2 Priests and 2 Nuns in a Classroom

This past Tuesday, two Sisters of the Dominicans of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, Fr. Sean Magaldi and I visited St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School. It was a wonderful time. The two sisters - Sister Rene Noel and Sister Magdalena, spoke about their vocation stories and encouraged the girls to consider being nuns if God was calling them. They are very young sisters. Sister Rene Noel entered the convent at age 16. She is now 26 years old and has made her solemn profession. I said to her jokingly, ‘Saint Therese of the Child Jesus only beat her by one year!’ St. Therese entered the Carmelite Convent at age 15.

The students were very excited in meeting them. One of the students shouted in excitement, “There are nuns in the hallway!” They visited many classrooms from 1st grade to 8th grade. Two students from two different classes asked them the same question. “Do they have any regrets being a nun?” They both said they do not regret it at all. However, they did say that sometimes it is hard. They explained that at times it is hard because Jesus told us as His disciples, that we have to carry our Cross.

Carrying the Cross is a necessary part of any vocation, whether you are a priest, a nun, married or unmarried. It shows not only that we truly love even through suffering as Christ did, but also that Jesus is with us as we carry the Cross. Through the Cross, we are brought closer to Him. The sisters explained the importance of praying the Rosary. They carry their rosaries wherever they go and pray it daily. They have what is called, the Dominican Rosary that contains the original 15 Mysteries of the Rosary given to St. Dominic by the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is quite large. They also carry a regular 5 Decade Rosary for the new Luminous Mysteries that was instituted by St. John Paul II. They call the rosary a spiritual sword that protects us from giving into temptation. They stressed that the rosary is the greatest prayer of the Church besides Holy Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours. To show how large their Dominican Rosaries are and to have some fun with the children they asked the whole class of one of the lower grades to go inside one of the Sister’s Dominican Rosary. They were all able to fit!

Father Sean spoke to one of the upper grade classes about the importance of going to confession. He said, “If you go to me or to Father Jeff, you will have to say only one Hail Mary as your penance.”

All in all, it was a wonderful time spent with the three of them. The Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist is a growing community. They are based in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

That same day, I had dinner with our own sisters at St. Barnabas. It was great to hear their many years of service and perseverance. Sister Eleanor has been a nun for more than 65 years. May God reward her and all of the sisters abundantly in offering their whole life to Jesus Christ. As a parish, let us continue to pray for the youth, to pray for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Pray for Vocations
Let us pray for our Bishops, Priests and Seminarians. This week please keep our Seminarians in your prayers:
Monday - Manuel Blanco
Tuesday - Michael Lombardi
Wednesday - Nicholas Waldron
Thursday - Patrick O’Brien
Friday - Paul Clores
Saturday - Paul Pileggi
Sunday - Rafal Borowiejski

Mary, Mother of Jesus, throw your mantel of purity over our priests. Protect them, guide them, and keep them in your heart. Be a Mother to them, especially in times of discouragement and loneliness. Love them and keep them belonging completely to Jesus. Like Jesus, they, too, are your sons, so keep their hearts pure and virginal. Keep their minds filled with Jesus, and put Jesus always on their lips, so that He is the one they offer to sinners and to all they meet. Mary, Mother of Jesus, be their Mother, loving them and bringing them joy. Take special care of sick and dying priests, and the ones most tempted. Remember how they spent their youth and old age, their entire lives serving and giving all to Jesus. Mary, bless them and keep a special place for them in your heart. Give them a piece of your heart, so beautiful and pure and immaculate, so full of love and humility, so that they, too, can grow in the likeness of Christ. Dear Mary, make them humble like you, and holy like Jesus. Amen.

Presentation of Gifts
If you wish to carry the gifts of Bread and Wine to the altar at weekend Masses please contact an usher before Mass begins and sign your name on the list at the Church door.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
In the Gospel today, the sin of the rich man was not one of commission, but rather of omission. The rich man did not commit any sin of violence: he did not attack Lazarus. The sin of the rich man seems to have been his failure to notice Lazarus with ulcers on his body. Or if he did notice the pitiable condition of Lazarus, he did not lift a finger to help him. Lazarus was, according to the parable, in need both of food and medical attention, and the rich man did nothing. The rich man seems not to have an eye for the poverty of Lazarus’ condition nor a heart for his suffering. The basic commandment is to love God and neighbor. There is such a scriptural insistence of taking care of the poor and needy because when all have their fill of the good gifts of God, it is a sign of God’s care and presence, the in-breaking of God’s reign where no one will be in need. When we neglect to care for those in need we actually delay the coming of God’s kingdom. To have an eye and a heart of compassion for the poor is a grace of Jesus Christ. We cannot turn on the compassion of Jesus, as we would water from a tap. We must humbly ask that grace of compassion from Jesus Christ. The members of St. Vincent de Paul would like to thank the people in the parish who supported the Walk for the Poor which was held September 28th.

