Remember, O Lord, those who suffer the loss of loved ones …
Remember all who have died in the conflict with terrorism …
Remember those who are still filled with fear or anger …
Remember this nation …

Stir your Church to declare your peace where there is hatred …
Hold all in your love and justice …

September 11th will always hold a particular significance for so many families in St. Barnabas. Nearly 3,000 people lost their lives that day. Seventeen years later we come together to remember them because we want to show to ourselves and their families that we do not forget those who are most important to us, especially those who died in such a tragic and meaningless way. We also remember the first responders to those events, and those who serve our community today. We hope you can join us for the 9/11 Memorial Mass. If you have any questions, please contact the Rectory at 516-785-0054.
’They brought him to Jesus.’
And who are ‘they?’ We aren’t really told. Are they family of the man? His friends? They aren’t clearly identified. And maybe it’s intended to be that way. Maybe ‘they’ are the ones who know Jesus’ power, and faithfully respond to it. Maybe ‘they’ represent all those who believe in Jesus, who trust Jesus, who know that he can help in time of need. Maybe ‘they’ are intended to stand for all of us hearing Mark’s gospel today, including you and I.
’They’ in this story are people of incredible faith. Jesus hasn’t been in their territory for long. They don’t know much about him, but they know enough to bring a man who needs help to Jesus. They know enough to beg Jesus to relieve the man’s suffering. They know that the suffering, dying one, is Savior and Lord of all, the one who breaks into the world with the power of God, the one who can set them free them, and all who are troubled by sin and sickness and death.
’They brought the man to Jesus.’ And I wonder if that could be written of us, who know the story, who have seen and heard of the power and mercy of Jesus? When people of all ages come to hear and learn about Jesus, and they come to this Church longing to know life in Jesus, will it be said of us, ‘They brought them to Jesus?’ When the lonely, and the sick, and the suffering, and the dying are looking for comfort and peace, will it be said of us, ‘They brought them to Jesus?’ When those who have lost their way in life, or those who have never heard of Jesus, those who have never known God’s power and love and forgiveness come to us, begging for direction and hope, will it be said of us, ‘They brought them to Jesus?’ When victims of injustice and hatred long for a reason to go on living with hope, when the hungry and the homeless wonder if and when they will ever be treated with compassion, will it be said of us, ‘They brought them to Jesus?’ Like the people in the story, will we bring people to Jesus?

St. Vincent de Paul
In today’s Gospel we hear how Jesus “makes the deaf hear and the mute speak”! In living the Gospel, we must open our ears to hear and recognize all the everyday opportunities for making God’s presence known especially to those who are poor and suffering. St. Vincent tell us that humility is a grace of our Lord Jesus. With humility God will be glorified, the poor will be served and made happy, and we ourselves will enjoy the grace and peace of Jesus Christ, who is gentle and humble of heart. On September 9th, the Church also celebrates the Feast of the Blessed Frederic Ozanam, the founder of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Frederic heard the call of Jesus to love and serve those who are suffering. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call us at 785-6243 so that together we can “make God’s presence known” to those who are suffering and poor.

The Men of the Way of Light
In today’s Gospel, Jesus performs another miracle as He heals a deaf man. In Jesus’ time, people who had an affliction were thought to be cursed. Jewish tradition prevented these people from worshipping at the Temple. Healthy people, afraid that they too would become sick and not be permitted to worship, isolated the afflicted. When Jesus cures the blind or the lepers or the deaf, it is so that they could be reunited with their community and with their worship. Sometimes our ears become closed to those crying out in need. Our eyes often choose not to see the suffering around us. This convenient blindness and deafness separates us from Jesus’ heart. Through the miracle of the Eucharist and the intervention of the Holy Spirit, the eyes and ears of our hearts can be opened, truly reuniting us with our Lord! Are your eyes and ears truly open?
Please join the Men of the Way of Light at our next meeting on Saturday, September 22nd,

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

“In God We Trust”, Our National Motto, posted in schools in more states! “Our National Motto is enshrined in the House and Senate chambers in Washington. It’s on the walls of the Capital Dome. The National Motto’s declaration should be engraved not simply in stone but on the hearts and minds of our citizens, signifying our true strength and heritage as a people,” said Dr. Mark Creech, Director of Christian Action League. “Our National Motto is on our money, it’s on our license plates. It’s part of our National Anthem. Our National Motto and founding documents are the cornerstone of freedom, and we should teach our children about these things,” said TN Rep. Susan Lynn. If you wish to arrange a baptism, please contact the rectory at 785-0054. Once your request is received you will be invited to meet one of the priests. This meeting offers parents an opportunity to review the baptism ceremony and set the date. The meeting is more conversational than instructional. Forms need to be completed giving information on the parents, child’s date and place of birth, as well as the names and religious affiliation of the sponsors. At least one sponsor must be a practicing Catholic.

Baptisms are held on Saturday at 11:30 AM, and Sunday at 1:30 PM, when the Church is available.

If you wish to hold a private baptism you must bring a visiting priest to perform the baptism service. Private baptisms may be held on Saturday at 1:30 PM and 3:00 PM and on Sunday at 3:00 PM, if these times are available.

First time parents are required to attend a Baptism Class. Classes are held in the Holy Family Chapel on Agape Sunday, the second Sunday of the month. Crying babies and noisy children are welcome. We begin with Mass at 10:15 AM, when your baby will be welcomed to St. Barnabas, followed by refreshments and the class.

The dates for class are for the 10:30 Mass on September 9. We return to the 10:15 Mass & class on October 14, November 11 and December 9.
