Prayer for Peace
Lord Jesus Christ, who are called the Prince of Peace,
Who are yourself our peace and our reconciliation,
who so often said ‘Peace to you’, Grant us peace!
Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice and brotherly love.
Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.
Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.
May all peoples of the earth become as brothers and sisters.
May longed-for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all. AMEN

Mary, Queen of Peace, Pray for us!

My dear Parishioners,

“Give thanks to the Lord, His love is everlasting.”

How beautiful are these words and what a joy to pray them with you—not just on Sunday, June 21 at our special Mass of Thanksgiving, but the whole five wonderful years we have shared together!

Our parish family is so faith-filled, hope-filled and resilient. It is so filled with God’s Love.

Let us continue to build on these precious gifts we have shared and grown together with as a parish family.

THANK YOU for ALL your beautiful cards and notes...especially your notes! I so enjoyed them. “Retirement” certainly has beautiful cards for its celebration and so happy to be a recipient of so many of them!!

THANK YOU, so very much, for all of your gifts enclosed within your beautiful cards and notes. I am truly grateful for all of them!

Our Mass on June 21 was so wonderful to celebrate together. What a wonderful reception followed Mass for us and with you I thank all those who provided our reception for us...all of those great “behind the scene” people who do so much for us!

Let us continue our oneness in our prayer and love for each other.

As I shared some verses and prayers of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton at our Mass, I’d like to share a few more with you. (continued on next page)

St. Elizabeth Seton loved to walk along the beach and collect shells. Many hours were spent at the seashore and we benefit from her prayers that came from many of those walks….like the following ones:

“I can easily suppose how great your enjoyment must have been on once more - hearing the dash of the waves and feeling the renovating breeze…..”

and

“…delight to sit alone by the water side –
...wandering hours on the shore humming and gathering shells....with thoughts of God and heaven.”

I hope to be sure to enjoy such delights in my retirement, spending it as a retreat with the Lord!
“Give thanks to the Lord, His love is everlasting!”

Much love and God bless,

Mother, Teacher, Family: The Nature and Role of the Church
Many people, especially today, face painful situations resulting from poverty, disability, illness and addictions, unemployment, and the loneliness of advanced age. But divorce and same-sex attraction impact the life of the family in different but powerful ways. Christian families and networks of families should be sources of mercy, safety, friendship and support for those struggling with these issues.

Mass Memorials

If you have memorialized a weekday Mass please sit at the break of the Church on the Tabernacle side in order to present the gifts at communion. If no one has signed up to bring up the gifts, or is seated at the break during the week, before Mass begins, an usher will ask a member of the congregation to present the gifts.

Protecting God’s People
Together we protect the children of God and all God’s people. We are the eyes and ears of the outreach of the Church to care for and protect all God’s people. As the signs in the subway say, “If you see something, say something” could well be the motto of our program to care for our children. For your information, the Diocesan Abuse hot line is 594-9063. For information on the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People you can contact Mary F. McMahon, LCSW at the diocesan office 678-5800 ext. 573 or our pastor.
America is the family all of us belong to, and what better time to reflect on its history as well as its future. Let us look back proudly on the sacrifices so many good people made to overcome the trials and tears of time.

Let us look around gratefully at the many ways they found to make a better world for us and for our children. Let us look ahead confidently to opportunities that await us and to problems that are ours to solve...

And let us remember always that we are members of a family worth loving and preserving, a family to be proud of and thankful for every day of our lives...

Hi everyone!
This is the page for St Barnabas Life Teen. I’m Peggy Harnisch your youth minister!!

Hi Everyone,

Happy Independence Day weekend! This has become popular in our society as a day or weekend of barbeques and going to the beach. It’s a great way to celebrate, but let’s take a look at what this freedom means to us as Catholics. Our country was founded to give us our freedom from another country. Since that time we have fought for freedom in many places. Even today, people want freedom to do what they want and we see this regularly.

One of the greatest freedoms we share is the freedom of religion. Sometimes I think we may take this for granted - especially our youth. Many in our society look down on religion and those who practice their faith. While we celebrate freedom in this country, we need to remember that we have the freedom to practice our religion. In many parts of the world this is not true and people cannot even be Catholics openly. This is something to be proud of here.

It’s also a great time to look at how we practice our faith. Do we proudly practice our faith? Is it just something we do, not thinking about what it means? Let’s take some time this weekend and remind ourselves that we have the right to practice our faith and to be proud of who we are as Catholics, no matter what society wants us to do, it’s probably what Jesus would do!

Have a blessed week!

Peggy