Focus on Religious Freedom
Some States Mandate Schools to Teach LGBT History:
Illinois just joined CA, CO, and NJ to require K-12 schools to teach LGBT 'history' incorporated into American history courses. Maryland is now developing a similar curriculum. Advocacy groups have praised these states for expanding their definitions of American history in the classroom. The laws mandate that publicly funded schools include “the roles and contributions of LGBT people in the history of this country and this State.” These laws also have their critics. Barnegat, NJ mayor, Alfonso Cirulli, said, “The government has no right to teach our kids morality.” Many parents have objected to the mandates and the laws’ implementation has been slow. CA school boards didn’t approve the first LGBT-inclusive textbooks for K-8 classrooms until 2017. A California based non-profit group, Queer Education, complained, “We have seen a lot of schools dragging their feet.”

Parents with different points of view have spoken at school board meetings. One California parent felt that teachers reading the children books about transgender people in 1st and 2nd grade is long before she may be ready to talk to her children at home about gender and sexuality. “I should be the one to educate about these things,” she said. Another California parent thinks her 5-year-old son, born a girl, would benefit from stories shared at school. American Principles Project director, Terry Schilling, a Washington, D.C. nonprofit whose mission is to re-establish human dignity as the basis for American society said, “I can’t think of anything weirder than being obsessed with teaching young children about sexuality. Even most parents struggle with the topic because of its difficulty but, somehow, we as parents are OK with a complete stranger teaching them. Parents need to reclaim their role as the primary educators of their children - especially as it pertains to their children’s sexuality. No one else has that right or responsibility.” “American children today don’t even know the basics of history. They are clueless as to the founding of America. They are already essentially being taught that America was founded by white men who oppressed women and minorities instead of what America was really founded on - the notion of human dignity, that all men are created equal and have inalienable rights. They aren’t taught that civil rights leaders like Frederick Douglas and Martin Luther King, Jr. viewed the ending of slavery and institution of civil rights as a continuation of the founding principles and not a contradiction.”

The Men of the Way of Light

In today’s Gospel, Jesus communicates three themes: the horrors of damnation, the importance of being merciful, and the unresponsiveness of people to the truth. When we read of the rich man’s plea for mercy and for a few drops of water to quench the torment and anguish of the flames of Hades it should certainly give us reason for concern. His punishment raises the question of our life’s direction and whether we are bound toward an eternity of peace with God or an eternity of torment and separation from God. We should recognize that the rich man was not in Hades for committing some terrible crime, but for his unmerciful lifestyle. This should cause us to pause and think. Do we walk around and ignore the less fortunate that we encounter? Are we oblivious to their physical and social dilemma? It is obvious from this story, as well as a myriad of other Scripture passages, that God puts a high premium on care and concern of the poor and unfortunate people of the world, and holds us accountable for how we respond to them.

The rich man’s mercy, not present in life, only seemed to appear when in the torment of Hades, he realized that others in his family might be joining him. His mercy reached out from there to his brothers in the hope that someone from eternity might go to them to warn them of their impending doom if they did not become more merciful. But Jesus knew the hearts of the people and that it wouldn’t make a difference to those who were already ignoring God. In Luke’s Gospel, when Jesus raises another Lazarus from the dead, those who were disinclined to believe went right on not believing even though Lazarus arose from the dead to witness to them.

Perhaps the truth of this story is that now is the time to repent. If we have not been serious with God and have only half-heartedly responded to Him and His Word, the message of this story is to repent and do it now. Stop waiting for some profound sign, like someone communicating from the dead, rather listen to the Scriptures and believe and obey. True repentance and belief will affect the way we relate to others and show them mercy.

