Let there be peace to all those who enter into this dwelling. I said this prayer as I entered the rectory on June 26th my first day as the pastor. Peace to this household are the words of our Lord in today’s Gospel. As Christians, we bring the peace of Jesus Christ to all that we meet. In these first days that I have been with you, I have received an outpouring of love, and I truly feel welcomed by you as your pastor. Truly, I have received the peace of Christ through you.

I must say that you have a beautiful parish. I am not referring to only the parish grounds, the magnificent Church which is breathtaking but also to the peace of Christ that you exude. I learned from my brother priest that this church was the first to be built by the first bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, Bishop Walter Kellenberg. Bishop Kellenberg wanted to have the first church that he built to be magnificent in size and beauty. He achieved his goal!

The garden of our Lady facing Bedford Avenue is one of the many places to pray in the parish. As I sat on the bench and prayed, I saw the entire parish grounds in front of me with our Lady being at the very front of the property. I am sure it will be a place where I go often to pray. May our Lady watch over our parish, as she watches over the universal Church.

The sacred image of Mother and Child hanging on the left entrance of the Church is absolutely breathtaking. Its sheer size which is larger than life and its quality must have been very expensive to make, yet it’s all worth it for God’s glory. It is set up perfectly so you can say a quick Hail Mary and greet our Lady as you enter the parish Church.

All in all, this parish certainly does exude the peace of God. This peace is not referring to a peace from the absence of violence and affliction. True peace exudes God’s love and mercy, which transcends anything that is happening in this world and is more powerful than any force of evil. As an example, a modern saint Maximilian Kolbe was a prisoner in the most evil of all places, Auschwitz. Yet in the midst of absolute evil, this holy man of God still exuded the love of Christ and it spread to his fellow inmates and even to the guards. Peace to this Household! In my four years as a priest, which have been the happiest years of my life, I have made it a point through the example of my pastor to be available to you. If you need the sacraments, I am here. If you need someone to talk to, I am here. If you simply need a blessing or a prayer said over you, I am here. It is my prayer that I also give you the peace of Christ as I receive it from you.

I hope you had a blessed 4th of July this past Thursday. We give thanks to our military and government leaders for all that they do in service to our country. Praying for our country, our president, our government leaders, and our military is a duty that we have as Christians. May our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, the Patroness of the United States, watch over our nation and pray for the salvation of our country.

In Jesus and Mary,

Father Jeff Yildirmaz

Focus on Religious Freedom

“Religious thinking, religious questioning and religious faith permeated the Revolution and the Founding,” wrote world history author, H. McDougal. “The American cause was profoundly religious for Protestants and Deist alike because both identified America’s future with Providential (God) design…” “The evangelical tradition (fueled by the preachers of the First Great Awakening) supplied spiritual propulsion to the Patriotic ideology,” wrote historian T. Kidd. Most of the nations 55 Founders were openly religious, believing that “true Religion and good Morals are the only solid foundations of public liberty and happiness”. Samuel Adams

“Samuel Adams was the archetype of the religiously passionate American founder...an apostle of liberty...a man of deep religious conviction whose confidence, zeal, and endurance in the struggle for freedom were grounded in a belief that an intervening God was on his side,” said history professor S. Stoll. After signing of the Declaration of Independence, Adams wrote: “We have this day restored the Sovereign to whom alone men ought to be obedient. He reigns in Heaven, and with a propitious eye beholds his subjects assuming that freedom of thought and dignity of self-direction which He bestowed on them. From the rising to the setting sun, may His kingdom come!” “And for the support of this Declaration, with firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.” The final line of the Declaration of Independence.

—Kasey K., Old Monroe, MO
Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel the disciples are “sent ahead” of Jesus, not so much with a mission to do, but to be ambassadors for Jesus. The respect and honor that is due Jesus are extended also to Jesus’ disciples and this is how God’s kingdom is “at hand”. In the Gospel today, we see how Jesus sent His Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members “go out two by two” to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. We do everything because we are disciples of Jesus and act in His name. It is Christ’s presence through us that peace and joy are spread. Know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in our parish.
