The little village of Nazareth where Jesus grew up was tiny, no more space than a football field. Everybody knew everybody in Nazareth. People would have known his mother Mary as a neighbor and would have known Joseph as He worked at his trade in the carpenter shop. Perhaps Jesus had built a piece of furniture for them or replaced a handle on one of their favorite tools or made a yoke for their oxen. After all, He did not begin His ministry until He was about thirty years old. For most of His adult life He labored as a carpenter or builder. You can imagine how these people responded when suddenly Jesus proclaimed Himself to be the One prophesied by the prophets. We hear in today's gospel that His fellow countrymen began to grumble about Jesus because He said that He was the bread that came down from heaven. They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can He say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

We can appreciate their disbelief for we have done the same thing to people. We put them in a box. We assign them to a category. We know where they came from, we know who their parents are, we know where they went to school, we can tell by their accent or by their appearance about their background and we make certain assumptions. And because we make those assumptions, we treat them in a certain way. None of this is intentional of course. We may not even be conscious of it. It simply saves our brains the time and energy of sorting out people individually. So, we sort them out by category. That is what the folks in today's text were doing: "We know who you are. You're from Nazareth." Because they laughed at Jesus they missed the whole point of Him being Bread from heaven. They laughed and missed knowing the Christ as bread for life. Be careful when you judge another.

Give Us This Day
We invite you to pick up a complimentary copy of a wonderful monthly pray publication called Give Us This Day. A limited number of copies of the September edition are available this weekend in the Church. We love this publication and can tell you from personal experience that whether you have only a few minutes, or a half hour, ‘Give Us This Day’ will support your desire to prayer.

Priests for the Summer
Fr. Patrick from Nigeria will be here until the end of August. Welcome Fr. Patrick! At the end of August our new associate, Fr. Michael Ngoka, CM will arrive. He is presently pastor of a parish in Abuja, Nigeria.

Thank you from our Summer Seminarian Cody Bobick
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Allow me to extend a sincere word of gratitude to you for your warm welcome at St. Barnabas this summer. I am blessed to have met you. May we always be attentive to the voice of God in our lives and seek to do His will in all things with love each day. Be assured of my heartfelt prayers for each of you, and please continue to keep me close in prayer as I approach ordination.

President of U.S. Bishops Conference Issues Statement on Course of Action Responding to Moral Failures on Part of Church Leaders

Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston and President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, has issued the following statement noting the steps the U.S. Bishops Conference will take in addressing the failures of the Church in protecting the people of God. Cardinal DiNardo's full statement follows:

"The accusations against Archbishop Theodore McCarrick reveal a grievous moral failure within the Church. They cause bishops anger, sadness, and shame; I know they do in me. They compel bishops to ask, as I do, what more could have been done to protect the People of God. Both the abuses themselves, and the fact that they have remained undisclosed for decades, have caused great harm to people's lives and represent grave moral failures of judgement on the part of Church leaders.

These failures raise serious questions. Why weren't these allegations of sins against chastity and human dignity disclosed when they were first brought to Church officials? Why wasn't this egregious situation addressed decades sooner and with justice? What must our seminaries do to protect the freedom to discern a priestly vocation without being subject to misuse of power?

Archbishop McCarrick will rightly face the judgement of a canonical process at the Holy See regarding the allegations against him, but there are also steps we should be taking as the Church here in the United States. Having prayed about this, I have convened the USCCB Executive Committee. This meeting was the first of many among bishops that will extend into our Administrative Committee meeting in September and our General Assembly in November. All of these discussions will be oriented toward discerning the right course of action for the USCCB. This work will take some time but allow me to stress these four points immediately.

First, I encourage my brother bishops as they stand ready in our local dioceses to respond with compassion and justice to anyone who has been sexually abused or harassed by anyone in the Church. We should do whatever we can to accompany them. Second, I would urge anyone who has experienced sexual assault or harassment by anyone in the Church to come forward. Where the incident may rise to the level of a crime, please also contact local law enforcement. Third, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops will pursue the many questions surrounding Archbishop McCarrick's conduct to the full extent of its authority; and where that authority finds its limits, the Conference will advocate with those who do have the authority. One way or the other, we are determined to find the truth in this matter.

Finally, we bishops recognize that a spiritual conversion is needed as we seek to restore the right relationship among us and with the Lord. Our Church is suffering from a crisis of sexual morality. The way forward must involve learning from past sins. Let us pray for God's wisdom and strength for renewal as we follow St. Paul's instruction: 'Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect' (Romans 12:2)."
Back to School
Social Ministry will once again assist needy families with their back-to-school supplies for the new school year. Since the school lists are very specific, we have found that it is best to help these families with gift cards so they are able to purchase the needed items. Please help by donating a gift card to Staples, CVS, Target, Walmart, or Rite-Aid. As always, we thank you for your generosity. Donations can be left at the Rectory Office.

Telecare TV Announces Rebrand to Catholic Faith Network
Telecare TV announces that effective September 7, 2018 the network will rebrand from Telecare TV to the Catholic Faith Network. The comprehensive rebrand elevates the focus on quality, value-oriented Catholic programming. Catholic Faith Network (CFN) will continue to provide original content, daily Masses and devotions along with reporting on headline news from the Vatican and nationwide. In addition over ten new series will begin airing throughout our new season. Through its programming, Catholic Faith Network is dedicated to its vocation of being missionary disciples of the Church.