Want to join a group of men who hold each other accountable in our pursuit of the Gospel? Join us at our next meeting on Saturday, October 5th, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass. We meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel. Bagels and coffee are served. Our meetings run until 10:30 AM. For more information, visit our FaceBook page.

Eucharistic Ministers

We would like to recognize Kaitlyn Agostini and Calianne Keane as being selected to be Extraordinary Ministers of the Holy Communion at Sacred Heart Academy. They attended the diocesan training program at Chaminade High School and were commissioned at Sacred Heart Academy during the Opening School Mass. Please keep these young women in your prayers as they begin this new ministry. They are a positive example to young people today. We thank them for their service.

Winthrop Hospital Recruiting EM’s

NYU Winthrop Hospital in Mineola is recruiting Eucharistic Ministers. If you want to bring comfort and peace to patients, staff and families, and at the same time add joy and meaning to your own life, consider becoming a Eucharistic Minister. Staff and volunteers in the Department of Pastoral Care at NYU Winthrop offer communion to Roman Catholic patients seven days a week. The Department is looking for committed persons to join our team. Specifically looking for persons to serve on Wednesdays, Thursdays, or Sundays. To register or to obtain more information, email Karen.jones@nyulangone.org or call 663-9524.

Social Ministry Position
A Southern Nassau parish is seeking a Parish Social Ministry (PSM) Director. The primary responsibility is to build parish leadership and participation in the community by engaging people in various aspects of the ministry through direct service, convening and advocacy using the principles of Catholic Social Teaching and the Gospel call to serve. The PSM Director must be a person of faith, have a deep appreciation for the dignity of the human person, a compassion for those who are poor and most vulnerable to society, and a willingness to advocate with them to change both their circumstances and the structures or situations that cause them. Qualifications and skills: desire to live the Gospel by serving those in need, knowledge of and commitment to Catholic Social Teaching, experience with Parish Social Ministry and social justice or related, managerial and interpersonal skills, computer skills, Bachelor’s degree a plus. This position is full time. Salary commensurate with experience. Please send cover letter and resume by email to: Malloy.Paula@CatholicCharities.cc.
Regular Sacrificial Giving
Contribute to St. Barnabas with on-line banking and bill paying services. Call the rectory to request the service. Send a check to St. Barnabas with a weekly donation indicated. Include your Name, Address & Envelope Number.

Estate Planning
When preparing your estate plan, please consider a bequest to The Parish of St. Barnabas, Bellmore. You can make a contribution to support ongoing operations of the Church or contribute to a particular project. Your legal counsel can help you refine the bequest language to suit your specific wishes for The Parish of St. Barnabas. Thank you.

Hymnals
There are still hymnals available to memorialize a loved one. The dedication is placed on the inside cover. The donation is $25. Please stop by or call the rectory at 785-0054 if you would like to dedicate a hymnal.

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

You may have experienced the gift of our Ministry of Consolation. These are volunteers who assist families in preparation for a funeral of a loved one. We meet with the family to help choose readings, hymns and gather other information for the funeral Mass. At the funeral Mass we welcome, help with seating and are there with the boxes of tissues where needed. We are in great need of new volunteers. If you are interested, phone the Rectory Office, 785-0054. Thank you.
If you wish to arrange a baptism, please contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. This meeting offers parents an opportunity to review the baptism ceremony and set the date. The meeting is more conversational than instructional. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic.

Baptisms are held on Saturday at 11:30 AM, and Sunday at 1:30 PM, when the Church is available. (See the list of dates below).

First time parents are required to attend a Baptism Class. Classes are held in the Holy Family Chapel on Agape Sunday, the second Sunday of the month. Crying babies and noisy children are welcome. We begin with Mass at 10:15 AM, when your baby will be welcomed to St. Barnabas, followed by refreshments and the class.

The time to do good for others is now, while we are alive.

Match the shapes.

The Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus

Jesus told a story about a rich man and a beggar.

Match the shadows.

The beggar sat at the rich man’s gate.
He had nothing to eat.

Add these items to the picture.

Finally, both men died.

Circle the 1 different in each row.
What does God ask of us?

Those who are rich in this present world should ...

(1) not be ________

(2) not put their hope in ________

(3) put their hope in ________

(4) be rich in ________

(5) be ________ and willing to ________

Paul gave a simple command that is not so simple to carry out.

Find the answer to each subtraction problem. Write the letter that falls at that position in the alphabet. (For example 1 – A.)
