, pens, pencils, crayons, markers, sharpies, highlighters, rulers, compasses, glue sticks, index cards, scissors, sharpeners, pencil boxes, scotch tape and construction paper. Any donation of supplies, or gift cards would be so helpful to many of our families. Gift cards to Payless shoes would be another way of assisting with the many back to school expenses. We will start our collection now through the month of August. Please leave your donation in the back of the church, or bring it to the rectory. As always, on behalf of those we serve, thank you for your generosity and support.

Gennesaret Retreat

Gennesaret Retreat for those facing serious illness. A retreat especially designed for persons who live with a serious illness is planned for September 23rd, 24th, 25th at the Montfort Spirituality Center in Bay Shore. This retreat offers a respite, a quiet time, an oasis, to enable one to continue the journey. The retreat focuses on God’s love, His forgiveness, and His faithfulness. To register or receive more information about this weekend, please call: Colette Fanelli (631)665-7052.

RCIA

Are You Considering Becoming Catholic? Are You A Catholic Interested In Being Confirmed? Join Us For RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, or RCIA, is a series of classes that present an adult exploration of the Catholic faith. RCIA is a chance for people to learn the basics of what it means to be Catholic, to ask their burning questions, and to seek ways to more fully open their lives to Jesus Christ.

When: The RCIA group meets every Wednesday evening from September to Easter. This is the primary time commitment, and there may be other commitments depending on what part of the process you’re going through.

How to Signup: Call the rectory and leave a message for Terry Hubert.

Catholic High School Entrance Exam

We need your help

Are you concerned about the decline in faith among younger people? Are willing to help pass on our Catholic faith to the next generation? If so, please consider becoming a facilitator in a new program that begins in St. Barnabas in September.

Called CHOSEN: A Journey Toward Confirmation it provides everything needed to prepare Level 7 and 8 students to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and to become lifelong disciples of Christ.

All too often we see teens drift away from the Church after Confirmation. Chosen seeks to reverse this trend by winning over the hearts of teens at a critical time in their lives and keeping them firmly planted within the faith community of the Church.

Chosen’s carefully designed methodology features highly effective and engaging material conveyed through videos, student workbooks, and classroom experience. Guides for leaders, parents, and sponsors - as well as additional online resources - make Chosen unlike any program available in the Church today.

Comprehensive. Relevant. Effective.

- Chosen calls teens to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ.
- Fully equips and prepares teens to receive the grace of Confirmation
- Visually stunning, fast-paced videos, filmed in more than fifty locations throughout the U.S. and internationally.
- Features twelve top youth experts presenting The Faith in new and unexpected ways.
- Effective methodology based on the RCIA model (i.e., pre-evangelization, evangelization, catechesis, and discipleship) and grounded in the Catechism and Scripture.
- Easy to implement, with step-by-step leader’s notes and flexible scheduling options.
- Connects with teens and inspires them on multiple levels - intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually.
- Rich offering of updated online resources, including downloads for a Retreat, Penance Service, Examination of Conscience, and more.

This is a new level of catechesis that uses modern methods to transmit eternal truths.

Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.,
Archbishop of Philadelphia
Your response is amazing!

Thank you to all those who have volunteered to help prepare young people in our new Confirmation program called ‘Chosen.’ We asked adults in their 20’s and 30’s to commit to spend 11 evenings in the Holy Family Chapel facilitating a group of 8 young people. The response has been so positive. If YOU are interested please fill in this form and return it to St. Barnabas. All meetings will be held on Wednesday OR Thursday from 7:00 to 8:30PM. Meetings begin with a prayer, an activity, a TV presentation followed by small group discussion. Each small group will have 8 young members, from Level 7 or 8! ‘Chosen’ materials will be supplied. All you have to do is facilitate a conversation, with provided questions, around the night’s topic. Easy! Just 11 meetings (one and a half hours each) with eight students.

What is Conscience?

In Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship (no. 17), the Catholic Bishops of the United States Conscience remind us:

“The Church equips its members to address political and social questions by helping them to develop a well-formed conscience. ...Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere "feeling" about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good while shunning what is evil.”

Conscience is a judgment of practical reason that helps us to recognize and seek what is good, and to reject what is evil (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1778, 1796).

The Second Vatican Council wrote: “Always summoning [one] to love good and avoid evil, the voice of conscience can when necessary speak to [one’s] heart more specifically: do this, shun that” (Gaudium et Spes 16).

Conscience does not simply “come to us”! Throughout our lives, we have to spend time forming our consciences so that we can make well-reasoned judgments about particular situations.

How Do I Form My Conscience?

As the bishops note in Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, we need to form our consciences in an ongoing manner.

How do we do this?

1) When examining any issue or situation, we must begin by being open to the truth and what is right.

2) We must study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.

3) We must examine the facts and background information about various choices.

4) We must pray forfully reflect to discern the will of God (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 18).

The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults adds:

5) The prudent advice and good example of others support and enlighten our conscience.
6) The authoritative teaching of the Church is an essential element.

7) The gifts of the Holy Spirit help us develop our conscience.

8) Regular examination of conscience is important as well (p. 314).

When he listens to his conscience, the prudent man can hear God speaking.

1778 Conscience is a judgment of reason whereby the human person recognizes the moral quality of a concrete act that he is going to perform, is in the process of performing, or has already completed. In all he says and does, man is obliged to follow faithfully what he knows to be just and right. It is by the judgment of his conscience that man perceives and recognizes the prescriptions of the divine law.

Reflections on Conscience Formation

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church

1784 The education of the conscience is a lifelong task. From the earliest years, it awakens the child to the knowledge and practice of the interior law recognized by conscience. Prudent education teaches virtue; it prevents or cures fear, selfishness and pride, resentment arising from guilt, and feelings of complacency, born of human weakness and faults.

The education of the conscience guarantees freedom and engenders peace of heart.

1785 In the formation of conscience the Word of God is the light for our path,3 we must assimilate it in faith and prayer and put it into practice. We must also examine our conscience before the Lord’s Cross. We are assisted by the gifts of the Holy Spirit, aided by the witness or advice of others and guided by the authoritative teaching of the Church.4

3Cf. Ps 119:105. 4 Cf. Dignitatis Humanae 14.

Parent & Child Program
For children ages 2-3 years old.

Our Time is a class where a child with a parent can become familiar with the classroom environment while singing songs, doing crafts, reading books, and celebrating God’s love together.

Class sessions are offered on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM from September thru June at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Regional School.

Our Time is an affordable way to introduce your child to the classroom environment without the worry of being separated. It allows for the child to be comforted with a parent’s presence and prepare for entering Pre-K.

Our Time is taught by Mrs. Sabina Lamb. Mrs. Lamb is also the leader of the Family Liturgy Music Ministry for Saint Barnabas which performs at the 10:15 AM Family Mass.

Space is limited!