Msgr. Jim Vlaun, President and CEO said, “This rebrand comes at a time of remarkable growth! This new change better reflects who we are and lets all America know that we are available on their cable platforms, online and on social media proclaiming the Catholic faith. This is the result of a long process of discernment and a great deal of prayer and reflection with many people.”

A new logo has been created to reflect our mission and values, which is now part of the Catholic Faith Network identity. Msgr. Jim Vlaun said, “Our logo contains Christ as the center of our ministry and proclamation. Our Lord is surrounded by four quadrants, representing the four gospels, collectively expanding, illustrating broadcast waves of the Gospel being lived and preached through CFN.” Catholic Faith Network is a non-for-profit television and production facility with studios in Uniondale, NY and New York, NY. Catholic Faith Network is available on Cablevision, Verizon FiOS TV and Charter Spectrum throughout the New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut area. Catholic Faith Network is also available on selected cable and satellite systems nationwide, as well as on demand and live streaming at www.CFNtv.org.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul
In the Gospel Jesus said “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” Jesus tells us that he wants to stay close to us. In fact he assures us that in the Eucharist the bread and wine become his body and blood for the life of the world. Christ life is his gift to us. His love is his gift to us. His constant, strengthening, and comforting company is his gift to us. We find peace in this presence of Jesus, who promises us life now and for eternity. Please remember to support St. Vincent de Paul so that we may give hope and peace to the needy of the parish.

To register or receive more information about this weekend, please call Colette Fanelli at (631) 665-7052.

Ministry Fair September 23rd
A Ministry Fair is essential to generate awareness, enthusiasm, and involvement among our parishioners for the work of the many groups and ministries in our parish. This year we will be holding our fair on Sunday, September 23rd. A letter will be sent to a representative of every group, organization and ministry inviting you to participate.

The Men of the Way of Light
In today’s 1st reading, we find Elijah thirsty and hungry after walking one day into the desert. He has all but given up and asks the Lord to let him die. But God has plans for him. He sends an angel and gives him a hearth cake and a jug of water. Elijah eats, but then falls asleep. Again, the angel makes him eat and drink what God had provided. Afterward, Elijah is able to go further into the desert for forty days and forty nights and arrives at the mountain of God. How many times in our lives will we face a seemingly insurmountable task? Whether it be an illness or a desperate financial situation or a drug problem or a serious family problem, sometimes we are ready to give up. God shows us that he will provide what we need to get through any difficult time. If we trust in Him, anything is possible! Want to discuss how faith in God can get you through the tough times? Please join the Men of the Way of Light at our next meeting on Saturday, August 25th, immediately

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Good News for Health Professionals - New Agency Protects Conscience and Religious Rights. A new Conscience and Religion Freedom Division (OCR) in the Dept. of Health and Human Services (HHS) was established in January to restore and more vigorously and effectively enforce federal laws that protect the unalienable rights of conscience and religious freedom. “America’s doctors and nurses are dedicated to saving lives and should not be bullied out of the practice of medicine simply because they object to performing abortions against their conscience,” said OCR Director Roger Severino. “Laws protecting religious freedom and conscience rights are just empty words on paper if they aren’t enforced. No one should be forced to choose between helping sick people and living by one’s deepest moral or religious convictions. The new division will help guarantee that victims of unlawful discrimination will find justice. For too long, governments large and small have treated conscience claims with hostility instead of protection. But change is coming and it begins here and now.” “The Founding Fathers knew that a nation that respects conscience rights is more diverse and more free,” said acting HHS Secretary Eric Hargan.

If you wish to arrange a baptism, please contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. This meeting offers parents an opportunity to review the baptism ceremony and set the date. The meeting is more conversational than instructional. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic.

Baptisms are held on Saturday at 11:30 AM, and Sunday at 1:30 PM, when the Church is available.

If you wish to hold a private baptism you must bring a visiting priest to perform the baptism service. Private baptisms may be held on Saturday at 1:30 PM and 3:00 PM and on Sunday at 3:00 PM, if these times are available.

First time parents are required to attend a Baptism Class. Classes are held in the Holy Family Chapel on Agape Sunday, the second Sunday of the month. Crying babies and noisy children are welcome. We begin with Mass at 10:15 AM, when your baby will be welcomed to St. Barnabas, followed by refreshments and the class.

The dates for class are for the 10:30 Mass on August 12 and September 9. We return to the 10:15 Mass & class on October 14, November 11 and December 9.

Seminary of the Immaculate Conception, 440 West Neck Road, Huntington, NY 11743
At SEAS we honor the memory of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton everyday by teaching and learning Respect, Responsibility, and Reverence. Become a part of the SEAS family! Call the main office for registration details. Our program offers education for children age 2—8th grade. Check out our Facebook Page: Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton - Bellmore for a sneak peek into the school day!

Join us at the Bellmore Family Festival! We will be hosting a booth along side St. Barnabas. We need volunteers to help pass out give-a-ways and run games. Get a jump start on your Commitment to Service! Email: ksileo@steas.com to volunteer.

In 1794 Elizabeth married William Seton, and they were very happy. William worked with his father in the family shipping business. Elizabeth stayed home with their babies. She loved to play the piano and sing with them, while William would play the violin to make the toddlers bounce and dance.

We are a Regional Catholic School serving our four parishes: St. Barnabas, Cura of Ars, St. Raphael, St. Frances de Chantal.
